

LOCAL AFFAIRS.

The following members of Company L, 9th regiment Pennsylvania Cavalry, have sent various sums of money, amounting to $1357 61, to the Milfin county Bank, which parties legally entitled to it, can obtain on identity of person:
WUOIE NO. 2669.

Uncle Sam and Family.
Yankee Freedom is a lad
And Union is his sister;
Uncle Sam he is his dad
And he'll give seesh a twist.

ITEMS.—Pew rents ought to be paid promptly, as ministers can no more live on air and moonshine than printers.—Cabbage and Bologna at Swain's, ditto and ice cream at E. Auner's, ice cream at Mrs. Wert's, chicken soup at S. Eisenbise's, see cold drinks at Swain's, et cetera and so forth.—There is some talk of the Borough issuing shin plasters to make change. If done at all, it ought to be under the direction of a committee of citizens and the Burgess, with full safeguards for its redemption whenever presented.—Col. Wm. H. Irwin of the 49th is at present on a visit to Lewistown to recruit his health.—Lieut. Ekeberger, we hear, had a finger amputated yesterday from his wounded hand.—We have had some hot and sultry weather since last week, with thunderstorms on Tuesday.—Harvesting is slowly but steadily progressing—the great difficulty being in the tangled condition of the wheat, which prevents much from being cut by machines.

HAIR JEWELRY.—R. W. Patton has on hand as agent a lithographic specimen book of fine Hair Jewelry, manufactured by a prominent House in New York. Persons who desire to have mementoes of this kind manufactured into Jewelry, as well as those who wish to buy Hair Jewelry, can by examining the specimen book, select the precise style they may prefer, and be accommodated without further trouble through Mr. Patton.

John R. Weekes, Esq., at the Juniata Foundry, is now engaged in building Pelton's Patent Triple-gear Iron Horse Power, a new one in this part of the country, but which, from appearances, possesses advantages of no small importance. Mr. W. has also for sale Pelton's Improved Iron Thresher, which comes very highly recommended by gentlemen who have used it.—Farmers ought to call and examine them.

While speaking of these machines, we may add that it has often occurred to us that more encouragement ought to be given to home industry. Every year thousands of machines of all kinds, from reapers and drills down to horse rakes, are brought here and sold over the country—most of them probably not a whit better than similar articles manufactured in Lewistown and other towns—and of course the money sent away for the benefit of workmen and manufacturers elsewhere. This is all wrong, and detrimental to that kind of labor of which we stand most in need, namely, productive. Once properly encouraged, there would soon be no difficulty in making almost any particular machine that might be desired, as those engaged in the business would find it to their interest to purchase rights for manufacturing any favorite article. We say then to all farmers, before purchasing anything in the agricultural line, examine the different horse powers, threshing machines, drills, plows, harrows, rakes, &c. manufactured in the county, and, if at all suited, buy. If you cannot find anything to please, it will be time enough to look at such articles made elsewhere.

SMASHUP.—One of the fast freights going east met with an accident about a mile above town on Saturday night last by the breaking of an axle, in consequence of which two cars were thrown from their running gear, completely blocking up both tracks, and damaging the south track considerably, besides dispersing the coal with which they were loaded. The fast line east, whose schedule time is an hour behind the fast freights, was delayed about an hour, the freight train about three hours. No one was injured.

The following gentlemen have been elected officers of the Apprentices' Literary Society for the ensuing term: H. J. Walters, President; T. M. Utley, Vice President; Geo. R. Frysinger, Recording Secretary; A. H. Peters, Corresponding Secretary; R. W. Patton, Treasurer; Howard Helman, Librarian; Geo. W. Patton, Assistant Librarian; John A. McKee, Ed. Banner.

Agreeable to custom, this institution has suspended during the summer months; they also intend (judging from appearances) making improvements in front of their Hall.

The Soldiers Aid Association will hold a meeting to-morrow (Thursday) evening, at 7 o'clock, at the house of Mr. H. J. Walters. All who feel an interest in the object are cordially invited to attend.

HARRISBURG, July 11, 1862.
Dear Madam.—In your letter giving list, &c. of Hospital stores forwarded some time ago, you expressed a wish to be informed what disposition was made of them. I am pleased to inform you that the box has been forwarded to the city of New York, to be distributed for the benefit of the sick and wounded Pennsylvania volunteers, now in separate hospitals in that city. General Hale is now there, on the special business of having these suffering fellow-citizens well and properly cared for, and I am happy to say that your excellent Society, in that box of valuable contributions, will be a means of adding materially to their comfort and happiness.

Most respectfully,
T. F. MCCOY,
Deputy Quartermaster General.

THE CANADA THISTLE.—Senator McClure's bill to prevent the spread of the Canada Thistle was passed by both branches of the Legislature last winter, and now is the law of the State. It provides that hereafter any individual or corporation allowing the Canada Thistle to ripen seed on their premises, shall be liable to a fine of ten dollars, upon each complaint that is properly established; and any one who may fear the spread of the Canada Thistle upon his premises from the land of his careless and thriftless neighbor, may, after five day's notice, enter upon any land where the weed is found growing, out it, and recover full costs for his labor and trouble.

Unless this law will be so construed as to compel supervisors of roads to clear the waysides, it will be almost useless. It was a great mistake that laws were not passed many years ago to compel the destruction of noxious weeds, as many have been spread to an extent almost beyond remedy.

THE CANAL.—The Huntingdon Globe says that the repairs are so far advanced that the canal from Hollidaysburg to Williamsburg Dam will be opened for the passage of boats about the 25th of this month, (July.) From Williamsburg Dam to Huntingdon Dam the waters will be drawn off on the first of August, and that part of the canal will probably remain closed during the remainder of the season.

Mr. Editor—I lately witnessed a scene of dishonest and heartless wickedness which certainly nowhere else than in Lewistown could have been perpetrated with impunity.

At the foot of the ridge near town there is a small dwelling house, which was burnt last fall. Upon the premises were standing four of the most beautiful and largest cherry trees to be found in the township and a fine mulberry, all loaded with fruit. The property, I understand, belongs to Jacob Diggs, an old and worthy colored citizen of our town.—Taking a walk in that direction some two weeks ago, I saw a dozen boys and half grown men in the trees, breaking off limbs as thick as my arm, laden with the half-ripened fruit. Crowds of these lawless fellows passed two of the last Sabbaths there, completing the work of destruction, and leaving these fine trees in a most mutilated and ruinous condition.

In connection with the above, let me here advert to the general complaint among the farmers about town, of the injury annually done by such fellows in trampling over their grain and clover fields, some in pursuit of birds, others looking after berries.—And yet no steps have been taken by the sufferers to defend themselves from these nuisances. Have we no laws that will protect our property? or must we take the law in our own hands, and try the virtues of wolf trap, and a "shot in the rear"? Where does the fault lie? is it not mainly at the doors of the parents of these boys? It is time our law-abiding citizens should look to it, and take measures to remove the opprobrium which has long attached to our town of having the worst set of boys anywhere to be found.

Lewistown, July 10, 1862.

PHILADELPHIA, July 14, 1862.
Dear Gazette.—What a strange dance the times are leading us! Not a fancy dance, with the rattling click of castanets, the jingling of the treble strings, or the quick throb of a guitar for an accompaniment—but a dance of death! This I thought as I to-day witnessed a steamer's load of sick and wounded from the bloody fields of the Peninsula; and my heart bounded with gratitude as I saw how tenderly they were handled, how well they were cared for by the hundreds of ladies—God bless them—who visit, and soothe, and comfort them in their afflictions. How long—oh! how long—will this fratricidal war deluge our once happy country with the blood of friends and kindred! Speed a retributive vengeance on the authors of our calamities, O God, and restore to us our once prosperous Union.

The mercury, too, has taken a dancing fit, and the thermometer index goes capering among the nineties, causing one to sigh for "a lodge in some vast wilderness," or to wish for a more intimate acquaintance with "the verdant hills and the murmuring rills" so lavishly sprinkled by Nature's bounteous hand along the beautiful valley of the blue Juniata. We must all fill our "customed places, though, and what's the use of our repining? No use in it, that I can see, and so, I'll not lament. Money, also—in imitation of the mercury, probably—has gone on a "kiting" expedition, and ranges away up, from four per centum on nickles to sixteen on gold. Change is as scarce as saints in Hades; and old fips, and levies, and quarters hold high heads once more. Checks for small sums are issued by many of our grocers and retail merchants, in lieu of change, and soon we'll be in the midst of a second shinplaster era. What a carnival we'll have, then! Everybody will be suspicious of everybody, and the way the "shinplasters" will dance around will prove their sprightliness, if not their worth.

Old Sol beams fiercely upon us—our inhabitants walk listlessly about—the flags hang lazily from their poles, and staffs, and lances—and a feeling of lassitude comes over the spirit of

Truly yours,
QUAKER.
For the Gazette.

Hero Worship.
As events progress, it is curious to notice the workings of this war. No man has thus far acquired a title to that hero worship which our countrymen have been so liberal in offering. Fremont, with unequalled energy, has twice succumbed to jealousy and pride; the western and southern victories are divided among Halleck, Pope, Mitchell, Grant, Buell, Curtis, Sigel and many others; Shields with all his ambition, totally failed in a programme to cut off Jackson; and the attempt of a few political negro-worshippers to make a candidate of McClellan for President, has resulted in his retreat, and at least the present defeat of his great object, the capture of Richmond and overthrow of the rebel army. And all this while the man in bondage has had full scope to free himself! Whether this is chance, the fortune of war, or THE VISIBLE HAND OF PROVIDENCE, the reader can decide for himself. I only point out the fact.

PLUTARCH.
Book Notices.
Peterson's Magazine for August is before us, and, as usual, displays a fine variety of engravings, fashion plates, original tales, &c., besides some very nice poetry. The frontispiece is a superb engraving entitled "The Mother's Darling." Embroidery and other patterns are scattered throughout in choice profusion. The present number contains forty articles and fifty six embellishments. Address, Charles J. Peterson, 305 Chestnut st., Philadelphia.

An apparently crazy man, supposed to be named Josiah Walters, is now confined in the Lewisburg Jail for insulting women.
The first man elected to the next Congress, is a Republican—McBride of Oregon—and that is a GAIN of a Republican member!
The "oath of allegiance" was administered to a few individuals of Lebanon on the 4th of July.
George Noll, an old citizen of Centre county, died near Pleasant Gap, in that county, on the 5th inst., in the eightieth year of his age.
The Bellefonte Watchman calls the Selingsgrove Times a spirited paper. John C. Breckinridge is reported to be a spirited democrat, as Parson Brownlow says he is now the greatest drunkard in the South.

Major Chas. H. Shriver, an old democrat, has been appointed by the Senatorial Conference of Union, Centre, Clinton and Lycoming to represent that district in the Union State Convention to-morrow.

On the 28th of June, an election was held in Bedford county for dividing a township, during which a prominent democrat brought up a negro name! Bradley to vote! This is said to be the second time he has been brought forward for such a purpose, a move which is about on a par with the recent election in Decatur township, where six clearly illegal votes were rushed through by the patent democrats of that region!

Among a batch of letters found at the house of Dr. Funster, near Winchester, was one from D. Decker, ed. tor of the Hagersstown Mail—the democratic paper—in which he says he had sent a map of that county, and would follow it with one of Franklin.—He also solicits arms to defend his office against the "Union Shriekers." Decker was one of the persons arrested last fall, about which sundry democratic papers in this State tried to kick up a fuss.

A man that will so far forget himself as to associate and drink with a nigger is too contemptible and ignoble a wretch to notice.—Har. Union.

We saw a patent democrat doing that same thing a few days ago. All right we suppose.

FREE LOVE.—An abolitionist and a nigger woman embracing each other.—Locofoco Smit Machine.

The Breckinridge who wrote the above is evidently getting jealous of his exclusive property and privileges.

The Strawberry Trade.—Some idea of the trade in strawberries may be formed from the fact that one house alone, in Cincinnati, has forwarded five hundred bushels per day for three weeks past, to cities east and west.—Besides these, vast quantities were carried and sent to the army.

Terrible Balloon Accident.
The people of Sparta, Morrow county, Ohio, had a large celebration on the Fourth. A balloon ascension having been announced and prepared by Mr. F. H. Westbrook (who had previously made one or two successful ascensions at other places in the county), the balloon was inflated, and with Mr. Westbrook in the car, started from the earth between four and five o'clock P. M. It had not ascended more than three or four hundred feet when it burst and turned inside out and fell with rapid momentum, striking the ground about thirty rods from its starting point.—The unfortunate aeronaut struck the ground feet foremost, his heels going through the creak wicker work of the side of the car, and sinking to the depth of nearly two inches.—He was immediately taken out of the car in a perfectly unconscious condition. One of his legs was broken—perhaps both, and the internal injuries to vital parts of his body and brain precluded all hope of recovery.—No human organization could endure such a dreadful concussion. Several physicians were at hand, and rendered all the aid in their power. The balloon was absolutely rotten and filled with hot air. Mr. Westbrook was well aware of the imminent hazard, but rather than disappoint the people by not ascending, he risked his life and lost it. It was a terrible spectacle. Mr. W. was about 34 years of age. He resided in Chester, Morrow county. He leaves a wife and one child.

An English Consul's Fit Out for the United States.—Wm. Noon, an Englishman, who arrived at New York on Wednesday in the ship Rhine, from London, was arrested on a charge of robbing a trunk of a fellow passenger of the sum of £3 18s, and sent to Marshal Murray. He stated that he was a discharged convict, and that he had been offered a free passage to this country, ten shillings sterling in gold, an extra shirt and a pocket-handkerchief by the authorities, on condition that he would leave England. He had all those articles, with the exception of the money, which was in the hands of the Captain of the Rhine.

Secretary of School Board, Lewistown.
Lewistown, July 9, 1862.

The Washington City Pennsylvania Soldiers' Relief Association.
That it may realize the objects it has in view, appeals to you for material aid. In doing so, it is deemed proper that those objects be publicly declared, and the plan it has adopted for effecting them briefly disclosed.

The Association proposes to act as an auxiliary to the agency established here by the State for carrying out the relief of the soldiers here, and, as far as possible, elsewhere; it will seek to relieve the soldier's friends of his condition; it will strive to place him in comfort and about his little helpless comforts which no Government, however paternal, and no Government Agency, however complete or efficient, can or can be expected to procure or distribute; it will look to the burial of the dead, and keep such records thereof that affection may find the spot where its treasure is laid; it will endeavor to impart to the poor such information as may conduce to the great purposes in view—the comfort of our suffering brothers.

To secure the co-operation of numbers in accomplishing the ends thus generally stated, the Association has adopted a constitution, and chosen a board of officers, consisting of a President, five Vice Presidents, an Executive Committee of Thirteen, and a Finance Committee of Seven, a Treasurer, and a Recording and Corresponding Secretary. The Executive Committee has appointed a number of subordinate committees, each with its appropriate duties.—They have also selected a store-keeper and provided a store-room. The Finance Committee is enjoined to collect funds and other supplies, and empowered to appoint, if found necessary, subordinate committees to visit you, and in person ask your aid. Contributors will send money to any member of the undersigned Finance Committee, or to Jay Cooke & Co., Treasurer. But if your gifts be in clothing or other commodities, send them to some member of the Finance Committee only. All inquiries relative to soldiers should be directed to the Corresponding Secretary.

With entire confidence the Association appeals to the loyalty and generosity of a people who have never shrunk from sacrifice or suffering when the country called for them, as now, in a just and noble cause.—God permits us to live in troublous but heroic times, when justice, mercy, and humanity unite in summoning all to the discharge of high duties at the expense of personal comfort, and selfish considerations. Whenever the christian or the philanthropist has gone forth from you to this field of labor among the sick and suffering, you have followed him lovingly and trustingly with your means and your blessings. The knowledge of this borne to us on every breeze, encourages us in this our appeal. Remember, it is not money alone that we need. Those who cannot give that, can bestow some garment from their wardrobe or some comfort from their store-house. Our appeal is before you; of the nature of the response we entertain no doubt.

In behalf of the Finance Committee,
D. L. EATON, Chairman.

RHEUMATIC ANODYNE.
A Powerful and certain Remedy for Rheumatism, Lumbago, and Pains in the Limbs.
ITS pain-relieving and soothing qualities are truly extraordinary. No other liniment, either in or outside the regular practice, in this country, will at all compare with it.—One or two applications of this remedy will certainly and effectually cure any rheumatic pain of recent origin; one bottle will cure any rheumatism which can be cured; while its occasional use is sure to afford soothing relief, in those old, long-standing, chronic cases which have become so "settled in the bones" as to be incurable. Price 25 cents.
No one who gives this article a fair trial will fail to be convinced that it certainly will do all we claim for it, VERY OFTEN MORE, and NEVER LESS.
Sold in Lewistown by Jno. Swan, Mrs. Margaret E. Irwin, and others, and in the county by Mary T. Brehman, J. & T. S. Kohler, and Hoar & McJabb.

BERHAVE'S HOLLAND BITTERS
THE CELEBRATED HOLLAND REMEDY FOR DYSPEPSIA,
DISEASE OF THE KIDNEYS,
LIVER COMPLAINT,
WEAKNESS OF ANY KIND,
FEVER AND AGUE,
And the various affections consequent upon a disordered STOMACH OR LIVER.
Such as Indigestion, Acidity of the Stomach, Colicky Pains, Head-ache, Loss of Appetite, Dyspepsia, Constipation, Bilious and Bloated Piles. In all Nervous, Rheumatic, and Neuralgic Affections, it has in numerous instances proved highly beneficial, and in all other cases a decided cure.
This is a purely vegetable compound, prepared on strictly scientific principles, after the manner of the celebrated Holland Professor, Berhave. Its reputation at home produced the introduction here, the demand commencing with those of the Fatherland scattered over the face of this mighty country, many of whom brought with them and handed down the tradition of its value. It is now offered to the American public, knowing that its truly wonderful medicinal virtues must be acknowledged.
It is particularly recommended to those persons whose constitutions may have been impaired by the continuous use of ardent spirits, or other forms of dissipation. Generally instantaneous in effect, it finds its way directly to the seat of life, thrilling and quickening every nerve, raising up the drooping spirit, and, in fact, infusing new health and vigor into the system.
NOTICE.—Whoever expects to find this a beverage will be disappointed; but to the sick, weak and low spirited, it will prove a gratifying aromatic cordial, possessed of singular remedial properties.

READ CAREFULLY!
The Genuine highly concentrated Berhave's Holland Bitters is put up in half-pint bottles only, and retailed at ONE DOLLAR per bottle, or six bottles for FIVE DOLLARS. The great demand for this truly celebrated Medication has induced many imitations, which the public should guard against purchasing.
Beware of Imitation. See that our name be on the label of every bottle you buy.
Sold by Druggists generally. It can be forwarded by Express to most points.
