The Nomination for Congress.

Blair county was the first to hold its convention this year, and presents the name of L. W. Hall, Esq., as its candidate. Cambria followed, and gave Mr. Barker a unanimous recommendation. Huntingdon will hold her convention on the 14th June, and Mifflin on the 22d. It matters little to us who the candidate will be, so that he possesses the requisite qualities of being a respectable citizen and uncompromising Union man-nor does it matter much where he is from; but with all this, we cannot afford to quarrel over one or the other, for while men are of but little, measures are of vital importance in the present condition of our country.

The 10-40 Loan.

The Secretary of the Treasury has directed the assistant treasurers at N. York, Philadelphia and Boston to re-

Peace and War-Civil and Military Law. We have several times of late heard parties discuss law questions bearing apon the actions of government officers making military arrests, in which those who call themselves "democrats," invariably took the ground that everything is subject to the civil law and army. We some weeks ago pointed out the fact that in cases of invasion stitution of martial law, this making occasion when such power shall be els were beaten. exercised, and it seems to us he must stance a body of troops, designed for special or secret service, should pass simpleton in Mifflin county who thinks General Grant or General Sherman.

he could give information that might and probably would put the enemy on his guard, without incurring more than a mere liability under the civil law-a trial under which would not take place for months to come? If this absurdity were founded in fact, has been received. spies need but keep outside of army lines, and give knowledge of every movement taking place by any of our armies, and traitors could stalk through the land almost unmolested. But such well settled principle that he who violates a military law, no matter how remote from the present seat of war. is amenable to military law and summary punishment. So far as relates to civil matters, the civil law governs here; but so far as relates to military matters, embracing army movements. giving aid and comfort to the enemy, acting as spies, issuing and publishing forgeries of a military character, or doing any other act interfering with the plans of our generals, the man who finely, the weather is clear, &c. engages in either is liable to arrest. trial and punishment by the military authorities. A great many somebodies who talk so much about the Constitution, if they re-read that document will find that it makes provision for war as well as peace.

To glory again. For the Gazette

In Little Valley, on the 22d April, CHRIS-TINA, wife of John Wills, aged 60 years.

Religiously trained by a pious mother, she was converted to God in her wouth Her long life has been devoted to her Divine Mas ter, and she was always to be found in what she conceived to be the discharge of duty. Her piety was of that deep and fervent character that her presence could not but be felt. She was truly a woman of prayer, and deep were the impressions made upon the minds of her children during her supplications at the family altar. Although much afflicted in her latter years, she bore her sufferings with out a murmur, and it may be truly said of her, "Blessed are the dead which die in the Lord." The last look and word of our moth! er, oh, how they are garnered up in the store house of our memory; with what sweet yet mournful thoughts they fill our hearts, and awaken the deep emotions of the soul, as it recalls the past with all its by gone joys and sorrows. The last look-the last wordwhat expressions of love and kindness do they recall. How well we can remember them when the tongue is paralyzed and the eves closed. Ah! no words can express, no pen can tell our feelings as we gazed upon our mother cold in death. As she passed from earth, the transition was so gentle as to leave almost a doubt that she had gone. Truly, indeed, did she fall asleep in Jesus.

A DAUGHTER. For the Gazette.

The Conviction of "Andrews."

Andrews, "the Virginian," a leader of the New York riots has been convicted upon the charges made against him, and sentenced to imprisonment at hard labor for three years. Before sentence was passed upon him he made two addresses; one to the jury, the other to the court. Andrews it will be remembered, made his advent upon the first of the riot days, and made an inflammatory appeal to the mobs, urging them to resist the draft, destroy the custom house and other public buildings, and seize the arsenal.

His counsel asserted that Gov. Seymour of New York and wasn't elected Governor Woodward of Pennsylvania, had expressed similar opinions to his own, and we are thus let into the secret of what copperheads consider Free Speech! He declared, in the course of his speeches, that if it was treasonable or criminal to oppose the draft, he admitted himself guilty. The peroration was as follows:

" Strike me, your Honor; strike me down ! But when you strike, concede to me the claim I assert of a free citizen of a sovereign citi zen of this free Constitution. Concede to all men their rights-liberty of speech, liberty of thought, liberty of action, under all cir cumstances whatever. That I ask, and no more. Your Honor, I have done."

The court refused to strike him, however, but conceded him liberty of speech, liberty of thought, and liberty of hard labor in Sing Sing for the space of three years.

The weather is again pleasant.

WASHINGTON, May 30. A despatch from Gen. Grant has just been received.

It is dated yesterday, May 29, at Hanovertown, and states that the army has been successfully crossed over the Pamunkey, and now occupies a front about three miles south of the river. Yesterday two divisions of our cavalry had a severe engagement with the enemy south of Hawes' store, driving him about mile upon what appears to be his new a We will find out all about it to day. line.

Our loss in the cavalry engagement was 350 killed and wounded; of whom but 44 are ascertained to have been killed.

We having driven the enemy, most of the killed and many of the wounded fell into our hands.

Another official despatch, dated yesterday afternoon at two o'clock, details the movement of the several corps then in progress; but up to that time there was no engagement. Earlier despatches from headquarters had been sent, but failed to reach Wash. ington.

E. M. STANTON, Sec. of War.

[In locating the present position of our army some attention must be paid to names. Hanovertown must not be confounded with Hanover Court House, from which it is distant in a southeast direction about ten miles. He was brought here on the 15th May, and received every care and attention, but his surgeons could only alleviate his pain and not cure the wound. He was aware of his dangerous condition and expressed himself as reconciled to the will of God, and as willing to die. He trusted in his Saviour and said that he would meet in heaven a brother, who went before him. He desired me to say to you that he was ready to die, and as he did not expect to you any more in the flesh he hoped you would meet him in heaven.

He left no effects of value. His body will be interred to-morrow in the Government lot in Loudon Park Cemetery, near this city, and his grave will be marked so that it can hereafter be identified.
