LOCAL AFFAIRS.

THE RELIEF FUND .- We may state for the information of all concerned that the late action of the Relief Board, directing orders to cease as the troops are paid off, is not intended to mean a total discontinuance to all; but satisfactory evidence must be produced that their supports have failed to send a fair proportion of their pay, or if received that it has not been squandered. We are sorry to say that several cases have come to our knowledge where the amounts remitted were out of all proportion to the pay received, and also where money has been spent which, under the circumstances, was both needless and useless.

We also hope that merchants and traorders in the hands of those holding them by refusing to give change the same as they do for bank notes far less safe than these orders, as the latter are received on deposit at Russell's Banking House, and for the payment of State and County taxes are as good as gold.

DROWNED .- William, a son of G. W. Hawker, between 9 and 10 years of age, was drowned under distressing circumstances on Monday morning, about 10 o'clock. The boy and his three sisters were in a leaky boat at the mouth of the creek, and under a belief that it would sink before they could get to shore the boy jumped out to lighten the vessel, but sprang with such force that he went down, and, so far as we can learn, did not rise again. Search was made as soon as possible for his body, but it was not found until toward evening, when an inquest was held over it by Coroner Miller. He was an intelligent lad, and his sudden death created much feeling and sympathy for his bereaved parents and friends.

The danger of using fire arms within the borough limits was exemplified on Saturday evening by a shot glancing and boring a hole through Miss Libbie McEwen's ear while sitting on the steps at her father's house in Third street. The gun had been discharged at some cats which had been annoying a chicken yard a short distance off.

FIRE IN THE MOUNTAINS!-Sparks from a locomotive fired some wood lying near Bixler's gap on Wednesday last, and ittle or no attention having been paid to it, it soon communicated the flames to the leaves and dead wood near by, and by evening had spread over a considerable portion of the mountain. It continued to burn on Thursday, Friday and Saturday, fanned by a high wind, at which time it had crossed the first mountain, extending east as far as the dam and westward to Granville Gap-destroying large quantities of timber over that space, together with about fifteen cords of bark, the latter the property of Joel Devault. On Sunday the fire raged turiously in the ravines of the main mountain on the right of the river in the Narrows, and towards evening had worked its way into Gen. Burns' timber. The mountains were also burning in the neighborhood of Black Log Station, close to the railroad, in several instances rendering the passage of the cars through the smoke most annoying.

These fires have of late years become a serious matter along the railroad, and we should not be surprised to hear of suits against the company for damages sustained, as their spread could readily be prevented if attended to in time.

The body of Peter Printz, Jr., who was drowned at Paducah, Ky., sometime ago, was recovered 45 miles below that place, and taken in charge by his brother. From his appearance it is now believed that he was struck on the head by a wheel of one of the steamboats in the river, when he went out in the boat, and probably killed on the spot. A valuable gold watch was still in his pocket when found. If possible, it is intended to bring his remains to this place for interment.

INTERESTING TO DEBTORS AND CRED-ITORS .- Judge Woodward, of the Supreme Court of this State, sometime ago pronounced a decision declaring that the stay law of Pennsylvania, passed in May, 1861, is unconstitutional, mainly for the debtor independent of the agreement of a meal 2 60a2 65 per bbl.

No discretion is left to the be expected at any moment. Our advance court, and the creditors aforesaid may extend the stay law indefinitely.

SCHOOL REGULATIONS .- An " Act for the regulation and continuance of a sys tem of education by common schools, passed by our last Legislature, and approved by the Governor, provides that the word month, in all future agreements with teachers, shall mean twenty-two days, of which twenty, exclusive of Saturdays, are to be devoted to the instruction of pupils in the schools, and two Saturdays, to be designated by the board, to the improvement of the teachers, by means of the District Institute, or other appropriate exercises. It makes it obligatory, on both the board and teachers, to observe these Saturday exercises or institutes.

The "Democrat" and Slavery.

Mr. Editor-The taste that controls the selections of articles of a political character for the True Democrat, is of a kind that admits of no dispute. If a deadly assault upon the Administration, or a base slander against any prominent Republican, or a cowardly ders generally will not take advantage of its exchanges, the Democrat is sure to reprofling at Abolitionists, can be found in any of duce it with manifest delight. Among its gems of last week's selection was the following diamond: "If there had been no slavery, there could have been no abolitionism; cause precedes effect. - Logic.

True, if there had been no slavery, there could have been no abolitionism; and if there had been no property there could have been no robbery; and if there had been no houses there could have been no arson; and if there had been no marriages, there could have been no adultery; and if there had been no people there could have been no murder .- Clinton Democrat.

Thus it seems that the two Democrats-Clinton and Lewistown-put zeal for human rights, urged only by argument and appeal to the consciences of American Christians, on a common footing with robbery, arson, adultery and murder; while Slavery-which is based on the utter denial of all genuine democracy and christianity, which is the boldest alists who may be despoiled of their proform of practical atheism under the sunslavery possesses a sanctity which can hardly be claimed for any other human relation or social arrangement!

Is it possible that any man or woman of intelligence should believe such impious false hoods, or be misled by such shallow and ma lignant nonsense? Is it possible that any onest, conscientious democrat can fail to de tect the wickedness of that spirit which calls evil good, and good evil? The universal heart and conscience of humanity instinctively con demn Slavery as a crime of the greatest magnitude and a sin of the blackest dve. It is too late to try to make people believe it is night, after the sun has fully risen.

Gen. Halleck's forces are in so close proxpickets now occupy the ground lately held by the rebels. Gen. Halleck has gone on a reconnoitring expedition, and had not returned at the date of our last despatch .-The Provost Marshall of Corinth had commenced to burn all the cotton and sugar in that vicinity. Gen. Beauregard has issued a proclamation, ordering all the troops in the Mississippi valley to the defence of Corinth, and that all of the cotton, sugar, and molasses in said valley be destroyed.

The long expected naval engagement on the Mississippi has taken place, and resulted in adding another link to the chain of splendid victories for our Western flotilla. The rebel fleet, under the command of Commodore Hollins, consisting of eight iron-clad vessels, four of which were armed with rams, made an attack on our flotilla on Saturday. Our fleet consisted of six vessels, under command of Capt. Davis. acting commodore in the absence of Flagofficer Foct. The engagement lasted one hour, and the rebels were driven back under the guns of Fort Wright, with the loss of two boats blown up and one sunk. None of our gunboats were sunk.

The bombardment of Fort Wright still slowly continues. From certain movements of the rebels, it is believed they are slowly evacuating the place. Commodore Foote has left the fleet, and is now en route North it is supposed for the purpose of obtaining medical treatment for his injuries. Capt. Davis, late fleet Capt. of Com. Dupont, is now in command of the fleet.

Gov. Johnson, of Tennessee, has issued a proclamation to the effect that, for every Union man captured or ill-treated by the rebel bands of marauders, five prominent rebels shall be made to suffer, and that ample remuneration shall be made to all loyperty, out of the property of such parties as have given aid and comfort to the ene-

PITTSBURG TENN., May 11. The following dispatch has just been re ceived at the headquarters of the army of the Mississippi:

NEAR FARMINGTON, May 9 .- Maj. Gen. Halleck. The enemy 20,000 strong drove in our pickets beyond Farmington, and advanced against the brigade, occupying the farther side of the creek in front of my camp.

The brigade held on for five hours, until it was heavily pressed in front and on the flank, and as I could not sustain them without passing the creek with my whole force, was contrary to your orders, and would have brought on a general engagement. I withdrew to this side in good order.

The conduct of the troops was excellent, and the withdrawal was made by them very reluctantly. The enemy made a demonstration to cross but abandoned the movement. Our loss was considerable, though I cannot tell how great. The enemy being much exposed suffered aged 73 years, 1 month and 18 days.

In Menno township, 7th inst., LYDIA, severely, one of his batteries being completely disabled and his infantry line driven back several times. My command is eager for the JOHN POPE, Major General.

Farmington is five miles north west of Two children of James Sanford, a member | Corinth. The only forces engaged in the conflict referred to in the above despatch, on the federal side, were Plummer's and Cole man's brigades.

Naval Engagement Near Fort Pillow. WASHINGTON, May 11.

The following despatch has been received by the Navy Department:

FLAG SHIP BENTON, ABOVE FORT PILLOW,) Mississippi River,
May 10, via Cairo, May 11.

Hon. Gideon Welles, Sec'y. of the Navy:
The naval engagement, for which the rebels have been preparing, took place this morning: The rebel fleet, consisting of eight ironclad gunboats, four of which were titted up with rams, came up handsomely. The action last ed one hour. Two of the rebel gunboats were blown up, and one sunk, when the enemy retired precipitately under the guns of the fort. Only six vessels of my squadron were engaged. The Cincinnati sustained some injury from the rams, but will be in fighting condition to-morrow. Capt. Stempble distinguished himself. He is seriously wounded. The Benton is uninjured. Mortar boat No. 16, in charge of second master Gregory, behaved with great spirit. The rebel squadron is supposed to be commanded by Commodore Hollins.
