THE MINSTREL.

PRAISE TO JESUS

We come, we come, in jeyous train To sing the praise of Jesus' name, And hat redeemed our fallen race, And saves us by His sovreign grace, Demands our highest praise.

O Jeans! thou exalted King, To thee our offering now we bring : May we our tongues employ To swell the song of dying love, Which remsomed souls now since he While heaven is filled with joy.

Thou blessed Lamb thist once was stain, Who bore the cross, en ured its pinn. And died on Calvary shull We half thee as the risen Lord. Who came necessing to thy word, To do thy father's will.

Then shout aloud in joyful shows, High on his three above: And may the begrenty choirs on high, Send back the echo in reply, To this our song of love:

Come Let us Sing of Jesus. Come, let us sing of Jesus, Come, let us sing of Jesus, The sinner's only friend; His holy soul rejoices,

Amid the choirs above, To hear our yonthful voices Exulting in His love.

We love to sing of Jesns Who died our souls to save We love to sing of Jesns, Triumphant o'er the grave; And In our hour of danger, We it trust his towe alone. The once slept in a mange And now sits on the thron

Then let us sing of Jesus, While yet on earth we stay, And hope to sing of Jeens Throughout eternid day: For those who here confess; him, He will in heaven confess; And faithful hearts that bless him, He will forever bless.

FESTIVE SONG.

Come join the festive song. Wake voices all: Wake voices all; Chime with the vernal throng, List to the call; Hear we in every breeze. From vale and mountain-trees Glad notes of nature say, Join ye my lay.

Lord of the rolling year. Round and above. Boundless thy works appear-Boundless thy love: All all in earth and sky, As ghide the seasons by. New glories of thy name Ever proclaim.

Joyous we swell the strain, Thankful to thee, Wat-hed by thy care, again Watched by thy care, again Springtide to see; Sull in this gaspelland Throngs forth the Sableth band,

Happy and free.

Truth's mighty wave, Soon every clime below

Conquer and save: Ewect as the voice of spring,

Glory for aye.

The Sex of Eggs .- Mr. Genin, in a paper addressed to the French Academy of Sciences, says he is able, after three years' study, to state with full confidence that all study, to state with full confidence that all eggs containing the germ of males have winkles on their on the state of the wrinkles on their smaller ends, while female eggs are equally smooth at both extramities. [We were told the same thing by the kee-per of a small 'chicken-ranch,' who stated it with 'full confidence,' being the result of about a year's observation.]-London Field Notes.

Steamed Brown Bread .- Recipe for making brown bread, which we think is a little extra, having used it in our family several years: Take two quarts of sweet skim-milk, one tablespoonful of saleratus, one of salt, half a cup of molasses; put in equal quantities of rye and Indian meal, until the dough is as stiff as can be conve niently stirred with a spoon, then put it in two two-quart tins. Place sticks across the bottom of the kettle to keep the water from the bread; place one of the tins on the top of the same kettle, and let it steam three hours. Care should be taken to keep the water hot while the bread is cooking. When done, put it in a warm oven long enough to dry the top of it, not bake it .--Yeast can be used instead of saleratus, if any prefer it, but the bread must rise well before putting it in the kettle-Mellie.
