LOCAL AFFAIRS

THE RELIEF FUND.—Some changes were made at the meeting on Saturday by which the pay of those claiming relief on the ground of partial support is reduced to one payment a month.

SUDDEN DEATH.—A dispatch was received yesterday morning, giving information of the death of John Kennedy, Sen., at or near Lock Haven, whither he had gone with one of his canal boats.

MORE SOLDIERS MONEY.—James H. Mann, Esq., returned from Washington City a few days ago with about $1200 from the Milford County Cavalry—$1200 from Capt. Maclay's Milroy Company—and $1200 from Capt. Boal's Centre County Company—forwarded to their wives, families and relatives by the soldiers.

Remittances were also received from Capt. Zollinger's, Capt. Neice's, and the 49th Regimental Band, which with the amounts sent home by commissioned officers will probably swell the total sent to this county to between seven and eight thousand dollars.

The Ladies Association of this place we learn have forwarded 100 pair of stockings for the use of the soldiers. They have now determined to use their efforts to make mittens for the Logan Guards and Burns Infantry, and request all who are desirous to assist in any way to attend a meeting on Thanksgiving afternoon, at 3 o'clock, at Geo W. Elder's, or D. Candor's, Esq., on Tuesday evening, or consulting any of the ladies of the Association.

A. Felix has just arrived from Philadelphia with a splendid stock of fresh goods for the holidays. Call and examine his goods; you can be suited with anything you may want.

To-morrow being Thanksgiving day, business will be in a great measure suspended. The Post Office will be open until nine o'clock in the morning, and then close until the arrival of the eastern mail.

The transcripts for taking the triennial assessment were delivered to the Assessors on Friday and Saturday last, as follows:

- Lewistown—John B. Selheimer.
Granville—John Cupples.
Derry—Samuel Mitchell.
Decatur—Joseph Yetter.
Oliver—Elisha Bratton.
Bratton—Daniel Yoder.
McVeytown—Dr. J. A. Swartz.
Wayne—Daniel Stine, Jr.
Armugh—Wm. J. Thompson.
Brown—Matthew Taylor.
Union—Henry P. Taylor.
Menno—D. M. Contner.
John Robb, Assessor for Newton Hamilton did not attend.
Henry L. Close was appointed one of the Assistant Assessors of Armugh in place of an absentee.

The horses attached to the Northumberland mail coach ran off this morning while the driver was receiving some goods at Franciscus's, upset the coach on the square, breaking the front part considerably, and made their way out of town.

COMMISSIONERS' OFFICE.—Col. John McDowell, Jr., was qualified immediately after the last meeting of the Return Judges, and entered upon the duties of his office, in place of Mr. John Peachey, whose term had expired. Mr. P. retires from the board with the good wishes of all for his future welfare, and carries with him the consciousness of a faithful discharge of his duties, to both county and taxpayers. The board as now constituted consists of Richeson Bratton, Esq., President, and Samuel Brower and John McDowell, Jr., Esqrs.

WINTER.—The first snow squall this winter occurred on the 15th inst., since which we have had snow, hail and rain in small quantities.

THE A. L. S.—The following officers were elected on Saturday a week: President, H. J. Walters; Vice President, Thomas M. Uley; Recording Secretary, George R. Frynsinger; Corresponding Secretary, Henry A. Peters; Librarian, Howard Helman; Assistant Librarian, John T. McClure; Treasurer, Robert W. Patton; Editor, John A. McKee.

The Lochiel Cavalry, Col. Williams, in which a number of our citizens are enlisted, left Harrisburg at five o'clock P. M. Monday for Kentucky.

OYSTERS, ICE CREAM, &c.—Those who like to partake of a dish of choice oysters, at a table furnished with slaughts and sauces of fine relish, will of course call on Mrs. Wertz, a few doors west of Sample's hotel. In pleasant weather, Ice Cream can also be had every Tuesday and Saturday. In addition to groceries, candies, cakes, and fancy articles generally, she also keeps on hand a superior article of genuine Cider Vinegar, and warranted to be so.

PICTURES.—J. Smith & Son are again open at their old stand, one door south of the Town Hall, and with their fine light, are prepared to furnish ambrotype and photographic pictures, and guarantee satisfaction.

Married. On Monday evening, 18th inst., by Rev. Mr. McMurray, SIMON S. CRANSTON, of West Chester to MISS RACHEL HUDSON, of this place.

On the 14th inst., by Rev. J. P. Shindler, I. MIDDLESWARTH of West Beaver, and MISS MARY A. SPEICHT of Beaver town ship, Snyder county.

On the 20th inst., by J. Morrison, Esq., at the public house of Wm. Brothers, in Newton Hamilton, HENRY E. PERCHY, of Altona, Blair county, to Miss LIZZIE NEWMAN, of Newton Hamilton.

Died. On Tuesday morning, SARAH, wife of James McConaghy, and daughter of Jacob Beatty, aged 29 years, 1 month and 14 days. In this place, on the 15th inst., of chronic cramp, WILLIAM EDWARD, son of Moses A. Sample, Esq., aged 5 years, 11 months and 11 days.

In this place, on the 15th inst., MOLLIE A., infant daughter of Jacob and Susan Haaker, aged 2 years and 3 months.

In this place, on the 16th inst., ADA SPROAL, daughter of Dr. Adrian Orr, aged 2 years and 3 months.

Of diphtheria, at the house of Dr. S. Maclay, Milroy, on Saturday, Nov. 23d, 1861, Miss ELLIE S. MACLAY, youngest daughter of Wm. Brown Maclay, Esq., dec'd., in the 14th year of her age.

Sprightly, conscientious and affectionate, she was loved in life and is missed and lamented in death. Realizing the change which was before her, she sought preparation for a better world, and founded her hope of glory and immortality upon the word and promise of God. Although life had its attractions and her sufferings were intense, she expressed and manifested a wonderful resignation to divine will. Considering her perfectly child like character, she conversed during her last hours, in a marvellous way of heavenly things, and with all the timidity of her nature, she shrank not from the cold embrace of death, but apparently without a fear committed her spirit into the hands of her Lord Jesus. Thus faded and passed away one of earth's loveliest flowers. Dear Elsie, thou art not lost, only gone before. We miss thee here, and weep that we are so soon called to part, but be sorrow not as others who have no hope. Precious child affectionate sister! kind companion! farewell! We shall meet thee in heaven.

MILITARY ENROLLMENT

As few persons seem to understand the present military law we publish the following extracts:

First, That the assessors chosen in each city, borough, ward or township, shall annually, and at the same time they are engaged in taking the assessment or valuation of real and personal property in their respective cities, boroughs, wards or townships, include in their assessment roll the names of all persons in their respective assessment districts between the ages of twenty and forty-five years, liable to be enrolled by the laws of the United States...

Second, As soon as the roll is completed the assessors shall forthwith cause notices thereof to be put up in three of the most public places in the city, borough, ward or township; which notices shall set forth that the names of all persons liable to be enrolled in such roll shall be made known to the laws of the United States, and that the same is left with one of their number, to be designated in such notice, at some place to be specified therein, until some day and place, to be specified in such notice, when the said assessors and commissioners of the county will meet to review such enrollment; such review shall be made at the same time and place the said assessors and commissioners review their assessment of real and personal property or appeals.

Third, Any person claiming that he is not liable to military duty, on account of some physical defect, or bodily infirmity, or that he is exempt from military duty by any law of this state or of the United States, may, on or before the day specified in such notice, and not after, deliver to either of said assessors an affidavit stating such facts on which he claims to be exempt, or not liable to do military duty, and the assessors shall cause all such affidavits to be filed in the office of the city or county commissioners; and if any person shall swear falsely in such affidavit, he shall be guilty of perjury.

Fourth, On the day the city or county commissioners meet to review the assessment of real and personal property, or for holding appeals, they shall also determine who are exempt or not liable to do military duty; and in a column prepared for that purpose, in such roll opposite the name of each person not exempt, shall be inserted the words "not liable," and in the case of persons not liable to do duty, shall be inserted the name of any military officer in the service of the United States, and against the name of any military officer in the service of the United States, and against the name of any military officer in the service of the United States, and against the name of any military officer in the service of the United States...

Fifth, The said commissioners shall, at any time they shall meet to review their enrollment, and for appeals, make a certified list of the names of all persons whom they shall determine to be exempt, or not liable to do military duty, and shall file the same in their office for the future examination and guidance of the assessors and commissioners.

ELIXIR PROPYLAMINE The New Remedy for RHEUMATISM.

During the past year we have introduced to the notice of the medical profession of this country the Pure Crystallized Chloride of Propylamine as a

REMEDY FOR RHEUMATISM; and having received from many sources, both from physicians of the highest standing and from patients, the

Most Flattering Testimonials of its Real Value in the treatment of this painful and obstinate disease, we are induced to present it to the public in a form READY FOR IMMEDIATE USE, which we hope will commend itself to those who are suffering with this afflicting complaint, and to the medical practitioner who may feel disposed to test the powers of this valuable remedy.

ELIXIR PROPYLAMINE, in the form above spoken of has recently been extensively experimented with in the Pennsylvania Hospital, and with marked success (as it will appear from the published accounts in the medical journals.)

It is carefully put up ready for immediate use, with full directions. It can be obtained from all the druggists at 75 cents per bottle, and at wholesale of BULLOCK & CHESHAW, Druggists and Manufacturing Chemists, my23-ly Philadelphia.

The Prince Royal and Royal Cook Cooking Stoves.

THE subscriber has for sale the best Cooking Stove in the market. Hundreds have been sold, and in every case given the warmest satisfaction. They are more durable, the entire top being double plated with wrought iron; the back plates are double of cast iron. Every housekeeper knows that these are the only parts affected by the heat, hence the value of this great improvement. No burning out of pieces. Hole covers and oven-tops. These Stoves possess a neat and beautiful appearance, have all the most valuable improvements that make a Cook Stove a household pleasure, viz: largest diving flues, which increase the draught, and diffuse the heat just where it is wanted, under and around the baking oven—large fire chambers, taking wood from 24 to 30 inches long—deep ash-pit, adding much to the convenience of cleaning out the stove—with wood and coal grates, firebrick, &c.

Every Stove warranted, and sold as low as any ordinary Cooking Stove. oct30 F. G. FRANCISCUS.
