THE PEOPLE'S STATE CONVENTION. THE PEOPLE OF PENNSYLVANIA, who desire...

Chairman People's State Committee... For Auditor General...

Dr. Bronson on Our Dangers.

Dr. Bronson has long been known as one of the strongest intellects of the country... He was formerly a conservative among...

The great danger now to be guarded against does not come from the avowed rebels... At the moment we are writing, our victorious...

But precisely now comes our danger, and never, at any moment since the secession of South Carolina... The old pro-slavery party at the North...

If one thing more than another should be insisted on, it is that the expenses of putting down the rebellion should be paid out of the property of the rebels...

But even as Congress is now constituted this could hardly be effected... The reports to day brought in by scouting parties sent to the Chickahominy on the left...

WAR NEWS.

THE FIGHT BELOW NEW ORLEANS.

[Correspondence of the New York Times.] MISSISSIPPI RIVER, April 18, 1862. The work of reducing the rebel strongholds...

Our fighting force consists of six sloops of war, sixteen gunboats, and twenty-one mortar vessels... The squadron is now at anchor about three miles from Forts Jackson and St. Philip...

There have been many incidents connected with our movements... Every day our gunboats have had skirmishes with the forts...

Our old friend T. T. Worth has been appointed Superintendent of State Printing... GENERAL McCLELLAN'S ARMY. Gen. McClellan's army continues its victorious advance...

Our fighting force consists of six sloops of war... The squadron is now at anchor about three miles from Forts Jackson and St. Philip... The burning hulls of three rebel steamers have passed by us down the river...

The mortar schooners at best afford a small mark for them to fire at... An hour after the review, the men had an opportunity to test, in a practical manner...

Three of the mortar schooners are stationed at the east bank of the river... A covering of foliage would only render them the more conspicuous as targets...

An hour after the review, the men had an opportunity to test... The reports to day brought in by scouting parties sent to the Chickahominy on the left...

The reports to day brought in by scouting parties... The burning of the bridges across that river... The enemy was seen in considerable force on the opposite side...

They were not interfered with, until becoming too bold... The noise must have been heard at Richmond, as it is only 20 miles off...

during the past six days and five nights, and still are not reduced... The work of reducing the rebel strongholds will be commenced this morning...
