LOCAL AFFAIRS.

MILITARY.—The Logan Guards are organized as follows: Captain J. A. Mathews; 1st Lieutenant, H. A. Eisenbise; 2d Lieut., Wm. Weber—101 strong, and said to be second to no company in the camp. They will probably leave Harrisburg this week.

Captain Neice's company is nearly full, and will leave for Harrisburg to-day or to-morrow.

Two tomatoes, left at our office last week by Mr. Charles Gaskins, weighed 4½ pounds. Who has larger?

An old shantee at the sand hole, west end of Ard's ridge, was burnt down one night last week. It was formerly occupied by the Boals family, and of late years has been taken possession of by different colored persons. The last tenant moved out on the day previous to its destruction.

The Slemmer Guards held a picnic in Banks' Grove on Saturday last, and with little exception had a pleasant time of it. At the target shooting, in the afternoon, Harry C. McCoy was first, Joseph Swain second, and George R. Frysinger third best.

The Relief Board met on Tuesday, and disposed of all the cases before it which had been duly certified. Much trouble has arisen thus far from the want of the proper certificates of soldiers being mustered into the service—an indispensable prerequisite to drawing pay.

PICTURES.—J. Smith & Son are again open at their old stand, one door south of the Town Hall, and with their fine light, are prepared to furnish ambrotype and photographic pictures, and guarantee satisfaction.

The Grand Jury of Centre county lately returned the Bellefonte Watchman as a sheet giving aid and comfort to the enemy. This is a nice record for a democratic newspaper.

Show a tory, and in nine cases out of ten the one pointed out is a Breckinridge democrat. This fact alone ought to satisfy all true men how they have been misled by political knaves in the name of democracy.

President Lincoln, in answering the traitor Governor of Kentucky, points out the fact that by no word had said Governor referred to or desired the preservation of the Union. Douglas well said there can be no neutrals in this war.

The failure of Union county to be represented in the late judicial conference arose from Mr. Lawson (who was the choice of that county) not appointing conferees. Union is we think all right.

The confiscation act is falling with a heavy hand on some of the Southern traitors.

A few of the democratic papers are still occasionally troubled with the nigger.

The Southern papers are beginning to complain of almost everything. War was all right so long as they were left alone in their stealing, but its reality is beginning to wake them up to the stern fact that blows can be given as well as taken by Uncle Sam.

Government continues to ferret out traitors in the north, and gives them comfortable quarters in Fort Lafayette.

The Emperor of Russia has caused an official despatch to be read to our government assuring it of the Emperor's sympathy in the great struggle now going on. France and England are again in the back ground.

Bob Tyler, once notorious in Philadelphia for his extravagant pretensions and bad poetry, has been appointed Register of the Treasury of the rebel government at Richmond. Bob has an unsettled account with our State Treasury, contracted while he was democratic Prothonotary of the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania, which needs adjusting.

The People's Party of Juniata county have nominated the following ticket: Assembly, William W. Davis, of Mifflintown—Associate Judges, Joseph Mumroy, of Beale tp., and John Motzer of Walker tp.—Sheriff, George W. Smith, of Delaware tp.—Register and Recorder, Patterson Alexander, of Turbett tp.—County Treasurer, Jasper Slamaker, of Mifflintown—Commissioner, John Williams, of Spruce Hill tp.—District Attorney, David W. Chambers, of Mifflintown—County Surveyor, William Dunn, of Fayette tp.—Auditor, John W. Taylor, of Spruce Hill tp.

Narrow Escape.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 6.—An anonymous telegraphic despatch to the reporter of the Associated Press, dated Chain Bridge, says that Capt. Strong, of the 2d Regiment, Wisconsin Volunteers, had a narrow escape. He was on picket duty three miles in front of our lines on the Virginia side of the river, opposite the Chain Bridge. Being mounted and in advance of his men, he was suddenly surrounded and taken prisoner by six secessionists—four infantry and two cavalry. After taking him a short distance to the rear, they demanded his pistol. Thinking this his only chance of escape, he drew a revolver, fired, and shot two of his captors. Then putting spurs to his horse, he started for camp on full run. The remainder of the party fired upon him, one ball passing through his canteen, another through his coat, grazing the skin, and a third through his left cheek, passing out his mouth. Nevertheless, he made good his escape, and came into camp again this afternoon, ready again to enter upon duty. Captain Strong fought bravely at Bull Run.

Who Hoisted the Flag at Fort Clark.

Commodore Stringham has submitted a supplementary report to the Secretary of War in relation to the Hatteras Inlet affair, in which he says:

"I venture to relate two incidents. The raising of the United States flag upon Fort Clark I have mentioned, and that it was a deed of noble daring was apparent to friends and enemies.

It was done by a sailor from the United States steamer Pawnee (I regret I have not his name). He was one of the few from that vessel out of their ship, their boat having been swamped in landing troops.

The Minnesotians yet talk of an incident which occurred on board this ship. I. D. Kraigbaum, in sponging a gun, unfortunately lost overboard his sponger. Quick as thought he plunged overboard, grasped it, swam up to the port and was helped in by his comrades.

When asked by the officer why he did so rash an act, he replied he did not want his gun to be disgraced.

I am sure the Department will pardon me for relating these incidents. I can only offer as excuse the pride which I take in officers and men under my command who are thus ready to risk life in the service of their country."

The sailor of the Pawnee who hoisted the flag on Fort Clark was Benjamin Swearer, of Baltimore. Coxswain of the Captain's gig.

Baltimore, Sept. 8.—Some important arrests were made within the last twenty-four hours, which reflects credit on the vigilance of the government police.

On Monday night the officers arrested Mr. J. Grady and nineteen others, mostly residents of the eighth ward, at the North Point Monument House, on the Trap road, about eight miles from the city. They were endeavoring to make their way to Virginia. The party had gone thither in wagons, and were to have embarked on a schooner, probably for the eastern shore, and from thence to Virginia. Among the articles seized was a quantity of blue flannel, several military uniforms, packages of letters, medicines, &c., and a sessional flag. The whole party was taken to Fort McHenry. Grady is one of Marshal Kane's police.

This morning, about daybreak, A. Williams, doing business as a coachmaker, at No. 50 German street, was arrested charged with treason against the government. A few days previous it was ascertained that he had been engaged by certain parties to make a wagon with a false top and bottom, to facilitate the transmission of contraband articles south of the Potomac. The a-cused, after being closely watched, was arrested in the new wagon, with a pair of excellent horses, just as he was leaving his shop. The false bottom contained twenty large sized navy revolvers, of superior quality; a quantity of gold lace, red flannel, a package of one hundred and twenty letters, addressed to parties in Petersburg, Richmond, Norfolk, and Fairfax, and some from several first class business houses in Baltimore. The letters and other articles were sent to General Dix. Williams son was sent to Fort McHenry.

Died.

In Newton Hamilton, on Friday, Aug. 23d, Mrs. MARGARET SMITH, aged 79 years.

The deceased was for many years a resident of Lewistown, and those who knew her best bear testimony to her amiability of character and gentleness of disposition. She adhered to the Christian profession while she lived, and left the assurance behind that she has gone to that place where the bloom of youth never fades, and the infirmities of old age are unknown.

On the 3d inst., at the house of her son-in-law, John Hamilton, Mrs. CATHARINE STOVY, aged 87 years, 2 months and 3 days.

It has in numerous instances proved highly beneficial, and in others effected a decided cure. This is a purely vegetable compound, prepared on strictly scientific principles, after the manner of the celebrated Holland Professor, Berhave. Its reputation at home produced its introduction here, the demand connecting with those of the Fatherland scattered over the face of this mighty country, many of whom brought with them and handed down the tradition of its value. It is now offered to the American public, knowing that its truly wonderful medicinal virtues must be acknowledged.

It is particularly recommended to those persons whose constitutions may have been impaired by the continuous use of ardent spirits, or other forms of dissipation. Generally instantaneous in effect, it finds its way directly to the seat of life, invigorating and quickening every nerve, raising up the drooping spirit, and, in fact, infusing new health and vigor in the system.
