

THE HOUSEKEEPER.

Riband Flower Borders.

The riband system is now very generally practiced, and where a border admits of sufficient length and width, a most effective display may be created by planting, say—1st Cerastium tomentosum; 2d row, Purple Verbena; 3d row, Variegated Geraniums; 4th row, Scarlet Geraniums; 5th row, Bedding Dahlia, Alba floribunda nanus, planted in sloping position so as to keep it dwarf. Such a riband can be very much varied by using White Verbena, Blue Lobelia, Purple Zelandia Danlia, Yellow Calceolaria, and many other plants, always avoiding, if possible, bringing a bright scarlet and a yellow close together. Very effective beds may be planted with Blue Ageratum, bordered with Lemon Calceolaria; Maroon, or Purple Verbena, with the Silver Cerastium; Yellow Calceolaria, with Cattails' Orange Scarlet Nasturtium, or Gazanar splendens; Variegated Geraniums with Scarlet Geraniums, or vice versa; Blue Lobelia with the Silver Cerastium or Variegated Alyssum; Gazania splendens with Blue Lobelia; White Verbena with Scarlet Verbena, or vice versa; Pink Rose, Maroon, or Crimson Verbena, with White Verbena; Alba Floribunda Dahlia with Purple Zelandia Dahlia; Tropaeolum Lobbianum elegans with Silver Cerastium; Scarlet Geranium or Crystal Palace Scarlet Dahlia with Silver-Leafed Cineraria; Heliotrope with variegated Mint. In fact, so many different and pleasing arrangements may be made in regard to the plants named, that we do not consider it necessary to detail them here, as they will readily suggest themselves to those who bestow a few moments' thought on the subject. Bordered beds seldom answers, if the beds are very small. The border, to be effective, should be about one third the diameter of the bed.—Scottish Horticulturist.

MISCELLANY.

Great Speech of Smiggy McGlural.

Fellow citizens, Democrats, Douglasites, Lincolnites, Breckinridgites, Lazarusites, Belzebubites and Blatherskites! I now appear before you this evening to offer myself as a candidate for the next Presidency. How's that? (Cheers and cries of 'that's gay,' 'big thi-g'.)

Fellow citizens, if you make me your President I will astonish the world with wonder. Canada shall be ours. I will annex Cuba, appropriate Mexico, New Jersey and the balance of creation. (Cheers.) Fellow citizens, if you make me your President, all countrymen, all nations shall be welcome to this happy land. Yankee peddling shall be made a legitimate business by special act of Congress. (Applause.) Irishmen, for your sakes I will do away with the punishment for assault and battery, and what's more, I will abolish the potato rot. ('Hooray!' 'Begorra, you're the mon,' Cheers.) And for you, the Germans, rivers of lager beer shall flow through the land, the prairies shall be set apart for the special cultivation of materials for stout. And your happy songs shall rise to the skies, mingling with the fumes of your meerschaum pipes, until you, in the excess of your delight, shall be led to exclaim, 'Ein glass lager, switzer kase, nit pretzels all the vile.' (Cries, 'Aha! Mein Gott! Dat is good!' and applause.)

Friends, Rumuns, Countrymen, and Citizens, I don't care whether you were brought up on pudding and milk or bologna sausages, it don't make the difference of the shake of a frog's tail; but sir, the propositions which I advance here are such which nobody can deny. No sir. (Cries, 'that's so,' 'that's what's the matter.' No, sir, not by no means. (A cry, 'you're right, Smiggy McGlural!') Who is that stands up so that I can look him in the face. Does he deny my assertion? I hope not. I wouldn't trust such a man so far as I could throw a three year old bull by the tail. (Great cheering.) But to return to my subject.

My hearers, this is a great country—it is wide, vast, and in the southwest unlimited. What is Europe when compared with it? Europe is nowhere—a circumstance—a mere obsolete idea! In this country we have faster steamboats, louder thunder, forked lightning, higher mountains, greater lakes, taller shanghies, steeper cataracts, bigger babies, prettier girls, more money and better fighting men than England DARE have! or any other man! (Great enthusiasm, cheers, waving of hats.) Barren Old Ireland. I was descended from her myself, and won't forget you, Irishmen, when I talk of fighting. How are you Bull Run? Well, we'll have Corcoran back soon; then won't we have a jolly old time? Yes, Ireland's the place—that is the place for

Hills, mills and mills,
Cows, mows and rows,
Cottages and cabbage,
Whiskey galore,
And fun evermore,
For dancin' and prancin',
A shillalah to fight with,
Or a lad for to fight with,
Where they never say die,
But would wallopp the devil
If he would be civil,
From the North to the South,
From the East to the West,
From the land of Kilkenny
To the big hill of Howth,
From the ocean outside
To the Straits of the Dover,
An Irishman's an Irishman
All the world over.

Now, three cheers for me! Hip, hip, hurrah! (Tremendous and long continued cheering.)

FEVER AND AGUE,

STOMACH OR LIVER,

Such as Indigestion, Acidity of the Stomach, Colicky Pains, Heartburn, Loss of Appetite, Dyspepsia, Constipation, Bland and Bleeding Piles. In all Nervous, Rheumatic, and Neuralgic Affections. It has in numerous instances proved highly beneficial, and in others afforded a decided cure.

This is a purely vegetable compound, prepared on strictly scientific principles, after the manner of the celebrated Holland Professor, Berhave. Its reputation at home produced its introduction here, the demand commencing with those of the Fatherland scattered over the face of this country, many of whom brought with them and handed down the tradition of its value. It is now offered to the American public, knowing that its truly wonderful medicinal virtues must be acknowledged.

It is particularly recommended to those persons whose constitutions may have been impaired by the continuous use of ardent spirits, or other forms of intemperance. Generally instantaneous in effect, it finds its way directly to the seat of life, thrilling and quickening every nerve, raising up the drooping spirits, and, in fact, infusing new health and vigor in the system.

NOTICE—Whoever expects to find this a beverage will be disappointed; but to the sick, weak and low spirited, it will prove a grateful aromatic cordial, possessed of singular remedial properties.

READ CAREFULLY!

The Genuine highly concentrated Berhave's Holland Bitters is put up in half-pint bottles only, and retailed at ONE DOLLAR per bottle, or six bottles for FIVE DOLLARS. The great demand for this truly celebrated Medicine has induced many imitations, which the public should guard against purchasing.

Beware of Imitation. See that our name is on the label of every bottle you buy.

Sold by Druggists generally. It can be forwarded by Express to most points.
