

THE HOUSEKEEPER.

RECIPES.

Rich Rice Pudding.—Boil half pound of rice in water with a little bit of salt, till quite tender; drain it dry; mix it with the whites, quarter of a pint of cream with two ounces of fresh butter melted in it, four ounces of marrow or veal kidney suet, finely chopped, three-quarters of a pound of currants, two spoonfuls of brandy, nutmeg, and grated lemon peel; edge and fill mixed put a paste round the wall and fill the dish. Slices of candied orange, lemon, and citron may be added if approved. Bake it for one hour in a moderate oven.

Good Custard Pudding.—A plain but good custard pudding may be made by boiling a quart of milk until it is reduced to a pint; take from it a few spoonfuls, and let it cool, mixing with it very perfectly one spoonful of flour, which add to the boiling milk, and stir it till quite cool. Beat four yolks and two whites of eggs, strain them, and stir them into the milk with two ounces of moist sugar, two or three spoonfuls of wine, and a little grated nutmeg. Bake it half an hour, or until it is firm and brown.

Apple Puffs.—Pare and core the fruit, and either stew them in a stone jar, on a hot hearth, or bake them. When cold, mix the pulp of the apple with sugar and grated lemon peel, taking as little of the apple juice, as you can. Bake them in thin paste, in a quick oven; quarter of an hour will do them if small. Orange or quince marmalade is a great improvement. Cinnamon powdered, or orange-flower water may be used as a variety.

Bread Pudding.—Take a pint of bread crumbs and cover them with milk; add some cinnamon, lemon peel and grated nutmeg; put them on a gentle fire until the crumbs are well soaked. Take out the cinnamon and lemon peel, beat the crumbs and milk well together, add four eggs, well beaten, one ounce of butter, two ounces of sugar, half pound of currants, and boil it an hour.

Coconut Pudding.—Break the shell of a middle sized coconut so as to leave the nut as whole as you can; grate it with a grater after having taken off the brown skin; mix with it three ounces of white sugar powdered, and about half of the peel of a lemon; mix well together with the milk, and put into a tin lined with paste, and bake it not too brown.

Lemon Puffs.—Pound and sift half a pound of loaf sugar, grate the rind of one large lemon or two small ones; then whip up the white of an egg to a froth, and mix all together to the consistency of good paste; cut it into shapes, and bake upon writing paper, being careful not to handle the paste; the oven must be very slow for this purpose.
