THE RELIEF FUND.—Efforts have been made of late to induce the Commissioners to make an appropriation for the support of those families who had their main stay taken away by volunteer service, in lieu of the subscription raised by citizens. The movement would have been well enough at the start, had a law existed for that purpose, but under present circumstances our own opinion is that the mode of relief first adopted ought to be continued until the term for which the Logan Guards enfisted has expired. This will be in July county might make provision for the families of those in need who may continue in service. The Attempt to Get Possession of Fort Pickens by Bribery.

A correspondent of the Washington Sunday Chronicle, writing on board the Sabine, off Pensacola, under date of April 20, gives details of the recent unsuccessful attempt to get possession of Fort Pickens by bribery. Lieut. Slemmer, having had his suspicions aroused by the frequent pas-sage of letters and papers between the Fort and Warrington, gave orders that all such communications must be stopped. The very next day a roll of papers was sent over from Warrington to a sergeant, which Lieut. Slemmer opened and examined .-He was rewarded for his trouble by finding a note inclosed, making vague offers to the man if he would betray his trust A watch was set over the sergeant, and the next day another package came over, addressed to the same man, and having this note inclosed:

"What a jackass you are. I again renew my offer of a position, with a lieutenant's com-mission, and all your pay two fold that is due you from the Federal Government. Also to Flynn. If you will help us along to save bloodshed, I can offer any private in the company $500, and any non commissioned officer $1,000, together with a guarantee of future promotion as high, or higher, as he now stands. Every man who will take upon him-self to give us the Fort without bloodshed, and save the lives of your garrison, will be well paid—all back pay, $500 for privates, $1,000 for non commissioned officers, and a commission in the Confederate army. This I offer by authority. I would not offer it otherwise. as a friend, I believe, will trust me. We MUST and WILL have the Fort, but 'tis not worth one drop of blood; but if it cost 5,000 lives, we must and will have it. Fill it full a Federal troops if you will, yet we must and vill have it. Don't be a dam'd fool. When and where can I see you? I will go over to night and take a cocktail, if you say so. Answer first opportunity.

Yours. &c. The same day (April 10) Lieut, Slemu mer received private information that the e troops on the opposite side were making o preparations, providing boats, &c., and ingrended to come that night or the next. li He immediately addressed a note to Capt. Adams, commanding the squadron, inforliming him of the fact, and requesting reina forcements. A storm prevented the Wya and otte from going out the harbor on that nnight, but Lieut. Slemmer kept his men in t position during the night, and had the ser geant strictly watched.

Just at this critical moment Capt. Adtams received information from Washington Ito reinforce the fort, and immediately com-I plied with Lieut. Slemmer's requisition, and on the morning of the 11th the latter sent the ordnance sergeant referred to on board the Sabine, deeming it unsafe to keep him at Pickens, even if a good man, subject to the influences around him.

On the morning of the 13th of April a private of Slemmer's company made the ollowing statement:

'I was on picket guard last night. During the night I saw a small boat approach the beach. I stepped back to see what it was about, when a man came up before me. I brought my musket to a charge, and ordered him to balt. He said 'Don't shoot, I am a Logan Guard Fund, and is signed by Capt. In to hait. He said Dont Shoot, I am a friend.' He then began to talk to me, and to ask about the fort. While he was talking, three others came up behind me. They ask men, &c., about the flank defence, and wheth until Monday evening, when the sound of thunder—the first of the season—indication in the season again. I told them on Monday night, said, 'We will be over and ready.' As were going away one of them said 'How are a roll of bills in my hand, and said, 'Give that to them.' He then gave me a roll of bills amounting to sixty dollars, which I now

After making this statement he gave the $60 to Slemmer. The gallant Licuten ant declared that it was only when he saw these evidences of intentions to bribe his men to spike his flank defence guns, and nitely, and for a month or so will continue thus obtain possession of the fort, he be lieved it necessary to call for reinforcements.
