

THE HOUSEKEEPER.

RECIPES.

Hard Gingerbread.—A lady sends us the following receipt for hard gingerbread, which she recommends as the best she had used: Two pounds flour, one half pound butter, one pint molasses, one fourth pound of sugar, one ounce ginger, one-half teaspoonful of cream tartar.

Good Cake.—Four eggs, two cups of sugar, five tablespoons of water, half teaspoon of soda dissolved in water, one teaspoon of cream tartar sifted in the flour, three cups of flour, one lemon grated, peel and juice. Make into any form that may be desired, and bake in a moderate oven.

Boston Breakfast Cake.—One quart of flour, two teaspoons of cream tartar rubbed into the flour, one tablespoon of butter rubbed into the flour, two tablespoons of brown sugar rubbed dry into the flour, a little salt, one teaspoon of soda dissolved in as much sweet milk as will make the ingredients about the consistency of pound cake dough. Grease a pan with lard and place the muffin rings in the pan, having them also well greased; fill them full and bake in a quick oven.

Indian Syrup.—A Delicious Summer Drink.—Five pounds of lump sugar, two ounces of citric acid, a gallon of boiling water: when cold add half a drachm of essence of lemon, and half a drachm of spirits of wine; stir well and bottle it.—About two tablespoonfuls to a glass of cold water.

Scarf in the Head.—A simple and effectual remedy. Into a pint of water drop a lump of quick lime, the size of a walnut; let it stand all night, then pour the water off clear from the sediment or deposit, add a quarter of a pint of the best vinegar, and wash the head with the mixture. Perfectly harmless; only wet the roots of the hair.

Small Pox Marks.—Mr. Waddington lances the pustules with a needle, and thus allows the poisonous matter (which is the cause of the disfigurement) to escape, and also orders the room to be kept dark. Mr. Waddington states that, during twelve years' practice, he has not known one case out of twenty of a person being marked by the small-pox when the above simple expedient has been resorted to.

Excellent Hair Wash.—Take one ounce of borax, half an ounce of camphor; powder these ingredients fine, and dissolve them in one quart of boiling water; when cold the solution will be ready for use: damp the hair frequently. This wash effectually cleanses, beautifies, and strengthens the hair, preserves the color, and prevents early baldness. The camphor will form into lumps after being dissolved, but the water will be sufficiently impregnated.
