Spring Elections.—In Lewistown the election on Friday resulted rather disastrously to the ticket got up at the Democrat office. It was ingeniously mixed by sprinkling a few "war democrats" (whom the copperheads openly denounce as more hateful than black abolitionists,) and had any of them been elected the result would have been heralded forth as a triumph for the peace democracy! But these war democrats were not flattered by the unsolicited distinction of being voted for in company with sundry copperheads, and some of them we hear actually voted for the major part of the Union ticket. Rudisill who suffered his name to be used for chief burgess "to fill up the ticket," was beaten by 105 majority, a vote which the very men who placed him on it will make tell against him should he hereafter apply for an appointment or election to office. The editor of the Democrat was also anxious to test his popularity for School Director, and was flattened out by 88 and 90 majority-the former Hamilton's and the latter Loop's. The vote was as follows, and although small, is an increased majority over last fall's election, which shows that the People are in favor of suppressing the rebellion by all the

McClellan and Lee.

Francis Waldron's story of an interview between Lee and McClellan is now generally discredited. His evihas been dismissed from examination. of Gov. Brown, of Georgia. It is said that Waldron has retracted his story; has confessed that he was intoxicated at the time he told it, &c., &c. These reports, whether partially or wholly true, are enough to annul more improbable story, had it not been published over the signature of Wala respectable citizen.
