MEETING AT MEYETOWN.—At a meeting held at Meyetown, on Friday evening, April 26, 1861, for the relief of the families of those volunteering for the Government forces...

After prayer by Rev. Clark, D. D., Dr. Schwartz stated that the meeting had been called for the purpose of expressing the loyalty of the citizens of Meyetown to the General Government...

WHEREAS, in our popular form of government, it is a fundamental right of the people in their lawful and peaceable assemblies, to express their opinions and purposes in regard to all measures of public and general policy...

Resolved, That the multiplied aggressions by a portion of the southern States against the peace, welfare and very existence of the national government, commencing with the seizure of forts, arsenals, custom houses, mints, vessels, &c. of the Union...

Resolved, That while deploring war, and especially civil war, we must yet stand by the Constitution and Union, the wisest and best ever enjoyed by man, and hereby tender to the National Government our firm determination to support it in all lawful efforts to maintain its authority, dignity and existence...

Resolved, That the men who have left their families, their business and their quiet places at home, in order to support the government at Washington in its noble endeavors to preserve the Union, the Constitution and the Laws, have our sympathies, and our prayers that the protection and favor of Providence may be theirs...

After prayer by Rev. Mr. Morehead, the meeting adjourned. G. F. DAVENPORT, Secretary. The remarks made by Rev. Mr. Clark, on the above resolutions, were substantially as follows:

Mr. Chairman: I am not here as a partisan. If this had been a democratic or a republican meeting, I should not have been present. But I am here as a citizen, a loyal citizen of that Government which at the cost of so much life and treasure has been given us by our ancestors...

few female friends, one of which furnished the account which we give of the scene, the lady met her husband, and in terms of scorching eloquence, reproached him with his shame. "Go home with you!" she exclaimed. "Never! Our paths in this world are hereafter separate. I disown you. A coward and a traitor you are no husband of mine. Henceforth you are to me as dead. As long as I live I shall wear mourning, and be as a widow; and rest assured I shall educate our children to execrate and despise your memory as that of a recreant and traitor."

The Atlantic Monthly. "Agnes of Sorrento" is the title of the New Romance which Mrs. Harriet Beecher Stowe has just written for the Atlantic Monthly. The first pages are given in the May number of that work, and the manner in which the story opens assures us that its publication will add to the already brilliant reputation of this most popular of American authors.

The story is one of love and duty, of joy and trial. Its heroine is a young girl, born in a Catholic country and educated under the influence of Catholic institutions, and in the development of the plot the author has sought to illustrate the influences of that creed upon the lives and characters of its votaries.

From the intense interest in this subject which has been manifested by the people of the United States within the past few years, and the fact that it has entered so largely into the discussion of the political as well as religious questions of the time, it cannot be doubted that Mrs. Stowe's elucidation of it, through the medium of a fictitious narrative, will cause it to be as widely sought for and as eagerly perused as her previous brilliant contributions to American literature have been.

The Reinforcements at the Capitol—the Fugitive Virginians. HARRISBURG, April 26.—Positive official advice received to-night show that 4,000 Northern troops entered Washington before four o'clock yesterday afternoon, and that an abundant supply of provisions were following them. Perfect security is now felt in Washington with regard to its defence.

The steamer Keystone State, escorted by the Pawnee, passed up the Potomac without molestation, and reached Washington on Wednesday night, and landed 250 marines and sailors. They left the same night. No attempt was made to interrupt their progress. One of the Virginians arrived to-night was formerly an officer of the Federal House of Representatives, and a Breckinridge Democrat. He brought the title deeds of his estate with him, but expects that his property, worth $90,000, will be confiscated. He reports that every man is compelled to serve the State or leave.

BERHAVE'S HOLLAND BITTERS. THE CELEBRATED HOLLAND REMEDY FOR DYSPEPSIA, DISEASE OF THE KIDNEYS, LIVER COMPLAINT, WEAKNESS OF ANY KIND, FEVER AND AGUE, AND the various affections consequent upon a disordered STOMACH OR LIVER. Such as Indigestion, Acidity of the Stomach, Colicky Pains, Heartburn, Loss of Appetite, Dependancy, Constipation, Bilious and Bleeding Piles, in all Nervous, Rheumatic, and Neuritic Affections, it has in numerous instances proved highly beneficial, and in others effected a decided cure. This is a purely vegetable compound, prepared on strictly scientific principles, after the manner of the celebrated Holland Professor, Berhave. Its reputation at home preceded its introduction here, the demand commencing with those of the Fatherland scattered over the face of this mighty country, many of whom brought with them and handed down the tradition of its value. It is now offered to the American public, knowing that its truly wonderful medicinal virtues must be acknowledged. It is particularly recommended to those persons whose constitutions may have been impaired by the continuous use of ardent spirits, or other forms of dissipation. Generally instantaneous in effect, it finds its way directly to the seat of life, thrilling and quickening every nerve, raising up the drooping spirit, and, in fact, infusing new health and vigor in the system. NOTICE—Whoever expects to find this a leverage will be disappointed; but to the sick, weak and low spirited, it will prove a grateful aromatic cordial, possessed of singular remedial properties. READ CAREFULLY! The Genuine highly concentrated Berhave's Holland Bitters is put up in half-pint bottles only, and retails at ONE DOLLAR per bottle, or six bottles for Five Dollars. The great demand for this truly delicate Medicine has induced many imitations, which the public should guard against purchasing. Beware of Impostition. See that our name is on the label of every bottle you buy. Sold by Druggists generally. It can be forwarded by Express to most points. SOLE PROPRIETORS, BENJAMIN PAGE, JR. & CO.
