LOCAL AFFAIRS.

THE BOUNTY FUND .- The Commissiones met on Wednesday last, and were waition by many of the leading taxpayers of he county, who requested that body to appropriate a bounty to volunteers enlisting n the service under the recent call for 100,000 men. After deliberating on the natter and consulting with the delegations resent, the commissioners unanimously apressed their willingness to appropriate $10,000 for that purpose, in bounties of 50, to be paid to the respective companies of Captains Waream and Patton, the overplus, if any, to be paid to recruits in companies from this county-provided a bond of ademnity was given to the commissioners. holding them harmless against all liability for said indebtedness. This was done, and the bond has probably by this time receival signatures representing a large proporion of the taxable property of the county.

TORYISM .- Some fellows who come to with their secession sympathy may well take care how they talk, as a very summary method has been in vogue for several days, namely a blow between the blinkers that lays them flat. The ignornce of these men is to be pitied, though considering the papers they read and the achers here who have instilled disloyalty into them, it ts not to be wondered at .the truth is if some half dozen Vallansighamers had been long ago sent ro Fort afayette, or other proper place, this county and not be disgraced with so many tories

Alexander & Co's Cyclorama of War cenes was exhibited here two evenings st week to large audiences, who were well leased. It embraces many fine pictures this time doubly interesting to all who are friends or relations in the war.

A man named Christian Folk, who andertaken to work for Solomon Zook, Union township, died there on the 29th one, while in bed. He had been comhining, but appeared pretty well when e retired. The deceased was about 50 ers of age, a shoemaker by trade, had sided in Huntingdon and other counties, but was a native of Berks. He had some s with him, but no other effects of value.
