

THE MINSTREL.

NATIONAL HYMN.

BY EMMA WILLIARD.

God save America!
God grant our standard may Where'er it wave,
Follow the just and right,
Evermost be in the fight,
And glorious still in might Our own to save.

Chorus—Father Almighty,
Humbly we crave,
Save Thou America,
Our country save!

God keep America—
Of nations great and free,
Man's noblest friend;
Sull with the ocean bound
Our continent around,
Each State in place be found,
Till time shall end.

Chorus—Father Almighty,
Humbly we crave,
Save Thou America,
Our country save!

MISCELLANEOUS.

Spring.

The time for birds and flowers has almost arrived.

The melancholy days are over,
The saddest of the year,
Of wailing winds and naked woods,
And icicles brown and red.

Spring, beautiful Spring comes again.
There is a feeling of relief, as we reach its first day and look back on Winter as a thing that was—as a matter of history.— It is very comfortable to remember its frosts and storms, the sheeted earth and frozen streams, as things of the past.

Not only through the lenient air this change, Delicious, breathes the penetrative sun,
His forced deep darting to the dark retreat of vegetation, sets the steaming power At large, so wander over the verdant earth,
In various hues; but chiefly there, gay green!
Thou smiling Nature's universal robe.

Whatever appliances we may use to make the Winter tolerable, it is still a period of endurance, and the farewell with which we dismiss it, is one of the few occasions in which that word sounds pleasantly to the ear. The most enthusiastic lover of sleigh rides and snow banks, skating and ice, is content to put up the sleigh and fold up the winter furs, and to lay aside the burnished skates. The school boy houses his sled, and lays up the curling stick with a pleasure like that he feels when he takes them out for the winter campaign. The farmer draws his last load of wood over the melting snow with a calm satisfaction, and is hardly displeased if it be left half home upon the bare field, like Noah's ark on dry land. We all feel that there is something ahead better than Winter has afforded us.

Art has now power to compensate us for what we are deprived of, in season of storm and snow. We manage to make the dwelling very comfortable by stoves and furnaces, but it is a welcome sound when the last clinker is rattled from the grate, and the furnace door creaks for the last time on its unrolled hinges, and we are glad to have the universal selfacting heater do its appointed work. We hail the lengthening of the days with a rapture that we never feel when the nights grow longer, and the darkness breaks off our unfinished task.—
And we do this without a thought of economy.
It is true that the sun saves us the bills for light and fuel, but how few welcome the Spring with the thought that it will save coal, wood, gas, oil, and tallow candles! Instinctively we hail the opening days of Spring as good and beautiful in themselves. There is no heat like that which the sun gives, and no condition of the atmosphere so genial and enjoyable as that which the sun makes. There is no light so pleasant to the eye as the light of day. Houses are necessary evils, with all their contrivances for heating, lighting and ventilation. We are glad when we can have twelve hours of sunlight, when we can throw open doors and windows, and drink in sunlight and fresh air, like the birds and plants.

MARRIAGE.—I never, says Mrs. Childs, saw a marriage expressly for money that did not end unhappily. Yet managing mothers and heartless daughters are continually playing the same unlucky game.
I believe men more frequently marry for love than women, because they have free choice.
I am afraid to conjecture how large a portion of women marry only because they think they will never have a better chance, and dread becoming dependent. Such marriages do sometimes prove tolerably comfortable, but a greater number would have been far happier single.

Some wag has resurrected the following jokes upon names:

Wallach, of the Washington Star, says:
'There is a place in Pennsylvania, called Youngman's town. What a duce of a place it must be for 'fellors'! There is also a town in Pennsylvania, called Young-manstown, and is one of the greatest places for ladies this side of purgatory.'

A peasant who had a miserable old hack horse, who was absolutely dying of old age, resolved to destroy him. As he was going along the road one day he met a jockey riding a superb full blooded Arabian horse.

'My friend,' said the owner of the antiquated animal, 'I'll bet you ten dollars I'll do with my horse what you cant do with yours.'

'Done,' said the jockey.

The peasant quickly led his horse to the brink of a river and pushed him in.

'Now, let's see you do that with your horse.'

The jockey preferred paying the ten dollars.

LUMBER.

WILLIAM B. HOFFMAN at his Lumber Yard, Third street, near the Academy, has now on hand an extensive stock of LUMBER of all kinds,

DOORS, SASH,
40,000

LAP AND JOINT SHINGLES, which he offers for sale at low rates on reasonable terms.

WATER PIPE.

Having been appointed agent for the sale of the Williamsport Company's Tubing for water courses, which is the best and cheapest ever manufactured, he invites attention to the following reasons for its use:

1. It is made of pine and perfectly healthy.
2. It is the cheapest pipe made.
3. It is the easiest laid down.
4. It is not liable to get out of order.
5. It keeps water sweet and pure.
6. Being small, it soon becomes saturated with water.
7. It is durable, lasting from 20 to 30 years.
8. It has a large bore, and is not liable to choke.
9. It can be made larger to bear pressure.
10. Iron will fill with incrustation, or will rust out.
11. The mineral of lead and iron is very unhealthy.
12. Iron and lead, same size, will cost 6 times as much.

ELIXIR PROPYLAMINE

The New Remedy for RHEUMATISM.

During the past year we have introduced to the notice of the medical profession of this country the Pure Crystallized Chloride of Propylamine as a REMEDY FOR RHEUMATISM; and having received from many sources, both from physicians of the highest standing and from patients, the most flattering testimonials of its Real Value

in the treatment of this painful and obstinate disease, we are induced to present it to the public in a form READY FOR IMMEDIATE USE, which we hope will commend itself to those who are suffering with this afflicting complaint, and to the medical practitioner who may feel disposed to test the powers of this valuable remedy.

ELIXIR PROPYLAMINE, in the form above spe-ken of has recently been extensively experimented with in the Pennsylvania Hospital, and with marked success (as it will appear from the published accounts in the medical journals.)

It is carefully put up ready for immediate use, with full directions, and can be obtained from all the druggists at 75 cents per bottle, and at wholesale of

BERHAVE'S HOLLAND BITTERS

THE CELEBRATED HOLLAND REMEDY FOR DYSPEPSIA, DISEASE OF THE KIDNEYS, LIVER COMPLAINT,
WEAKNESS OF ANY KIND,
FEVER AND AGUE,

And the various affections consequent upon a disordered STOMACH OR LIVER,
Such as Indigestion, Acidity of the Stomach, Colicky Pains, Headache, Loss of Appetite, Dependancy, Constiveness, Blind and Bleeding Piles. In all Nervous, Rheumatic, and Neuritic Affections, it has in numerous instances proved highly beneficial, and in others effected a decided cure.

This is a purely vegetable compound, prepared on strictly scientific principles, after the manner of the celebrated Holland Professor, Berhave. Its reputation at home produced its introduction here, the demand commencing with those of the Fatherland scattered over the face of this mighty country, many of whom brought with them and handed down the tradition of its value. It is now offered to the American public, knowing that its truly wonderful medicinal virtues must be acknowledged.

It is particularly recommended to those persons whose constitutions may have been impaired by the continuous use of ardent spirits, or other forms of dissipation. Generally instantaneous in effect, it finds its way directly to the seat of life, thrilling and quickening every nerve, raising up the drooping spirit, and, in fact, infusing new health and vigor in the system.

NOTICE.—Whoever wishes to find this a beverage will be disappointed; but to the sick, weak and low spirited, it will prove a grateful aromatic cordial, possessed of singular remedial properties.

READ CAREFULLY!
The Genuine highly concentrated Berhave's Holland Bitters is put up in half-pint bottles only, and retailed at ONE DOLLAR per bottle, or six bottles for FIVE DOLLARS. The great demand for this truly celebrated Medicine has induced many imitations, which the public should guard against purchasing.

Beware of Impostion. See that our name is on the label of every bottle you buy.

Sold by Druggists generally. It can be forwarded by Express to most points.

It is no new and untried article, but one that has
