FIRE -Five Stables and Three Horses Burnt .- A dangerous fire broke out on Saturday evening, a little after six o'clock, which for over an hour threatened the destruction of East Market street, as well as South Main, but by the untiring zeal of the firemen and citizens generally, it was confined to the block of stables connected together in which it originated. Fortunately it was damp, with but little wind. The stables destroyed were owned and occupied as follows: E. L. Benedict, occupied by R. H. Williams, Cashier Mifflin county Bank; Hon. S. S. Woods, purchased by R. W. Patton, and occupied by Abner Thompson; John A. Sterett, occupied by Mrs. Elliott; Ephraim Banks, Esq; and Judge Ritz. The fire originated in the stable occupied by Abner Thompson, who lost three fine horses. Every exertion was made by several persons who got in when the alarm was given, but some time elapsed before the door was got open, and then the fire had made such headway that the poor animals had to be left to their fate. Mr. Russell's stable was saved, being of brick and the roof protected by fire walls, but as can be seen by the charred door made an extraordinary excape. On the western end a space intervened between Ritz's and McCormick's stables, and on the safety of the latter depended a long line of stables on both sides of the alley, as well as the houses on Main street. A line was formed of citizens, who for an hour and a half carried water in buckets, and thus preserved it. Some of the b'hoys got on the roof of this stable, others were perched on the most exposed back-buildings, others again with hose, hooks and ladders, not only endured a scorehing heat, but all worked as if they owned every dollar at stake! This is a trait in the character of our laborers-we might almost add most of our loafers -which commends itself to men of property, and ought in all proper in stances induce them to be openhanded with their means.

The principal scene of excitement however was in the block from Blymyer's to Russell's corner. The fear ful certainty that if the wind raised (a natural cause from the effects of fires) human efforts would hardly avail to save the buildings, caused many a heart to throb with pain; but though the sparks were carried into windows and on roofs, those on the watch readily extinguished them as they fell, and the air was not strong enough to do more than scorch some of the a call and satisfy yourselves of the premises. Mr. Russell's back-building once caught fire, as did Ritz's, but both were speedily got under.

The origin of the fire is not known, and opinions are divided as to its cause. Matches are now so indiscriminately carried, often loosely in pockets and therefore easily lost, so that one might be ignited by treading on it, or the nibbling of a mouse or rat might do the same. The only thing that seems to favor the idea of incendiarism is the fact that the fire when discovered was mainly in the loft.

The property destroyed was probably worth about $2,000, a small amount of which was insured.

THE DRAFT.—Several public meetings were held last week for the purpo e of devising some ways and means to raise bounties for volunteers, and the council, in obedi nce to petitions signed by a majority of the taxpayers, agreed that if the money was furnished they would disburse it, and as soon as legalized assume it as a borough debt. A balance sufficient to make up the bounty to $200 was subscribed, but as is often the case on juries, one or two wiseacres have fifty or a hundred stubborn men to deal with who will not listen to reason. Thus, so far nothing has been accomplished-those who ought to sign the note or notes wriggling out under all kinds of paltry pretexts. It is a pity such fellows cannot be left out in the cold to be drafted. The additional call for 200,000 men will increase our quota considerably, so that if anything is to be done a more liberal spirit must pervade the masses than has yet been shown. Really poor men liable to draft cannot be expected, and ought not to be asked. to do much; but others who have means, and who in a scrape or a pinch can easily raise from $50 to $500, must lay aside the miser and play the part of men, or it is all nonsense to talk of raising a bounty. Are there not, for Theory, H. H. Rush. On motion, adinstance, a hundred men in Lewistown journed, to meet in schoolroom No. 1, willing to plank down $100 each, or fifty who will give $200 each? This with $5000 from the borough would definitely settle the matter, and place. us out of the woods in any contingency. A few years hence it will be of no moment whether our heirs have a few hundred more or less-perhaps the less the better for them-and why then squirm and wriggle about a few dollars? Action, quick and decided action is wanting.

The meeting last evening determined to persevere in the matter, and the Council will this morning probably decide to receive from taxpayers such sum as each may consider proper to pay on account of taxation, for which receipts or certificates will be issued.

We would again remind all persons enlisting and crediting themselves to other counties, that they forfeit all claim on the relief fund of Mifflin county by doing so. The slightest reflection will show a poor man of family that he will leave his wife and children better off with $100, $50, or even without a local bounty here, than by going into another county and getting two hundred.

THE WEATHER .- Wednesday clear and frosty in morning, remainder of day pleasant. Thursday cloudless sky and genial air. Friday no clouds, hazy, not cold. Saturday drizzling all day, rain in the evening. Sunday cloudy all day with a light wind. Monday morning rain, not cold. Yesterday being "ground hog day," and partly cloudy and partly sunshine, according to the old saying we will have good. bad and indifferent weather in the next six weeks. This morning the ground is covered with snow.

An old man named Jacob Swisher, aged about 70 years, was found dead in bed on Wednesday morning last. He had prayed in the Methodist Church on the previous evening.

Just opened at E. Swain's Fancy Store, one of the largest and best selected assortments of Perfumery, Extr. cts and Toilet Articles ever offered for sale in this town. Any lady or gentleman who wishes a genuine article of that kind will find just the thing they want. Some weeks ago we notified our readers that Swain's was the place to find the best assortment of French and American Stationery to be met with this side of our eastern cities, and now we will inform the young folks who delight in paying their respects to each other at this season of the year, that they will find some of the handsomest Valentines ever seen. Just give him truth of what we say. Don't forget the place-between Blymyer's and Ritz's stores, East Market street, south

Granville Association The teachers and members of this association held their 10th session in choolroom No. 1, of said District, on Saturday, January 30, 1864. The meeting was called to order by the President, and the exercises opened with music and prayer. Orthography being first on the programme was ta-ken up by Miss M. M. Gallagher, who gave a very interesting drill on that all-important branch of education. Reading being in order, Miss M. W. Potts gave a very interesting class drill, explaining the effect of good and bad reading. Mental Arithmetic being in order, was taken up by Miss M. P. Aurand, who gave a very interesting and instructive lesson in that branch. English Grammar was next taken up by Mr. Myers, who gave a very interesting lesson in that branch, treating principally on the analysis of sentences. Adjourned to meet at 1 o'clock

Met according to adjournment. Music by the teachers. Written Arithmetic was then taken up by Mr. Rush, who gave a practical lesson on this part of Mathematics, explaining its properties and relations to mathematical science. Geography was next taken up by Miss Clymans, who gave a very interesting lesson on descriptive Geography, treating principally of a description of the eastern continent. Algebra was then taken up by Mr. Owens, who gave a very instructive lesson on that branch, showing the beauty of extracting the roots of surds, &c. Mr. McAninch then gave a short lecture on the theory and practice of teaching, giving his views of teaching, governing schools, &c. Miscellaneous :- On motion of Miss Gallagher, Miss Anna Crisswell was appointed Vice President, vice A. H. Peters, (now in the army.) The Pres. then announced the following programme for the next session: Orthography, Miss A. B. Clymans; Reading, Miss Anna Crisswell; Mental Arithmetic, W. L. Owens; Written Arithmetic, Miss M. M. Gallagher; Grammar, Mr. McAninch; Geography, Miss M. W. Potts; Algebra, Miss M. P. Aurand;
