

THE HOUSEKEEPER.

RECIPES.

Tomato Preserves.—Take the round yellow variety as soon as ripe, scald and peel; then to seven pounds of tomatoes add seven pounds of white sugar, and let them stand over night; take the tomatoes out of the sugar, and boil the syrup, removing the scum; put in the tomatoes, and boil gently fifteen or twenty minutes; remove the fruit again, and boil until the syrup thickens. On cooling, put the fruit into jars, and pour the syrup over it, and add a few slices of lemon to each jar, and you will have something to please the taste of the most fastidious.

To Pickle Tomatoes.—Always use those which are thoroughly ripe. Use the small round ones, as most receipt books direct. Let them lie in strong brine three or four days, then put them down in layers in your jars, mixing with them small onions and pieces of horseradish; then pour on the vinegar (cold), which should be first spiced as for peppers; let there be a spice-bag to throw into every pot. Cover them carefully, and set them by in the cellar for a full month before using.

Thale Cannon or Col Cannon.—Steam the potatoes in very little water, then mash them with a fork; in the same saucepan have ready some greens, boiled and chopped very fine, and some finely chopped onions, raw; mix them in the saucepan with mashed potatoes, add a little pepper and salt, and a piece of butter about the size of a walnut; mix well, heat over the fire, and dish.

Oyster Pie.—Take seventy-five oysters, and examine them well that no piece of shell remains; pour the liquor off them, strain it, but do not add it to the pie until all the other ingredients are in. Boil two eggs until hard, chop up the yolks very fine, and mix them up with one quarter pound of crumbs of bread, seasoned with a little mace, Cayenne, salt, and pepper. Have a deep pie dish ready, put a layer of oysters at the bottom of it, then a layer of the eggs, bread crumbs, and seasoning, and some small lumps of butter; then another layer of oysters, and so on, until your dish is full and the oysters are all used up; then add the liquor and cover it over with a paste. It must be lightly and quickly baked.

To Make Fancy Biscuits.—Take one pound of almonds, one pound of sugar, and some orange-flower water. Pound the almonds very fine, and sprinkle them with orange-flower water; when they are perfectly smooth to the touch, put them in a small pan, with flour sifted through a silk sieve, put the pan on a slow fire, and dry the paste till it does not stick to the fingers; move it well from the bottom to prevent its burning; then take it off, and roll it into small round fillets, to make knots, rings, etc., and cut it into various shapes; make an icing of different colors, dip one side of them in it, and set them on wire gratings to drain. They may be varied by strewing over them colored pistachios, or colored almonds, according to fancy.

THE RELIEF FUND.

AS the action of the Relief Board does not seem to be fully comprehended, frequent applications for relief being made in person or by letter to the undersigned, he deems it proper to state that payments will be temporarily renewed to those formerly on the list on presentation of certificate signed by not less than three known taxpayers, stating that the applicant has not received sufficient from her husband or other support, to enable her, together with her own industry, to make a living for herself and family, and giving reasons for such inability. This is intended for the benefit of all really in need, and for no others.

The orders issued under this regulation are continued only until the troops are again paid off.
Blank certificates can be procured from those who have heretofore distributed orders.
