Singing.-Mr. Kemerer, who has been teaching nearly 200 children to sing during the past few weeks, gave public concerts on Saturday and Monday evenings at the Town Hall to crowded audiences. He exhibits remarkable skill in training the young, as was evidenced in the Storm at Sea and other difficult pieces which elicited rounds of applause. Our children generally have a musical taste, inculcated in Sunday and public schools, but still Mr. K's skill reflects much credit on ister of that Gospel which teaches us himself and scholars.

Reverend Samuel Kepler.

The Democrat of last week, in hot haste, contained the withdrawal of this reverend pro-slavery prelate from the Methodist Church, prefaced by some remarks calculated to convey a false impression of the facts in his case. It is a recognized point that when a communication is made public, it becomes public property, and as such I propose to draw attention to a few facts not alluded to either in the Democrat or by Mr. Kepler. Passing over the alibi date of the letter, I state that charges had been preferred against him, a large amount of testimony taken, and a number of witnesses were in attendance at conference. A committee had been appointed to try Mr. Kepler, who reported what may be called a compromise, as follows:

Samuel Kepler, present the following as their decision of the same.

The Rev. Samuel Kepler having pre sented a letter of withdrawal from the Methodist Episcopal Church, to four Breth ren, all members of the Court of Trial, agreed said letter should go before the Conference for its acceptance, provided Brother Kirby would withdraw the charges num for the best paper ever printed in he had preferred, to which Brother Kirby agreed, provided said letter of withdrawal should be presented and read without any remarks. These conditions having been complied with mutually and honorably, Court concluded they had no further jurisdiction in the case.

Signed by order and in behalf of the Court of Trial. March 3d, 1864 Attest, H. FURLONG, Chairman. J. A. DEMOYER, Secty.

This proves that he was permitted to withdraw, and also that it was not a matter in his hands, as the Democrat would leave its readers to infer.

The odor in which Mr. Kepler was held may be seen from the following proceedings reported in the Conference Record, on a claim of some $200 for furnishing a house for himself where there was already a furnished house:

Rev. Buckingham moved that the claim of Rev. Kepler be not allowed, inasmuch as a well furnished parsonage had been provided for him in which he refused to

Rev. Kepler said in reply that he had rented a house and furnished it, and the claim made did not meet the amount to which he would be entitled. No collection had been taken for this purpose; the amount had been handed to him by his friends. The statement in regard to leis having other sources of income was not

Rev. Buckinham said the parsonage was comfortable, and there was plenty there for a man who would be loyal to his church

Rev. Kepler said he was as true to his country and to his flag as any other man, and any other testimony was a slander on his character. He was in the habit of praying, Sabbath after Sabbath, for the President of the United States, and his Cabinet, for the citizen soldiery of the land and for God's blessing to rest on the soland see that they are elected .-- Our battle field they might go to the Better

Rev. Kepler was called to order by a

Rev. Kepler said charges could be preferred against him, but when he arose to explain he was called to order. He was a Constitutional Union man, and any other charge was false.

Rev. Stine asked Rev. Kepler if he had not said to him that President Lincoln was not as good a man as Jeff Davis. Rev. Kepler replied that he could not be allowed an opportunity to explain, and the ques-Mr. Buckingham was sustained and the claim disallowed.

There is little in his withdrawal worthy of note except the following proof that he is not a Methodist:

"I have in conclusion to say, in all Christian frankness, and in all good con science before God, that as, after an exam ination of a long series of years, with an honest desire to know and obey God's most holy word, my views and convictions respecting the relation of master and servant, as contained in the Bible, are utterly, and I must say irreconcilably opposed to those which now govern the great body of the M. E. Church, and which doctrines I cannot preach without being a dissembler before the Lord."

Comment on this is unnecessary further than this, that as Bible Slavery among the Jews was WHITE SLAVERY, we put it on record that here is a minto do unto others as we wish to be done by, who either justifies white sla-THE WEATHER.—Wednesday clear very or utters an apology for that pe-and pleasant. On the other hand, any Christian man who would utter in the south half as much for Freedom as Jefferson embodied in the original Declaration of Independence, would be shot down like a dog, hung like a murderer, or bunted down with bloodhounds by the 'speckled chivalry.' In connection with this, permit me also to state a little incident that lately occurred. The reverend gentleman who brought charges against Mr. Kepler wrote to a gentleman of this place respecting some matters connected therewith. The middle letter of his name having been probably omitted, it fell into the hands of a man of the same name, who in place of returning it to the post office or honorably handing it to the person for whom he knew it was intended, gave it to a noted politician to be dishonorably answered. That answer in this third party's hand writing, including signature, is now in Lewistown, and will be held as a me-Lewistown, and will be mento of common honesty.

-Private advices report that the privateer Rappahannock had left France, armed with six guns and manned by a picked crew.

-Advices from Florida state that the total number of wounded in the disastrous advance turns out to have been greater than was at first reported-1,800 being the correct figures.

-The Washington report that Gen. Wadsworth has gone to Fortress Mon. gletrees, &c. &c. Also, roe to put a stop to the present exchange of prisoners is authoritatively denied. The Government has no intention of interfering with Gen. Butler in the matter.

The Democrat again talks very gingerly about the rebels. In an article last week it speaks of "the new Governor of Louisiana," as if there was such a sneak in existence. Can it tell when, where, and by whom this rebel Governor was elected? Hon. Michael Hahn was recently elected, and is the Governor, but the copperheads prefer to recognize a strolling traitor.

-Major General Meade has suffered from a severe attack of pneumonia, and, yielding to the advice of his physicians, may not enter upon active duty for some time to come. The standard staple preparation for the hair, warrantp in all cases to restore faded and gray hair, and whiskers to their original color. It does not claim to make the hair grow in where it has once fallen out; noting will do that, whatever may be advertised to the contrary, but it will, prevent it from failing out, make it soft affect with and the scalp from impurities and humors, and entirely overcome bad effects of previous use of preparations containing sulphur, sugar of lead, &c. It reulies no apaping, washing, and hours for its application, nor will it stain the skin, but is as easily applied and wiped from the skin as any hair dressing. It restores the natural shading of one hair with another, which gives it a lively appearance instead of the dull, uniform black of dyes.

Heyt's Imperial Coloring Cream. Superior to any Hair Dressing in use. Oils and colors the hair at the same time. Changes light and red hair to a beautiful brown or black.
