The Enrollment Bill. The amendatory enrollment bill was, as we anticipated, referred to a committee of conference, who reported, and their report was passed by both houses.

A Strange Phenomena. The Trumpet, published at Elizabethtown, Lancaster county, relates the following singular phenomena: An unnatural phenomena took place in Rapho township, three miles east of Mount Joy, on Thursday last, at the residence of Martin Inly.

Marbourg was a merchant, well off, and leaves a wife and nine children. Moore has been an auctioneer, is a shoemaker by trade, served in the nine months service in company K, 136th regiment, and bore the reputation of an honest, upright and peaceable man.

Any person forcibly resisting or aiding to resist or oppose the enrollment, etc., shall, upon conviction thereof, in any court competent to try the offense, be punished by a fine not exceeding five thousand, or by imprisonment not exceeding five years, or both these punishments, in the discretion of the court.

Any person drafted and liable to render military service, who shall procure exemption by fraud or false representation, is to be deemed a deserter, to be punished as such, and held to service for the full term for which he was drafted, reckoning from the time of his arrest; provided that the Secretary of War may order the discharge of all persons in the military service who are under the age of 18 years at the time of the application for their discharge.

According to rebel news Gen. Sherman is rapidly advancing against Mobile. Official information has been received that the rebels have been defeated in an attempt to cross the Tennessee river. The Union forces were commanded by General Dodge, and the rebels were supposed to belong to Roddy's command.

Brandon is twenty miles east of Jackson, in Mississippi, and is the point from which Grant took his departure eastward at the moment when Sherman's secret movements puzzled the conjectures of all who were engaged in watching the expedition from Vicksburg.

A special despatch to the Cincinnati Commercial from Louisa, Kentucky, says, on the 14th, Col. Gallup surprised Col. Ferguson's command in Wayne county, Virginia, capturing sixty prisoners, including Ferguson, his surgeon, and two lieutenants, eighty stand of arms, and a large number of stolen horses, and all the rebel supplies of forage, ammunition, and subsistence.

The despatch adds that sixteen hundred Union prisoners were released. Details of the operations in Florida of Gen. Seymour state that the advance into the interior of the State resulted in the capture of eight guns, and the capture and destruction of an immense amount of rebel property. A document emanating from the rebel Commissariat Department at Quincy, which fell into the hands of our troops, reveals the desperate condition of the enemy.

After the shooting, Moore deliberately walked across the street to the opposite corner, and thence, at the suggestion of a citizen, to the office of Esq. Rutledge, where he surrendered himself into the hands of the law. In the meantime, the shocking occurrence had attracted a number of citizens to the spot, who picked up the dead body and conveyed it to the family residence, on Main street. Moore, upon his own information, was committed by the magistrate, and in a few minutes after, was on his way to Ebsenburg, there to await in jail the meeting of Court.
