THE DRAFT.—We are indebted to Capt. Lloyd for the following list of men to be furnished by townships and boroughs of Mifflin county to fill the deficiencies of the call for 700,000: Decatur township, 1. Derry township, 15. Lewistown, 19. Granville, 2. Bratton, 2. Brown, 2. Merino, 15.

ITEMS.—During the thunderstorm on Wednesday afternoon, and before rain commenced falling, the lightning struck a locust tree at the Poor House. Mr. Joseph Brower, steward, was just returning from the fields with two shovels on his shoulders, and was not more than thirty or forty feet from the tree at the time. He was considerably shocked, and certainly had a narrow escape. Singular to relate, a pauper woman, holding a child by the hand, and three times as far from the tree as Mr. B., was stunned and knocked down.—The floodgate at Mann's not having been opened one night last week when the hands ceased work, the basin was filled to overflowing and some injury sustained by washing the bank. It is however all right again.—The canal was considerably damaged by the late flood, causing a suspension of navigation, but through the energy of the Supervisor, W. T. Burns, we are pleased to say the water was in again at the end of last week, which was much sooner than many had expected.—The late rains have had a most invigorating effect on grass, grain, and vegetation generally. Nature is now truly beautiful, and callous indeed must be the heart of him whose eye does not look with pleasure upon its varied scenes of hill and dale, of mountain and valley, covered with luxuriant green and interspersed with beautiful flowers. To stand upon one of our ridges and gaze upon the grand panorama before us, how small and insignificant do the perishable works of man appear compared with those of the great Creator.—Among our cash receipts for subscription on Saturday were four dollars in specie, one $2½ gold piece and $1.50 in silver.

LECTURE.—The Lecture on Monday evening in the M. E. church, by Antonio Arrighi, an Italian exile, who was wounded at the siege of Rome, being a drummer boy in the army of Garibaldi, was largely attended. This young man had been trained up in the Catholic faith, but after coming to America was converted, and the word reaching his parents they disowned him. In the sadness of his heart he composed a pathetic ballad, inscribed to his mother, under the title "The Disowned," which in connection with Italy's national song of freedom he sung in beautiful style. The lecture was several times interrupted by the gas going out, probably caused by a defect in the metre. Antonio has been at Dickinson College, Carlisle, preparing himself to return to his native land as a missionary, but was compelled to leave school for want of funds. He comes highly recommended by collegiate professors, and has shown himself every whit a worthy young man, and leaves us with every mark of esteem and an appreciative community could bestow upon him.

Jacob Henry, of Decatur township, a man well known for his violent temper, and who had repeatedly threatened he would shoot "any United States man," was almost instantly killed on Sunday evening last, in his own house, while endeavoring to carry his threats into execution against officers who had been sent to arrest his sons for desertion. The following affidavit of Captain Cunningham gives the facts in the case:

Before me, a justice of the Peace in and for said county, personally appeared Captain Moses Cunningham, who being duly sworn doth depose and say that on the 22d day of May, 1864, deponent in company with Lieut. H. T. Harpham of the 184th regiment, Pa. Vol and D. D. Mutterbough, Deputy Provost Marshal for Mifflin county, went to the house of Jacob Henry, in Decatur township, in pursuit of three deserters from the United States service, sons of the said Jacob Henry, to wit: John, Isaac and Lewis Henry, all of whom enlisted in the 184th regiment P. V. in March, 1864, and who received the local bounties and were regularly mustered into the U. S. service. That the said John, Isaac and Lewis Henry deserted twice, and that deponent and Lieut. Harpham were ordered to arrest the said John, Isaac and Lewis Henry; and that in pursuance thereof, deponent, Lieut. Harpham, D. D. Mutterbough and Wm. Troxell did proceed to the house of the father of the said deserters in Decatur township, where they were informed that the said deserters were harboring—that on entering the house of Jacob Henry he immediately seized a gun, swearing that he would shoot any United States man, and cocked the gun. Lieut. Harpham then sprang forward, seized the gun and endeavored to take it from him and prevent Henry from shooting—that it was knocked against a cupboard or a block, and went off accidentally, and the contents entered the body of Henry. Deponent says none of the parties who went to make the arrests, had any fire arms with them. MOSES CUNNINGHAM. Sworn and subscribed before me, May 23, 1864. C. HOOVER, J. P.

The result of copperhead teachings in that township has thus at last culminated in bloodshed, and an ignorant and misguided man, relying on those who had taught him that he had a right to shoot, has paid the penalty of his folly with his life. On their heads rests his blood. Nor need the sons, nor their aiders and abettors, imagine they can much longer set the government at defiance. They are henceforward fugitives from their homes while life remains, or they will be arrested and punished for their dastardly conduct as surely as the sun shines, and we caution all persons against giving them information of movements of officers, harboring them, or aiding them in any manner whatever, as examples will most certainly be made. The hour for trifling with traitors and Tories has gone by.

One of the above deserters was arrested on Sunday by Lieut. Mutterbough, and the others we learn have wisely concluded to return to the army. THE WEATHER has been very warm the past week. Yesterday afternoon and evening we had thunder showers, and this morning the heavens present a rainy aspect.

The Commissioners have nothing to do with the unseated lands advertised by the Treasurer. Where parties claim that lands are assessed, the law has not been complied with, but the sale can be stopped by paying 50 cents to the Treasurer.

The 20th Pa. Cavalry we learn were in the fight with Sigel in the Shenandoah valley, Virginia, and behaved well. None of our boys so far as we can learn were killed or wounded.

Lieut. Daniel Blett, of this place, of the 1st Pa. Rifles, was wounded in the late battles in Virginia, and subsequently had a leg amputated.

The following is an extract of a letter from Major Wm. Mitchell, dated Headquarters 2d Corps, March 18: This army is greatly exhausted, and worn down by its hard marching and fighting, but it is in frstrate heart, and confident of permanent success. We have punished the rebel army fearfully in the series of great battles we have had with it. I met the 49th to-day on the march; it is greatly mutilated, and has fought gallantly.

HOYT'S HIAWATHA HAIR RESTORATIVE. The standard staple preparation for the hair, WARRANTED to all cases to restore faded and gray hair, and whiskers to their original color. It does not claim to make the hair grow, where it has once fallen out, nothing will do that, whatever may be advertised to the contrary, but it will prevent it from falling out, make it soft and silky, cleanse it and the scalp from impurities and humors, and entirely overcome bad effects of previous use of preparations containing sulphur, sugar of lead, &c. It requires no soaping, washing, and hours for its application, nor will it stain the skin, but is as easily applied and wiped from the skin as any hair dressing. It restores the natural shading of one hair with another, which gives it a lively appearance instead of the dull, uniform black of dyes.

U. S. 10-40 BONDS.

THESE Bonds are issued under the Act of Congress of March 8th, 1864, which provides that all Bonds issued under this Act shall be EXEMPT FROM TAXATION by or under any state or municipal authority. Subscriptions to these Bonds are received in United States notes or notes of National Banks. They are TO BE REDEEMED IN COIN, at the pleasure of the Government, at any period not less than ten nor more than forty years from their date, and until their redemption FIVE PER CENT. INTEREST WILL BE PAID IN COIN, on Bonds of not over one hundred dollars annually and on all other Bonds semi-annually. The interest is payable on the first days of March and September in each year. Subscribers will receive either Registered or Coupon Bonds, as they may prefer. Registered Bonds are recorded on the books of the U. S. Treasurer, and can be transferred only on the owner's order. Coupon Bonds are payable to bearer, and are more convenient for commercial uses. Subscribers to this loan will have the option of having their Bonds draw interest from March list, by paying the accrued interest in coin—or in United States notes, or the notes of National Banks, drawing fifty per cent. for premium, or receive them drawing interest from the date of subscription and deposit. As these Bonds are Exempt from Municipal or State Taxation, their value is increased from one to three per cent. per annum, according to the rate of tax levies in various parts of the country.

At the present rate of premium on gold they pay Over Eight Per Cent. Interest in currency, and are of equal convenience as a permanent or temporary investment.

It is believed that no securities offer so great inducements to lenders as the various descriptions of U. S. Bonds. In all other forms of indebtedness, the faith or ability of private parties or stock companies or separate communities only is pledged for payment, while for the debts of the United States the whole property of the country is held to secure the payment of both principal and interest in coin.

These Bonds may be subscribed for in sums from $50 up to any magnitude, on the same terms, and are thus made equally available to the smallest lender and the largest capitalist. They can be converted into money at any moment, and the holder will have the benefit of the interest.

It may be useful to state in this connection that the total Funded Debt of the United States on which interest is payable in gold, on the 31st day of March, 1864, was $768,965,000. The interest on this debt for the coming fiscal year will be $45,937,125, while the customs revenue in gold for the current fiscal year, ending June 30th, 1864, has been so far at the rate of over $100,000,000 per annum.

It will be seen that even the present gold revenues of the Government are largely in excess of the wants of the Treasury for the payment of gold interest, while the recent increase of the tariff will doubtless raise the annual receipts from customs on the same amount of importations, to $100,000,000 per annum.

Instructions to the National Banks acting as loan agents were not issued from the United States Treasury until March 26, but in the first three weeks of April the subscriptions averaged more than TEN MILLIONS A WEEK.

Subscriptions will be received by the First National Bank of Philadelphia, Pa. Second National Bank of Philadelphia, Pa. Third National Bank of Philadelphia, Pa.

AND BY ALL OTHER BANKS which are depositaries of Public money, and all RESPECTABLE BANKS AND BANKERS throughout the country, (acting as agents of the National Depository Banks) will furnish further information on application and AFFORD EVERY FACILITY TO SUBSCRIBERS. May 4, 1864-2mo

THE RELIEF FUND. FOR the information of all concerned, the following regulations are made public: 1st. In all cases a certificate of being credited to some district in Mifflin county must accompany the application. This must be in writing, either from the Adjutant General's office, from a mustering officer, or a bounty committee.

2d. The application must state, by endorsement at the head or on the back the name of the soldier, his company and regiment. 3d. Two or three men ought not to act for an entire borough or township in signing the certificate of recommendation as deserving the relief. 4th. Twelve weeks pay, in three monthly orders, is given, when all recent applications are discontinued. If a renewal is asked for, the parties must apply to the Board of Relief in person, or show positive evidence that they are in need. 5th. Justices of the Peace, bounty committees, and all others making promises to soldiers or their families, will govern themselves by the above regulations, as I shall hereafter pay no attention to applications unless they conform to them, but file them away for action by the Board of Relief. Where the papers are all right or approaching the proper form, there is no difficulty in being placed on the list for twelve weeks, but so many of late have been informal—in many cases leaving me to hunt up the necessary evidence of credit, &c.—that I am compelled to ask for more care.
