Galbraith's Omnibuses convey passengers to and from all the trains, taking up or setting them down at all points within the borough limits.

LOCAL AFFAIRS.

THE RELIEF FUND .- The amount authorized by law having probably been apappropriated for the fiscal year ending on the 20th of April, the question naturally arises what shall be done for those who have left families dependent on them for support. Many no doubt clamor a great deal who have had more money in their hands than when their supports were at home, but as it is difficult to draw a line of distinction between the really deserving and undeserving, it is evident that something must be done towards meeting contingencies which may occur, as it will never do to let any suffer from want. The irregularity with which the soldiers are paid off renders it the more necessary, many of them now having served for months with out receiving pay. The main difficulty however rests in procuring money, and we would therefore suggest that the leading taxpayers in each borough and township get up petitions addressed to the Associate Judges and Commissioners, requesting them to continue said relief, under such regulations as may be deemed proper, and pledging themselves to aid in procuring money either by borrowing or by the payment of a special tax. With the aid and counsel of the leading taxpayers the Board of Relief would of course feel relieved in a great measure of the heavy responsibility resting upon them, because those taxpayers are the persons who must eventually bear the burthen. Perhaps a county meeting during April court might elicit some expression f ways and means to meet the case.

LEWISTOWN P. O .- The number of etters sent from the post office at this place for the quarter ending 31st March, was 17,-777; number of free 244; letters forwarded 159-making an average of over 200 per day. As the number received is about the same, over 400 letters are assorted daily. If to this be added from 500 to 1000 calls per day for letters and newspapers not in numbered boxes, the making up of post bills and registering the number of letters sent to each place where directed, &c., some idea can be formed of the labor in that Moving .- Quite a number of families have been changing their residences during the past week-some for better others for worse-and by this time have probably got settled down into something like comfort. To women this tearing up and putting down is a trying matter, almost requiring the patience of a Job to endure without grumbling and scolding.

The mountains below us still continue to wear a mantle of snow, and although yesterday was rather pleasant, the air is raw and chilly. Without any very severe cold, we have had a long winter, pretty well using up the stocks of coal, but little being now on hand. The season however is regarded as favorable to fruit.

Town Council .- At their meeting on Monday last, the Council re-appointed Geg. W. Wiley Teasurer for the ensuing year; Lewis Culbertson Lamplighter at $50 per annum, and we believe dispensed with the Attorney and Regulators. A tax of three mills was directed to be levied for the ensuing year, and the High Constable ordered to give the usual notice respecting horses, mules, hogs, sheep, &c.

LICENSES .- The decision of the Court of Quarter Sessions next week on the license question will probably exercise considerable influence, for good or for evil, so far as the sale of liquor is concerned. An indiscriminate license will hardly be tolerated by the court, for that body can in most cases itself decide whether "twelve respectable men" have attached their signatures to the application; but at the same time where objectionable houses are brought lorward, a remonstrance is the proper mode of procedure. The difference in our State and some of the Western has often struck us. In the latter the application reads to sell intoxicating liquors" (or in plain words, "to make drunkards," while in Pennsylvania it is to entertain strangers and travelers, and accommodate the public!

Billy Johnston has just received a new supply of Boots, Shoes, Trunks, &c. which he will be happy to dispose of at anheard of low prices. Call soon, and see for yourselves.

EXHIBITION .- The Dialexian Society purpose giving another exhibition on Thursday evening of next week, when some new pieces will be introduced. A portion of the proceeds will be devoted to the Ludies Soldiers' Aid Association.

A letter from J. Q Adams of Decatur, of the 51st Pa. regiment, which participated in the recent victories in North Carolina, gives a graphic account of their marches through mud and water. He sends specimens of rebel envelopes and letter paper.

Qur old friend Moses Cunningham, of Col. Black's regiment, also sends his respects to old friends.

We may make some extracts from these letters in our next.

A son of E. E. Locke, in the Anderson Guards, is now with the army operating under Gen Buell.

STAMPEDE IN AN ACADEMY .- A large number of persons assembled in the Mc-Alisterville Academy, Juniata county, on the 15th of last month for the purpose of holding a Jubilee, when a report, probably malicious, was got up, that the building had sunk and was in danger of falling-the cated for settlement. consequence of which was a regular panic and indescribable confusion among men, women and children. Master workmen pronounce the building uninjured in any respect and perfectly safe for any number of persons who can get inside.

TO THE MAN WITH THE BRAN NEW WIFE. That your bride may not think I slight her, I thought I would send you a line. I thought I would send you a line,
And inform you of things to delight her,
To be found at the Coffee Pot Sign!

I'd be pleased to make her a call, And wish her bright [honey] moonshine; But I could not there make mention of all I keep at the Big Coffee Pot Sign!

So tell her, for me, ere 'tis too late,

That all she may want she will find—
From a rattle to an A B C plate—
Supplied at the Big Coffee Pot Sign!

I have just received a fresh supply
Of useful things in household line,
O! then tell her, when she starts out to buy,
Not to forget the Coffee Pot Sign! A WHISPER TO THE WIFE.

I've tobacco and snuff boxes, too,
Made oval—they silver-like shine—
Which for your husband I'll present to you,
If you call at the Coffee Pot Sign! Lewistown, March 26, 1862-1m
