DIALEXIAN EXHIBITION.

The Dialexian Society will hold their second quarterly exhibition on Wednesday and Thursday evenings, June 25th and 26th. It is only necessary to state to their numerous friends that two new piecesequal if not superior to those performed at their last exhibition-will be played.

The first play is entitled "The Jacobite." Characters-Sir Richard Wroughton, Lady Somerford, Major Murray, Widow Pottle, Patty Pettle, JOHN DUCK, Page, Corporal,

Scene 1st-An English bar room. Scene 2nd-An apartment in Sir Richard's mansion

The second play is called " Two Pages from History, or the Beginning and End of the Rebellion"-in two acts and two scenes-in which all the members will appear in different characters.

Scene 1st-Uncle Sam's House Scene 2nd-The Rebel Congress-(a burlesque.) Good music will be in attendance.

Tickets of admission 15 cents-children 10. Doors open at 7 o'clock-performance commences at 8 Van Amburgh's Menagerie exhibited here on Monday afternoon to one of the largest audiences we have seen for a long time, and in the evening also had a pretty fair representation. They have fine animals, &c., and gave general satisfaction for the quarters taken in .- One of the Harman family we hear was killed by lightning on Thursday afternoon, near Belleville, while standing under a tree. The lightning also struck the station house across the river last week, but passed down the rod without doing any damage .---- All children ought to be instructed that if they can see the lightning during a thunderstorm, no danger to them need be apprehended, as the flash and report are blended where it strikes. Some nervous grown up folks might also save themselves much anxiety by remembering this fact .- Some bold attempts at robbery were made on Thursday night last by some person or persons as yet unknown. The saloon under the Red Lion was first entered, the till broken open, some change taken, and so far as known a can of oysters and a bottle of brandy. Aaron Elliott's shoe shop was next entered and a few pairs of boots and shoes stolen; and then the counting room of Marks & Willis, from which however but little booty was obtained, the safe having resisted all attempts to open it .- Strong efforts are being made to obtain subscriptions to the stock of the that he gets nothing worse. projected railroad from Lewistown northward, and we learn with considerable success .-- A portion of the wheat so badly prostrated last week is again standing erect, and although patches here and there will hardly ripen, still the prospects for a good crop are favorable. Congressional Nomination. The formation of a new congressional district has frequently brought out the query whether any particular portion more than another is entitled to the candidate. As a general rule it may be stated that no part is so entitled, yet circumstances sometimes govern the selection on this very ground, and may come into play this fall. Blair has had the member for two terms under the old apportionment, leading Cambria, Huntingdon and Mifflin, the last named being the only county out of the four presenting no candidate. As a selection must be made by the Union men of this county, permit me to second a good word for one of the candidates from an adjoining county, which will be found in the Harrisburg Telegraph of last Wednesday:

"Brice X. Blair, formerly a member of the Legislature from Huntingdon county, is spoken of as a candidate for Congress from the district of which that county forms a portion. Since the death of Col. Wharton, who was regarded as the most prominent candidate for Congress in that district, we believe that Mr. Blair leads all the other men spoken of in the same connection. certainly a man of great ability and experience as a legislator, and one too eminenty qualified by his patriotism and knowledge the wants of that district to make a distinguished representative. Without pretending to interfere in the preferences ends in any of the Congressional districts of the state, we would be gratified to hear of Mr. Blair's nomination, because it would be tantamount to a brilliant victory in the district, for the cause of the Constitution, the Union and Republicanism.

The following, cut from an old ease proved fatal on the 5th inst. He was newspaper, may be of some service where a grandson of the late Hon. Henry Clay, and a physician can not readily be procured:

SCARLET FEVER AND SMALL POX .- Dr. Win, Fields, of Wilmington, gives publicity to the following receipt, which he says, if faithfully carried out, will cure forty five cases out of Scarlet Fever -For adults give one table spoonsful of good brewer's yeast in three ta-ble spoonsful of sweetened water, three times a day, and if the throat is much swollen, gurgle with yeast, and apply to the throat as a poultice, mixed with Indian meal. Use plenty of Catnip tea, to keep the eruptions out of the skin, for several days.

Small Pox.—Use the above doses of yeast three times a day, and a milk diet throughout the entire disease. Nearly every case can be cured, without leaving a pock mark.

Book Notices.

Godey's Lady's Book for July is at hand, and as usual is filled with fine things. A splendid line engraving entitled 'Summer,' is a rural scene, looks original, and is just in season; also a beautiful double fashion plate, with a numerous selection of fashion cuts of useful articles for the household. The articles, of course, are well adapted for fireside reading. It should be in every family. Single subscription $3 00; two copies $5 00; five copies and one to the getter up of the club, making six copies, $11 25. Address, L. A. Godey, 323 Chestnut street, Philadelphia, Pa.

The Breckinridge papers are again reviving the cry that from some places-Connecticut the latest -- two thirds of the volunteers are democrats. They did the same thing in this State until an election was held.

The family of Rev. T. DeWitt Talmadge, pastor of the Second Reformed Dutch Church, Philadelphia, while in a pleasure boat on Monday a week on the Schuylkill, were carried over the Fairmount dam. Mrs. Talmadge was drowned, but the rest escaped.

The bereavements of the war-so far as the single city of New Orleans is concerned -have a dreadful exemplification in the appalling fact, admitted by the Delta, that there are no fewer than twenty four hundred orphan children in the asylums of that city!

A number of the prominent citizens of Wheeling, Virginia, charged with being secessionists, have been arrested within the last few days, and compelled to take the oath of allegiance or go to prison. Thomas Huges, a well known clothier, and Judge Thompson refused, and were sent to jail.

We see every year that the "old board" of directors in the Lycoming Insurance Company has been re elected. This may be all right, but we believe it would be a good move if about one-third of all insurance boards became ineligible annually.

It is quite amusing to read the hifaluting moral editorials of the Memphis and Vicksburg papers-both of which places have ever been more noted for gamblers, bowie knives, murders, &c. than anything else.

A croaker, who represented himself from the army before Richmond, passed through here on Thursday last with Munchausen stories that the Monitor had been captured-that Fremont had been defeated-Richmond reinforced with 60,000 men under Beauregardand that Gen McClellan would be whipt. The next "passenger" who brings Baltimore news here we hope will be taken in hand and treat ed to 39 lashes well laid on, or a coat of tar and feathers, and sent on his way rejoicing

Isaac K. Lapp, son of the late Jacob Lapp, of Juniata county, was in the battle of Williamsburg, and in the engagement was wounded in the face and shoulder, and was returned among the wounded soldiers to Philadelphia-whence he was brought to the house of his brother-in-law, Isaac Shaler, in East Whiteland, Chester county. We are glad to learn that he is recovering from his proving in appearance, and with favorable injuries.

The President's Lady.—Mrs. Lincoln is now in the daily habit of visiting the hospitmornings, evenings and nights continue als of the District, which are full to overflow quite cool-almost cold enough for frosts ing with our suffering soldiers. Kind words, beautiful flowers and creature comforts she -with warm sunshine in the middle of the dispenses with liberality, and many a poor soldier has returned her kindness with his heartfelt blessing .- Cor. Journal of Com-

The papers which belied Mrs. L. in giving a party last winter will not be able to see the above, but if a secession thing were to do an act of even common Christian kindness, it would be published in every Vallandigham sheet in the north.

Daring Deed .- On Sunday night, about nine o'clock, the guns mounted on the earthworks known as Fort Shaler, about two miles back of Newport, on the Alexandria pike, were spiked by some miscreants, supposed to be rebels. The barracks and gun carriages were set on fire, and everything of a perishable nature destroyed. There are quite a number of candidates for Camp Chase in and around Newport .- Cincinnati Gazette.

Under the teaching of certain Breckinridge tories it is now no wonder there are such miscreants about. We have animals here who would help Jeff Davis if they dared or could do so without detection.

Death of Young Henry Clay .- Capt. Henry Clay, late of the Federal volunteer service, died in Louisville on the 5th inst. The deceased was the eldest sen of Col. Henry Clay. who fell in the battle of Buena Vista. He was at the time of his death, Assistant Adjutant General in Gen. Johnson's brigade .-He did good service in the battle of Shiloh, and was highly complimented in the report of Col. Gibson, who acknowledged his obligations to Capt. Clay's judgement and courage, saying that his conduct was worthy of his distinguished ancestors. Soon after the battle an attack of typhoid fever rendered it necessary for him to leave the army. stay, stay your tears, tho's speedily gone
From a world of sin and woe,
To a brighter clime his spirit has flown—
He sings with the Seraphs now.
Then only will those weep o'er the grave
Of him who has gone to his rest;
No tear does he ask, no sigh does he crave,
For his home is now with the blest.

At his residence, in Kishacoquillas Valley, SAMUEL W. TAYLOR, Esq., aged 83 years. Mr. Taylor will long be remembered as a highly esteemed citizen. He was a man of remarkable energy, even in old age. He was able to the last to superintend the affairs of a large estate acquired by industry and frugality. Even during the years immediately pre-ceding that of his death he would sometimes perform journeys on horseback at the rate of 30 or 40 miles per day. He was remarkably exempt from many of the frailties of old age, his mind being vigorous and vivacious, his memory car acious and retentive, and his spirits and conversation cheerful. Few of his generation in this community survive him. Reedsville, June 10.
