

LOCAL AFFAIRS.

A lecture on Temperance will be delivered in the Town Hall on Saturday evening, March 5th, by John Q. Detwiler, Traveling Lecturer of the Grand Lodge of Good Templars of Pennsylvania.

THE LITTLE FOLKS.—Some weeks ago sundry little girls and boys sent a lot of what are called Housewives, &c. to the sick and wounded soldiers in a Philadelphia hospital, with the names of the donors, and last week their hearts were made glad and exultation of the most buoyant kind exhibited, by the reception of quite a number of letters, returning thanks for the gifts received.

OUR JOBBING BUSINESS.—We had another unexampled run of job work during the past month, having done no less than 42 jobs from the 1st to the 29th of February—making seventy-seven from the 1st of January. As an evidence of what our hands and presses can do, we may instance Monday's work: Two forms blanks were printed on the Newbury Jobber, three sale bills on the Washington Hand Press, and nearly 900 copies of the outside form of the Gazette worked off on the Adams' Power Press—

ITEMS.—Most of the ice on the river has disappeared within the last few days.—The debt on the Presbyterian church, amounting to $2030, was paid off last week by voluntary subscriptions.—Notwithstanding the dead set the copperheads made at the Rev. J. Guyer, on account of his being a too good Union man, his salary was made up with less difficulty than generally occurs in the Methodist church. He carries with him the good wishes of all the live Methodists in his church, and Union men of all denominations probably without a single exception.

—Cogley's emporium of fashion, magnetic telegraph office and newspaper depot has been removed to the elegant row of buildings in West Market street, extending from the diamond to Major Buoy's dwelling.—The demand for houses, especially for those renting for about $50 per annum, is great, and shows that sundry vacant and almost unproductive lots could be profitably improved by the erection of small dwellings.—The question as to the legal width of the street leading to McCurdy's ought to be settled before it is altogether fenced up. If the council would require the property holders there to lay pavements, as they have the undoubted right to do, there would now hardly be ten feet of roadway left.—Linn, the supposed robber of R. G. Shaw, R. A. Means, and other parties, about a year ago, is now in jail charged with horse stealing.—

A son of Mr. Tenpenny, who got hold of some matches, set a bed on fire on Thursday last, and but for its timely discovery might have caused a serious conflagration. Put your matches in a tin box, and hang it out of reach of children, and whenever you find child, boy or girl, with a match, give him or her a good spanking.

Bounties of $200 are now offered by Granville, Wayne, McVeytown, Decatur, Armagh, Brown, Union, and Menno. Derry, we learn, has filled her quota.

THE WEATHER.—Wednesday morning cloudy, sprinkle; afternoon windy and a little cold. Thursday clear and pleasant in morning, but cloudy and colder as the day advanced. Friday windy, snow, afternoon clear. Saturday clear, pleasant, afternoon cloudy. Sunday cloudy, foggy, damp, evening rain. Monday cloudy. Tuesday snow.

We are pleased to learn that Lieut. Edward P. Swain, son of E. Swain of this place, who has been in actual command of company H, 49th Pa. regiment, since Captain Freeburn was wounded at Fredericksburg, was commissioned last week as Captain.

This is a deserved promotion of one of our citizens, who entered the service as a private with Captain Neice, and by uniform good conduct rose from the ranks to his present position.

Maj. A. G. Hamilton, of the 12th Kentucky Cavalry, one of the escaped Libby prisoners, was in our town on Monday night. He is on a visit to his friends, J. Hamilton, Esq., in Lewistown, and A. W. Graf, Milroy. He will be in town again this week. He was one of the working party of 14, and the second man out of the hole. Col. Rose, of the 77th Pennsylvania was the first out, but was recaptured in the streets of Richmond. Maj. Hamilton was with him but succeeded in running the guards; it was a little after seven o'clock in the evening, and the guards fired 11 shots at him, but he got behind several ladies who chanced to be walking on the pavement. The guards did not wish to fire among them, and by that means he escaped out of the city, and after six days of extreme trial and suffering, reached Fortress Monroe, coatless and shoeless. Uncle Ben. treated them first rate, gave them an entertainment and then sent them on to Washington. Twenty-eight of them waited on the President, just as they arrived from Libby, after which they went to Baltimore and procured new clothing.

Granville Association.
The teachers and members of this Association held their 12th session in schoolroom No. 1, of said district, on Saturday, February 27, 1864. The meeting was called to order by the President, and the exercises opened with music and prayer. Orthography was dispensed with; the teacher of Reading being absent, that branch was laid aside till afternoon. Mental Arithmetic was very satisfactorily taught, and explained by Mr. McAninch. Written Arithmetic was next taken up by Miss Potts, who gave a very interesting lesson in that branch. Adjourning to meet at 1 o'clock P. M.
Met according to adjournment. Reading was then taught by Miss Glymans, followed by an instructive lesson on English Grammar, by Miss Gallagher; after which Miss Crisswell gave an interesting and instructive lesson on Algebra. Mr. Owens then gave a short lesson on Physical Geography, followed by an address on the theory and practice of teaching, giving his views of teaching, governing schools, &c. The President then announced the following programme: Orthography, Miss Aurand; Reading, Miss Kerr; Mental Arithmetic, Miss Gallagher; Written Arithmetic, Miss Glymans; Grammar, Mr. Owens; Geography, Miss Crisswell; Algebra, Mr. McAninch; Theory, Miss Potts. The Association adjourned, to meet in schoolroom No. 4, on Friday evening, March 12, 1864, at 7 o'clock. The Directors, and friends of education are invited to attend.
