MORAL & RELIGIOUS

THE ANGELS SING.

Come ve that love the Lord,
And let your joys be known.
Join in the song with sweet accord.
And thus surround the throne.
CHORTS.
The angels sing in their happy home,
The angels sing in their happy home,
The angels sing in their happy home,
And we will join them there.

Let those refuse to sing
Who never knew our God,
But children of the Heavenly King,
May speak their joys abroad.

The hill of Zion yields A thousand sacred sweets, Before we reach the Heavenly fields, Or walk the golden streets.

Then let our songs abound, And every tear be dry. We're marching to Immanuel's ground, To fairer worlds on high.

One Day Nearer Home.

A crown of glory bright, By faith's clear eyes I see In yonder realms of light Prepared for me.

CHONUS.

I'm nearer my home, nearer my home, nearer my home to-day;

Yes: nearer my home to heaven to-day,
Than ever I've been before.

O may I faithful prove.

And keep the crown in view,
And thro' the storms of life
My way pursue.

Jesus be thou my guide,
And all my steps attend,
O keep me near thy side,
Be thou my friend.

Be thou my shield and sun, My Saviour and my guard, And when my work is done, My great reward.

There's a Better Day Soon Coming.

Rise up my soul and view the plains Where everlasting beauty reigns. No sickness there, no grief nor sighs, For there the dwellers never die,

There's a better day soon coming, There's a better day soon coming, There's a better day soon coming, O, then rejoice with me.

While here, we groan with toil and care, But we shall shine in glory there, Shall range along the river side. And drink the cool and living tide:— Shall stand the tree of life below,

And pluck the fruits that on them grow. Shall pluck the fruits and pluck the flow'rs, And dwell at ease in angel bowers.

Our robes shall be the purest white, Our crowns more dazzling than the light, Our conquering palins shall wave around, Our harps, like David's harp shall sound.

Our songs about the throne shall rise, Our shouts shall echo through the skies; Roll on bright day, in glory roll, Arise to meet it, O my soul.

We're Nearer Home.

We know not what's before us, What trials are to come: But each day passing o'er us, Brings us still nearer home.

сповия.

We're nearer, nearer home,
Our blessed happy home,
Where grief and sin can never come,
We're nearer, nearer home.
Nearer home, nearer home,
Nearer to my happy home,
Nearer home, nearer home,
Our blessed, happy home.

The dark our path, and lonely, And clouds our sky eler-east, Let us remember only, That it will soon be past.

Whate'er of gloom or anguish Life to our hearts may bring, In doubt we will not languish, But cheerfully we'll sing.

Ship in a Storm.

A little ship was on the sea, It was a pretty sight,
It sailed along so pleasantly,
And all was calm and bright,
When, lo! a storm began to rise,
The wind blew loud and stron It blew the waves along— It blew the clouds, &c.

And all but One were sore afraid
Of sinking in the deep,
His head was on a pillow laid,
And He was fast asleep;
"Master, we perish! Master, save!"
They cried: their Master heard;
He rose, rebuked the wind and wave,
And stilled them with a word;
He rose, &c.

A noble ship, our country dear,
Has weathered many a gale—
Yet now a storm beats so severe
That many stout hearts quail;
But One who rides above the storm
Can save us from all ill;
We only wait to hear his voice
Commanding "Peace, be still!"
We only wait, &c.

O, Jesus! Master! hear, we piny,
Remove the chastening rod;
Let not our foes exulting say,
"There is no help in God."
From threatening storms preserve our land,
Rebuke the winds and waves;
And let us one united band,
Rejoice in God who saves.
And let us, &c.

Sweet Rest in Heaven.

Come, brethren, don't grow weary,

Come. brethren, don't grow weary,
But let us journey on:
The moments will not tarry;
This life will soon be gone.
The passing scenes all tell us
That death will surely come;
These bodies will soon moulder
In the dark and dreary tomb.
CHORUS.
There is sweet rest in heaven,
There is sweet rest in heaven,
There is sweet rest, there is sweet rest,
There is sweet rest in heaven.

Loved ones have gone before us, They becken us away, O'er aerial plains they're soaring, Blest in eternal day; Be we are in the army, And dare not leave our post; We'll fight until we conquer The fee's most mighty host.

Our Captain's gone before us,
He kindly calls us home
To yonder worlds of glory,
And sweetly bids us come.
The world, the flesh, and Satan,
Will strive to hedge our way,

But we'll o'ercome these powers— We'll hourly watch and pray.

E. FRYSINGER,

THE Secretary of the Treasury has not yet given notice of any intention to with draw this popular Loan from Sale at Par, and until ten days notice is given, the undersigned, as "General Subscription Agent," will continue to supply the public.

The whole amount of the Loan authorized is Five Hundred Millions of Dollars. Nearly Four Hundred Millions have already been subscribed for, and paid into the Treasury, mostly within the last seven months. The large demand from abroad, and its rapidly increasing home demand for use as the basis for circulation by National Banking Associations now organizing in all parts of the country, will, in a very short period, absorb the balance. Sales have lately ranged from ten to fifteen millions weekly, frequently exceeding three millions daily, and as it is well known that the Secretary of the Treasury has ample and unfailing resources in the Duties on Imports and Internal Revenues, and in the issue of the Interest bearing Legal Tender Treasury Notes, it is almost a certainty that he will not find it necessary for a long time to come, to seek a market for any other long or permatent Loans, THE INTEREST AND PRINCIPAL OF WHICH ARE

PAYABLE IN GOLD. Prudence and self interest must force the minds of those centemplating the formation of National Banking Associations, as well as the minds of all who bave idle money on their hands, to the prompt conclusion that they should lose no time in subscribing to this most popular Loan. It will soon be beyond their reach, and advance to a handsome premium, as was the result with the "Seven Thirty" Loan, when it was all sold and could no longer be subscribed for at par.

It is a Six per Cent. Loan, the Interest and Principal payable in Coin, thus yielding over Nine per Cent per annum at the present rate of premium on coin.

The Government requires all duties on imports to be paid in coin; these duties have for a long time past amounted to over a Quar-ter of a Million of Dollars daily, a sum nearly three times greater than that required in the payment of the interest of all the 5.20's and other permanent Loans. So that it is hoped that the surplus coin in the Trensury, at no distant day, will enable the United States to resume specie payments upon all liabilities.

The Loan is called 5 20 from the fact that whilst the Bonds may run for 20 years yet

the Government has a right to pay them off in gold at par, at any time after 5 years. The Interest is paid half yearly, viz: on the first days of November and May.

Subscribers can have Coupon Bonds, which are payable to bearer, and are $50, $100, $500, and $1000; or Registered Bonds of the same denominations, and in addition, $5000 and $10,000. For Banking purposes and for investments of Trust monies the Registered

These 5.20's cannot be taxed by States, cities, towns or counties, and the Government tax on them is only one and a half per cent.,

Bonds are preferable.

on the amount of income, when the income of the holder exceeds Six Hundred dollars per annum; all other investments, such as income from Mortgages, Railroad Stock and Bonds, etc., must pay from 3 to 5 per cent. tax on the income.

Banks and bankers throughout the Country will continue to dispose of the Bonds; and all orders by mail, or otherwise, promptly attensure to please wife, sister, mother, daughter, ded to. The inconvenience of a few days' delay in the delivery of the Bonds is unavoidable, the demand being so great; but as interest com. mences from the day of subscription, no loss to diminish the delay.
