RECRUITING .- By arrangements made by the committee of citizens with the different parties, Joseph S. Waream is to recruit a company from Mifflin county under the call of Gov. Curtin for nine months men, and although labor is abundant and hands wanting in all directions, is progressing fairly. Soldiers enlisting under this call receive a fair bounty. In connection with this matter it may not be out of place to state that as sundry persons are reported to dissuade men from enlisting, such an act is indictable by the laws of Pennsylvania, and we understand that Judge Woods has determined to instruct the Grand Jury at August term to make inare guilty of interfering with the govern- all of them for long years to come. ment's call for men.

KILLED .- Among the killed in Company C, 49th Pa. Regiment, in the recent battles before Richmond, is Edwin W. H. Diehl, son of Magdalena Diehl, lately of Union, now residing in Brown township. He was quite young, and his death is no doubt a sad blow to a mother whose husband is also in the service under Captuin Bigelow. In all such cases much can be one furnish the others? done to alleviate the sorrows of the bereaved and afflicted, and we trust to hear that the patriots of those townships, who love their country and its institutions, will exhibit towards her many of those little acts of kiadness so grateful to wounded hearts.

Storekeepers could do much towards "making change" by holding out induce ments to purchase a dollar's worth of sugar, coffee, tea, and in fact everything else which can be brought to that standard. Stick out you signs, or advertise in the papers, for competition is the life of trade, the people's interest, and storekeepers' profit-(when they don't sell under cost, which they don't often do.)

Rev. Dr. M'Lain, formerly of Huntingdon, has accepted the charge of the Presbyterian church of this place for three months, by which time we presume the members will be ready to make choice of a pastor.

Joseph Gray, the Democrat says, has through the hand. been missing since the late fights at Richmond.

Rev. J. A. Ross happened to be at Mc. Veytown last Friday evening, and at the recruiting meeting gave folks who talk about this being an abolition war his opinion of their lying. No subscriptions were made there, the citizens having decided to call on the commissioners to subscribe .--At Newton Hamilton, Mr. Purcell, Judge Morrison, Mr. Jenkins and perhaps others, put down their names for from $50 to $100, and a number of others according to their schools assembled in the Presbyterian church, which was crowded, where addresses were made, hymns sung, &c. Some of the country schools we learn were also visited by members of the camp. Since then they have walked to various points of interest in this neighborhood, and are enjoying themselves in a way far more agreeable than the etiquette of watering places will permit.

Our citizens we are pleased to say are extending courtesies to them, and would gladly welcome more of the same stamp. From their proximity to town, they are probably somewhat annoyed by idle boys and men whose curiosity exceeds their manners. This is about the only drawback to their pleasure, but still we venture to say that Camp Granville and its inciquiry and indict all who from this date deuts will be a pleasant remembrance to

Among the party is A. M. Spangler, Esq., Editor of the Pennsylvania Farmer and Gardener, who, by general consent, is never considered out of place in aught useful or entertaining.

THE 49TH REGINENT .- The Huntingdon papers contain the report of two companies of this regiment, made out in pursuance of General Orders. Cannot some afternoon, the children of the several little Mifflin's sons. The 1st Penna. Cavalry has a reputation now that other cavalry regi ments might and do envy. and if their future proves as flattering as their past, Mifflin county may proudly boast of the cavalry company she has furnished the regiment. I spent a portion of the afternoon in visiting the company from our county, and do not hesitate a moment to say that Capt. Jno. Taylor of Kishacoquillas, and Lieut. McEwen of Lewistown, are both well worthy of the shoulder straps they so proudly sport, while their "non-commics" and men may be pointed at as examples, for more noisy companies to imitate. An hour ago they left with other reg iments to discover the movements of the ene my in the neighborhood of Madison. Two members of the Logan Guards are on what is called the Doctor's convalescent list, and with this exception all are well and in excellent spirits. Again I repeat that Mifflin county may boast of having a company of infantry soldiers in the 46th P. V., and a ompany of cavalry soldiers in the 1st P. V. of which they may vauntingly boast. The hope and the wish of all is, and will be, that their future may be as commendable as their past. It is not policy, neither is it allowable, for us to disclose the position, the strength, the movements or the intentions of our col umn, even if we know it; and our friends home who feel an interest in the cause in which we are engaged must not be too clam orous to know of our exact position and movements. To day we write letters full of hope, full of confidence, full of promise; tomorrow all may be gloomy and sorrowful. Another week may place a different aspect on all that is now hopeful. Pennsylvania cannot be too assiduous in her effort to increase the number of regiments already in the field, neither should Mifflin county relax her efforts to increase the number she has already furnished. Our address is Culpeper, Va., 1st Brigade, 1st Divis ion, General Banks' Army Corps. The few Gazettes that reach us are welcome visitors, and are devoured with as much avidity as a hungry man would devour a small roast .-Please continue to send them on.

Gen. Pope resides in Washington, from whence emanate orders in abundance for the government of his army. Gen. Banks is in the field among his men, and is hourly gaining favor of all. If there ever was any demonstrations made against Gen. Banks of a political character since he is in the army, his men will make it react with a vengeance when the time comes for them to show their commendation of a man they think has been so badly treated. I know of no General Offi cer in the army so much beloved by the men as is Gen. N. P. Banks; and all who know him know how worthy he is of their esteem. The gay little Colonel of the 46th is frisking around among his men this morning as lovely as a bee, having entirely recovered from his slight wound. If any of you want to see a real live Colonel, come and take a good ook at the wee Knipe, and if you do not find him a brick all over I am no judge of the article. LOGAN.

A meeting was held in the Town Hall on Monday evening, which was addressed by Mr. Williamson in behalf of the Pennsylvania Soldiers Relief Association of Washington City. The ladies were present and made a prompt response for aid. There is still some grain standing, though most of the farmers have got their crop safely housed.

CAMP GRANVILLE .- A party of gentlemen from Philadelphia arrived here in the beginning of last week, and put up their tents on the bluff between Granville Run and the Juniata, where they have been rusticating in a most satisfactory manner, both as regards exercise and Epicurianism-in fact the culinary department is so well managed, as all testify who have partaken of their hospitality, that we suspect they will, on their return home, undertake the supervision of life-long cooks, and persist in it until some "Biddy" will broomstick them to their old quarters !---Such ideas we know will get into the heads of all classes, for having for many years acted as guide to the Licking creek trouting expeditions, we can truly say that no youngster ever returned with a less idea than that he could make coffee, fry flitch or trout in a pan, or roast one on a forked stick, better than his mother, sister, or the cook ever did. On Thursday morning we regret to say their dreams of ham and portation. smoked tongue were somewhat disturbed by the discovery that two hams and three tongues had gone astray, and although a liberal reward was offered, we believe it has not yet been decided whether some prowling foxes, a knowing coon, an army of musquitoes, a band of terrapins and snappers, with which the river is known to be well populated there, or some bipeds, not having the fear of law before their eyes, perpetrated this raid into the midst of their camp. Col. M--e, military commander of the post, has probably guarded against all future depredations by posting sentinels and pickets, with orders to shoot anything that approaches after tattoo.

All this however is digression. On Sunday the party visited the different Sabbath Schools, and Rev. Mr. Talmadge (who accompanies them) delivered an excellent sermon in the Lutheran church, which, with appropriate hymns sung with

Mr. Editor-The 46th Penna. Regiment, of which the Logan Guards are members, are at this moment stationed at this place, but where tomorrow's sunset may find us is more than any member thereof can conjecture at this writing. It is no fault of ours that you do not hear from us in relation to our position and movements more frequently. Ignorance as to our destination, time, opportunity, and the absence of mail facilities render it impossible for us to keep our friends posted as to our dai'y whereabouts and doings. Some ten days ago the 46th P. V. and the 28th N. Y. Vol. were ordered from Warrenton, in connection with Gen. Hatch's Cavalry, to make a reconnoisance towards Gordonsville. passing through the towns of Culpeper and Madison. You and your readers may judge why. Suffice it to say that we encountered sufficient force to justify us in turning tail to Gordonsville, and falling back from Madison, to within striking distance of Gens. Its theme will be the hero-ic daring, patient suffering, and hair-breadth escapes of our soldiers and salors, and its incidents will form the theme of conversation at innumerable firesides for years to come. It will contam, in addition to its stirring details, the Philosophical Analysis of the Causes of the War, by Jonx Lorance Mortzer, LLD, author of the "Rise of the Dutch Republic," etc., the dates of all the important events from the John Brown raid, and an accurate and revised account of the prin-cipal battles, with engravings. One third the proceeds of all subscriptions sent di-rect to us will be given for the Refield of Disabled Sol-diers, and all persons who wish a copy of the work, and also to benefit the soldiers, should send in their name and address at once. Also, any officer or pri-vate, or person in any section of the country, having knowledge of a heroic act or stirring incident, will oblige us by sending us an account of it. This is a purely vegetable compound, prepared on strictly scientific principles, after the manner of the celebrated Holland Professor, Bærhave. Its reputation at home pro-duced its introduction here, the demand commencing with those of the Fatherland scattered over the face of this mighty country, many of whom brought with them and handed down the tradition of its value. It is now offered to the American public, knowing that its truly wonderful medicinal wirtues must be acknowledged. It is particularly recommended to these persons whose constitutions may have been impaired by the continuous use of ardent spirits, or other forms of dissipation. Generally instantaneous in effect, it finds its way directly to the seat of life, thrilling and quickening every merve, raising up the drooping spirit, and, in fact, infusing new health and vigor in the system. GREAT REBELLION:
