THE DRAFT.

While Congress is engaged in amending the Conscription Law, it is a matter of surprise that some one has not noticed the gross injustice now done in recognizing the crediting of men enrolled in one district into another where their names do not at all appear, and yet claiming the full number from the districts thus depleted. Nothing of this kind ought to be suffered after the quota is fixed, because it bears injustice upon its face. For instance, it is probable that more than the quota required under the call for 300,000 have already enlisted from this county, while it is doubtful whether more than one in ten is credited to it. Surely, equity, common honesty, and common sense ought to dictate a different course, and have a stop put to a measure which, in case of a draft, will entail wide spread disaster and distress in many districts throughout the State which cannot enter into competition in the matter of local bounties with the richer cities and towns. Take Philadelphia as a sample: there the very railroad companies which derive their profits from the trade and travel of the interior are subscribing thousands of dollars to decoy our colored population into enlisting and being credited to the city, while others are being enticed to other States; and bounties far beyond the reach of county towns are offered to our whites. Such competition is beyond the means of rural districts, and shows conclusively that some legislation on this subject is necessary.

Nor does the evil stop here. Many have left their families who will, before the summer is half over, need help in various ways. To them the relief fund is closed, for they have not the shaddow of a claim on it; and thus in addition to the hardships of a draft from a depleted number, the community most injured in this way will be called upon to exercise more than an ordinary share of benevolence.

-Provost Marshal Campbell, of this District, has been removed, and Capt. A. M. Lloyd of Altoona, appointed in his stead.

-The inauguration of the Union State officers, chosen by the Arkansas Convention, took place in the Senate Chamber, at Little Rock, on the 22d ult. Governor Murphy, on taking the oath, made an impressive address. -The Malden bank robber and murderer has been arrested in the person of Edward W. Green, the postmaster of the place. He has confessed to his guilt, and most of the stolen money has been recovered. Mr. Green is 27 years old, and has a wife and one child. He has heretofore borne a good character.

A Traitor's Reward .- The Carlise Democrat says, a man named Isaac Fishel, a citizen of York county, was brought to Carlisle Barracks, on Saturday last, under sentence of death, by court martial. Fishel was tried at Chambersburg, some days since, upon the charges of desertion, and of piloting Fitz Hugh Lee through York county, last summer, and sentenced to be shot at this post. We understood he will be executed on the 18th inst.

-Pekin, China, has the oldest newspaper in the world. It has been published for one thousand years, and is printed on a large sheet of silk.

The Banking System.

One of the greatest evils in this country in monetary affairs undoubtedly was the chartering of a large cality, but few legislators have seemed in operation under the free banking good real estate are in a measure safer Newbern is relieved. than those dependent on the honesty and integrity of their managers, yet so far as local interchange of money Philadelphia or Pittsburgh it is a rare just as it is a rare sight here to see a Mifflin County Bank note. We have perabundance of Crawford County Bank, Venango Bank, Tioga 'Bank, and various others in out-of-the-way places, which one-half of the people try to get rid of as soon as possible, because they do not trust to lay them away for any length of time. Now, why is this so? We are told that the the Army of the Potomac on Saturday Mifflin county Bank has $80,000 in cir- last. culation, but where is it? Many a poor man who is now paid in some distant concern, knowing the bank and its securities, would probably try and save it were he paid in its notes, just as he tries to save a greenback, because he has confidence that the good old government which issues them will turn right side up, no matter what occurs. The truth is the system we have alluded to, namely, of circulating notes at a distance from the places of issue, has rendered the State Bank system both unpopular and suspicious, so much so that ninety-nine out of a hundred now desire a currency like the greenbacks, which are good anywhere and everywhere through the country, from Maine to Texas. And, for our part, any other system. The "First National Bank of" this or that place, may be our mind nothing looks so well, feels | molestation. so safe, or comes so near a jingle, as " The United States promises to pay." With them in pocket, a man feels as if he had MONEY, and would as soon expect to hear that a whale had swallowed the Allegheny mountains as that "Uncle Sam" had broke.

PROCEEDINGS OF CONGRESS.

The House of Representatives on Friday resumed the consideration of the joint resolution of July, 1862, explanatory of the Confiscation act, and after some debate it was adopted-yeas 81, nays 73 The effect of the amendment is that there shall be no preceedings under the act contrary to the Constitution of the United States, provided that no other public warning or proclamation under the act of July, 1862, chapter 95, section 6, is or shall be required than the proclamation of the President, made and published by him on the 25th of July, 1862, which proclamation so made shall be received and held sufficient in all cases now pending, or which may hereafter arise under said act.

The bill reported in the House by Mr. Hale, from the Committee on Claims, to get compensation from the Government for damages to property by the armies, provides for appointing a commissioner and solicitor in the States where such damages to property have occurred; salaries $2,500. They may employ clerks and marshals. Claims must be presented within three years. The claims must set forth amount of loss, with circumstances and names of military officers connected therewith. The title of the property must be shown. The solicitor shall represent the interests of the Government in the premises. Witnesses may be summoned. Slaves loss, &c., not to be considered in the matter of damages; nor shall any person who has aided the ties and arrears of pay, which was passed. It provides that on the death of officers, non-commissioned officers, privates, and other enlisted men, it shall be the duty of the proper officers to furnish to the Second Auditor a critical statement of the date of death and full particulars of the military history of the deceased, together with the amount of arrears of pay, bounty, clothing, &c., to be paid on certificate by any paymaster of the army. The same course is to be pursued in cases of persons dying in the hospitals. All pay and bounties under the act of March, 1863, due to persons discharged, or who may be discharged, from the army within two years by reason of wounds shall be adjudicated by the Commissioners of Pensions under the rules governing invalid pensions, and on the certificate issued by him payment shall be made ty any paymaster of the army.

Rebellion derive any benefits from the act. Mr. Hale also reported back Mr. Fenton's bill to facilitate the payment of boun-

-Colt's pistol factory, at Hatford, Connecticut, was destroyed by fire on Friday morning. The fire broke out in the polishing room, and destroyed the oldest and largest building of the factory. The new factory, in which Minnie rifles are manufactured, was saved. Beside the valuable machinery and extensive buildings a large amount one to two millions of dollars.

WAR NEWS.

General Kilpatrick crossed at Culpepper Ford and scoured the country from Jacob's Ford to near Fredericksburg, finding nothing but cavalry pickets of Hampton's division, nearly all of whom they captured.

A detachment of the 2d New York cavalry went up to Jacob's Ford, where they had learned there was a sergeant and nine They captured three of them.

Kilpatrick's command, having accomplished the purpose for which it was sent, returned to camp next day at noon.

General Warren crossed the Third Diision of the Second Corps at Morton's Ford on Saturday, with little or no opposition.

The Second Division of the same corps crossed, and attempted to join the Third in a piece of woods on the left of the ford. The rebels then opened upon them with musketry from the right of the ford, where they had been concealed in another piece woods. The night was dark, rainy and foggy, and the firing of each party was diwe are sorry that Congress adopted rected by the flash of the guns of their opponents.

During the night, after the firing had ceased, our men were ordered to return safe enough, and good enough, but to across the river, which they did without

When our troops pushed across Germania Ford, they found the rebel rifle pits in that immediate vicinity occupied by but 25 pickets, who threw down their arms and surrendered, stating that there was no rebel force within 10 miles of their posi-

Immediately thereafter our forces pushed ahead in the direction of Orange C. H. but had hardly progressed two miles when they were opened on from 12 guns. At tacking the rebel force working and sup porting these guns, we drove them from their position with considerable loss in killed, wounded and prisoners, our loss being 35 in the affair.

The mass of our infantry then re-crossed the Rapidan, leaving a force to hold the rifle pits first taken, probably until the operations of our cavalry, that had marched by a different route, had terminated.

The rebel steamer Preston, from Nassau, attempted to run into Charleston or the 2d. Our gunboats opened a heavy fire on her at daybreak and kept it up all day. She will be a total wreck.

Despatches from West Virginia state that our forces, under Col. Mulligan, sent in pursuit of the rebels, under Gen. Early, after six hours hard fighting drove the enemy from Moorefield, and then sharply engaged Gen. Rosser, on the south bank of the Potomac. It is said that we have taken a number of prisoners, and that our success has been signal and brilliant. The Nashville Union of the 2d inst. announces that a portion of Gen. Grant's army has crossed the Tennessee river at Larkinsville, Ala. town of Rome, Georgia. A despatch from Fort Smith, Ark., dated February, 3, says that a terrific storm swept over the entire Southwest last Sunday. About 11 o'clock in the morning, it rose to a tornado, which raged with tremendous violence some twenty minutes, and extended over a portion of the Indian Territory and down the Arkansas Valley Immense damage was done. THE THREE NEW NOVELS .- Messrs. T. B. Peterson & Brothers announce as in Press and nearly ready, three New Books by celebrated writers, which will create a sensation in the literary world unequaled for some time. It is seldom that we have three Novels like these at one time to notice from one House, as one is considered enough for a fortnight, but in this instance there will be published in the space of a few days of each other Three Books, that for high literary merit, intensity of feeling, pathos, general distribution of the characters, and happy termination, are said to rank second to none that have been issued from the press for a long time
