Saratoga Rolls .- One quart of water, two ounces of butter, one gill of yeast, and a little salt. Mix them at nine o'clock at night, as thick as you can stir with a spoon and put them in a warm place. Next morning, two hours before breakfast, take more flour, make them into a light dough, put them in pans, and let them stand until light. Bake fifteen or twenty minutes in French Toast .- This is a very nice breakfast dish. Take a couple of eggs, beat them, and pour with them a little milk, season with pepper and salt. Cut your bread as if for toast, pour the egg over it, and put it in a pan of hot butter, and fry brown.

Hair Washes.-We copy the following receipt for a hair-wash from the Saturday Post.

'Let me caution all gentlemen frequenting barber shops against the time-honored cation is central, and convenient custom of dressing their glossy locks with preparations of oils and rums; it will ruin your hair. . Again, don't use any preparations, washes, unguents, or dyes on the hair or whiskers; nor sage teas, water, or keep a good hotel, and hope to anything but the following preparation, which I warrant to render all hair rich, thick, dark, and glossy, and soft as silk after long using. Procure at any drug store 1 pint.

Best castor oil, olive oil, Pure fresh lard. Good beef marrow,

1 66

Put all together in a vessel on the fire, and allow it to simmer; then take it off, and add two tablespoonfuls of the best brandy; shake well; then add a few drops of any oil of extracts to scent, to suit the taste. Then bottle in a wide-month, glass-stopper bottle; use one tablespoonful each morning at your toilet, no more, no matter the quantity of hair. Shake well the bottle each time before using. Try it one year, and my word for it, you will be astonished and gratified. Now either of the above used separately won't do; for castor oil is too thick and gummy, olive oil is too thin, etc., just the reverse of castor; beef marrow is better, but too cold and clammy. Lard of Executed in the best style known in the art, a superfine quality alone is better than either, as this gives softness to crispy hair. Brandy or alchol, or bay rum, or rum, or spirits, or cologne of any kind turns all hair red and foxy, used promiseuously. If your head itches, wash it clean, occasionally, with soft water and salt; moderately strong with soft water and salt; moderately strong it allays irritation of the scalp, and will For Cases, Medallions, Pins, Rings &c. strengthen the hair. Beware of lead wa ters, or astringent lotions of any kind; if you have naturally a good suit of hair, never use anything but comb and brush.

The Proprietor in calling the attention of this preparation, does so with a feeling of the utmost confidence in its virtues and adaptation to the diseases for which it is recommended.

It is no new and untried article, but one that has stood the test of a twelve years' trial before the American people, and its reputation and sale are unrivalled by any similar preparations extant. The testimony in its favor given by the most prominent and well known physicians and individuals in all parts of the country is immense, and a careful perusal of the almanae, published annually by the proprietors, and to be had gratis of any of their agents, cannot but satisfy the most skeptical that this remedy is really deserving the great celebrity it has obtained.

Scrofula, or King's Evil, is a constitutional disease, a corruption of the blood, by which this fluid becomes vitiated, weak, and poor. Being in the circulation, it pervades the whole body, and may burst out in disease on any part of it. No organ is free from its attacks, nor is there one which it may not destroy. The scrofulous taint is variously caused by mercurial disease, low living, disordered or unhealthy food, impure air, filth and filthy habits, the depressing vices, and, above all, by the venereal infection. What-ever be its origin, it is hereditary in the constitution, descending "from parents to children unto the third and fourth generation;" indeed, it seems to be the rod of Him who says, "I destructive diseases of the liver, kidneys, brain, and, indeed, of all the organs, arise from or are aggravated by the same cause.

One quarter of all our people are scrofulous; their persons are invaded by this lurking infection, and their health is undermined by it. To cleanse it from the system we must renovate the blood by an alterative medicine, and invigorate it by healthy food and exercise, Such a medicine we supply in

will visit the iniquities of the fathers upon their children,"

Its effects commence by deposition from the blood of corrupt or ulcerous matter, which, in the lungs, liver, and internal organs, is termed tubercles; in the glands, swellings; and on the surface, eruptions or sores. This foul corruption, which genders in the blood, depresses the energies of life, so that scrofulous constitutions not only suffer from scrofulous com-plaints, but they have far less power to with-stand the attacks of other diseases; conse-quently, vast numbers perish by disorders which, although not scrofulous in their nature, are still rendered fatal by this taint in the system. Most of the consumption which do system. Most of the consumption which de-cimates the human family has its origin directly in this scrofulous contamination; and many

So wide is the field of its usefulness and so numerous are the cases of its cures, that almost every section of country abounds in persons publicly known, who have been restored from alarming and even desperate diseases of the lungs by its use. When once tried, its superiority over every other medicine of its kind is too apparent to escape observation, and where its virtues are known, the public no longer hesitate what antidote to employ for the distressing and dangerous affections of the pulmonary organs that are incident to our climate. While many inferior remedies thrust upon the community have failed and been discarded, this has gained friends by every trial, conferred benefits on the afflicted they can never forget, and produced cures too numerous and too remarkable to be forgotten.
