

THE HOUSEKEEPER.

RECIPES.

Stewed Cucumbers.—Lay your cucumbers in cold water for half an hour; then pare them, and cut them into slips about as long as your little finger; take out the seeds; then boil the cucumbers a few minutes, with a little salt. Take them out, and drain them well.

Put into a stew pan some butter rolled in flour, and a little cream. Stew your cucumbers in it for ten minutes. When you take them off, stir in the yolks of two beaten eggs; and if you choose, a teaspoonful of vinegar.

Stewed Beets.—Boil some beets. Then peel and cut them into slices. Stew them for a quarter of an hour with a piece of butter rolled in flour, some onion and parsley chopped fine, a little vinegar, salt and pepper, and a clove of garlic.

Stewed Carrots.—Scrape and wash your carrots. Scald them in boiling water; then drain them, and cut them into long slips. Stew them in milk or cream, with a little salt, pepper and chopped parsley. When done, take them out, stir into the sauce the yolks of one or two eggs, and a lump or two of loaf sugar, and pour it over the carrots.

Stewed Cabbage.—Having washed your cabbage, cut it in four, throw it into some boiling water with some salt. When it has boiled till quite tender, take it up, squeeze out the water; and put the cabbage to drain. Then lay it in a stew pan with butter, salt, pepper, nutmeg, a spoonful of flour, and half a pint of cream. Stew it a quarter of an hour, and pour the sauce over it when you send it to the table.

Cauliflowers may be stewed in the same manner.

AYER'S PILLS

Are curing the Sick to an extent never before known of any Medicine.

INVALIDS, READ AND JUDGE FOR YOURSELVES.

JULIUS HAZEL, Esq., the well known perfumer, of Chestnut Street, Philadelphia, whose choice products are found at almost every toilet, says: "I am happy to say of your CATARRHIC PILLS, that I have found them a better family medicine, for common use, than any other within my knowledge. Many of my friends have realized marked benefits from them, and coincide with me in believing that they possess extraordinary virtues for driving out diseases and curing the sick. They are not only effective, but safe and pleasant to be taken—qualities which make them valued by the public, when they are known."

The venerable Chancellor WARDLAW writes from Baltimore, 10th April, 1854: "Dr. J. C. Ayer's Pills: I have taken your Pills with great benefit, for the listlessness, languor, loss of appetite, and Bilious headache, which has of late years overtaken me in the spring. A few doses of your Pills cured me. I have used your Cherry Pectoral many years in my family for coughs and colds with unalloyed success. You make medicines which cure, and I feel it a pleasure to commend you for the good you have done and are doing."

JOHN F. BEATTY, Esq., Sec. of the Penn. Railroad Co., says: "Pa. R. R. Office, Philadelphia, Dec. 13, 1853. "Sir: I take pleasure in adding my testimony to the efficacy of your medicines, having derived very material benefit from the use of both your Pectoral and Cathartic Pills. I am never without them in my family, nor shall I ever consent to be, while my means will procure them."

"Having used your CATARRHIC PILLS in my practice, I certify from experience that they are an invaluable purgative to the use of both your Pectoral and Cathartic Pills. I can never without them in my family, nor shall I ever consent to be, while my means will procure them."
