LOCAL AFFAIRS.

RELIGIOUS NOTICE .- Rt. Rev. William Bacon Stevens, D. D., assistant Bishop of the Protestant Episcopal Church of Pennsylvania, will preach and administer the rite of Confirmation in St. Mark's Episco. pal Church, this (Wednesday) evening .-Services to commence at 7 o'clock. The public are invited to attend.

The troops which were first fired at by the rebels at Winchester on Saturday, were, we have some good reasons for believing, four companies of the 46th under command of Major Mathews, Company A, the Logan Guards, being one of them .-The rebel shells and cannon balls all went wide of the mark, and emboldened these fellows so much that right or wrong they wanted to attack the whole rebel force !-Those companies were destined for other service, but may possibly have been in the battle on Sunday.

LADIES' VOLUNTEER AND ASSOCIA-TION .- The hospital box for St. Louis made up and sent recently, has reached its destination. The Union Aid Society, under date of St. Louis, March 18, 1862, in a letter to the President of the Association

"The Ladies' Aid Society, most gratefully neknowledge the receipt of Hespital supplies from the Suldier's Aid Association of Lewis town, Pa., and tender their warmest thanks

" We feel doubly indebted to you for your interest so practically manifested for our sick and wounded, inasmuch as you have your own friends in the "army of the Potomae" to claim your care and attention.

"Wishing you every encouragement in your efforts in which we are all so much interested, I am, respectfully, yours, "II. A. Adams, Sec'y."

The Association have in course of preparation another box of such stores, intended for the best point where they may be made available. As soon ss completed the various contributions will be suitably acknowledged. It is utterly impossible for the officers to make personal solicitations to all who may feel disposed to give, and they hope all will consider themselves members and aid as they find opportunity. It is not contemplated to send canned fruit, although jellies will be sent, as they have been found invaluable in the hospitals. Halfworn un derelothing, such as shirts, drawers and the like are acceptable for the purposes of sepultre. Of course such clothing, when so far worn as to be unfit for use at home. would be valueless there. Contributions may be sent to Mrs. Walters, Mrs. Elder, or Mrs. Hoffman.

The Mifflintown papers give an account of a recent robbery and supposed attempt at murder, near Perrysville, in that county, for which three men who hail from Perrysville, and whose names are William Deen, James Sponebarger and D. Civils, (the last formerly of Lewistown) were committed to jail on the suspicion of having beaten and robbed an Irishman on the Railroad, a short distance above that place, on Friday a week. The circumstances as we have been able to gather them, are about these: On Friday an Irishman, who gives his name as White, and who was a member of the 69th N. Y. Regiment, commanded by Colonel Corcoran, and was wounded at the battle of Bull Run, came to Perrystille and got in "tow" with the above named "soakers." The Irishman it appears had some money, the newly-made chums had none. The four got to drinking, always at the Irishman's expense, when after becoming slightly drunk, the Irishman the drunkest, they all started up the Railroad. After some time the three persons above named came back to town and appeared to be more than usually flush of money. They got a glass of beer in one of the saloons and handed the bar keeper a five dollar bill which was recognized as one which the Irishman had offered at several places to get change for. A company from the shops of Patterson, returning home on a hand-car, found the Irishman lying alongside the track a short distance above Perrysville, very much cut and bruised, and in an entire helpless condition. They put him on the car and took him back to town, and it was ascertained that his spine was seriously injured. He has since been in a very critical condition, and his recovery is extremely doubtful. It afterwards you do rob me, don't kill me." Suspicion remaining officers will probably be appoint-7as aroused, and on Saturday these three ed.

men were committed to jail to await a hearing, and we do hope if found guilty, justice will be meted out to them unsparingly.

The obstreperous democracy made nothing last week by their opposition to a Union ticket, and notwithstanding they tried all kinds of dodging, they succeeded in only three or four unimportant offices. We had offered them half, but that was not enough for their anaconda maws, and the result was that we have carried both judges of election, by 44 in the East Ward and 18 in the West, and fully three-fourths

The Dialexian Society gave a very creditable exhibition in the Town Hall on Tuesday evening to a full audience. The next will come off on Thursday evening.

Lewis Ruble, son of John Ruble, of Ferguson's Valley, who had been in the service of the U.S. near Washington, was brought home a few weeks ago by his brother, and continues in a very weak condition.

We would thank the person who borrowed our ladder to bring it back.

A member of the "Silver Grays" from Cambria County, writing from Camp Curtin to the Ebensburg Alleghanian, compliments one of our neighbors as follows:

" While descanting on this subject, I must not forget the acting Commissary, H. M. Walters, and his jovial, gentlemanly assistant, Jos. A. Major. The former, of course, is not brought into so close familiarity with the men composing the respective companies as is his assistant. He is reputed, however, to be a faithful, high minded and efficient public officer, who understands his business, and ap plies himself to it. He has most certainly been fortunate in the selection of one to aid him in the program of his official duties. In his assistant, J. A. Major, he has a man worthy of his confidence, as well as the respect of the entire camp, officers and privates. I am not singular in thus speaking of the Assistant Commisssary of Camp Curtin. It is the opinion of all. The "Grays" are es pecially under the most weighty obligations to him for his urbanity, yea, evident solici tude in furnishing them their full quantum of life." He assured that he has our bst wishes, individ ually and collectively; and that he will carry with him, when we separate, the esteem of every man of our company.'

Killed by Gas .- The Perry Freeman learns that George B. Hench, near Elliottsburg, in that county, was killed by the gas of his lime kiln, on Saturday a week, and was buried the next day. It appears that he went into the kiln to scatter the limestone, when he was suffocated. He was an active, industrious man, and he leaves a wife and several children.

Frauds .- It is a singular fact, that although there may have been frauds in some cases of furnishing army supplies; yet all the tremen deous charges of speculation, frauds and corruption, trumpetted to the country, since the war began, have been proven to be false.— The alleged frauds of Fremont, &c. have all crumbled away at the touchstone of truth. Their origin is easily accounted for. They are the agonizing groans of the bankrupt party, that was defeated and driven from the places of power, at the last presidential elec-tions—the woful lamentations of hungry politicians, "who would rather rule in hell than serve in heaven." One by one those startling charges of fraud against the Union officers are exposed as the base trickery of the Breckinridge democracy, and will recoil upon their own heads, What under the sun will they do for political capital, if this " refuge of lies" is exposed and the question of slavery settled before the next presidential election.—Mon-
