in secret caucus, with closed and guarded doors. A delegation from this caucus proceeded to Hamilton on Wednesday morning, to welcome Mr. Vallandigham, and take part in the Grand Council to be held at that place.

As an incident in the programme, it might be stated that the Cincinnati Enquirer, on Sunday merning, contained an article of a most inflammatory and dangerous character, to all intents and purposes, exorting the people of Kentucky to unite with John Morgan, and resist the tyranny of the Federal Government. This article was so dangerous in its character that Maj Gen. Heintzelman promptly suppressed that part of the edition which was designed for circulation in Kentucky. ....

-A letter in the Boston Advertiser gives the following incident as having occurred during the vote in Congress on the abclition of slavery by the Constitutional amendment. It will be seen that our va liant Gen. Coffroth has at last 'moved on the enemy's works,' with what success our readers can judge:

'As Joseph Bailey of Pennsylvania, one of the four Democrats who had the patriotism to vote for the constitutional amendment prohibiting Slavery, was answering to his name on that question, a Copperhead, his colleague Coffroth, who was passing at the time, laid his hand heavily upon Bailey's head, and drew it down over his face, accompanying the action with words abusive of Bailey's vote and not fit to be printed. Baily suddenly forgetting his Quaker principles, seized Coffroth, who is much the larger man, by the collar, drew his head down, and dealt him a pow erful blow under the ear, which sent him reeling against the opposite desk. Cof froth laid down his arms."

.... Davisegination .- Instances are common

of the most afflictive separation of family relations by this unnatural war. Brothers and even parents and children, are found in the ranks of the hostile armies. One of the most touching cases of this kind is that of a son of the Confederate President Jefferson Davis, who is serving in the National cause on the gunboat Carondolet, fighting to crush the Rebellion which his father is leader of. The Davis junior is the son of Eliza, late a slave to the patriarchal Davis. An officer of the army of Vicksburg who had heard the fact, verified it from Eliza's lips. How sharper than a serpent's tooth must be the grief of that parent whom unrelenting fate compels to take sides against his own son in a war for freedom!

-The rebel editors turn with imploring looks to their "Northern friends" in this hour of trial to come to the rescue and break down the wall of fire which is en. circling them :-- "There is no doubt," says the Atlanta Intelligencer,"that there are, in the Western States, a large number of men opposed to the abolition war. The vote in Ohio, during the last gubernatorial election, exhibited the fact that over 200,000 voters in that State were opposed to the war, and if the flames of insurrection will only spread over Illinois, we feel certain that thousands of Ohioans will join the melee. Nothing could give us greater satisfaction than the sight of the Copper heads engaged in cutting the throats of Lincoln's hirelings."

Excellent Summer Drinks. CORN DRINK.

THE

A Yankee girl sends us the following : To five gallons of cold water, add one qt. of sound corn and two quarts of molasses. Put into a keg. Shake well, and in two or three days it will be fit for use. Bung tight. It may be flavored with essence of spruce or lemon. The corn will last to make five or six brewings. If it becomes sour, add more molasses and water. It is cheap and simple beer, and is called very good.

GINGER BEER.

Take of ginger bruised or sliced, one and a half ounce; cream of tartar, one ounce; loaf sugar, one pound; one lemon, sliced; put them into a pan, and pour six quarts of boiling water upon them --- When nearly cold, put in a little yeast, and stir it for about a minute. Let it stand till next day, then strain and bottle it. It is fit to drink in three days, but will not keep good longer than a fortnight. The corks should be tied down, and the bottles placed upright in a cool place.

FINE MEAD.

Beat to strong froth the whites of three eggs, and mix them with six gallons of water; sixteen quarts of strained honey, and the yellow rind of two dozen large lemons, pared very thin. Boil all together during three quarters of an hour skimming it well. Then put it into a tub, and when lukewarm add three tablespoonfulls of the best fresh yeast. Cover it, and leave to ferment. When it has done working, transfer it to a barrel, with the lemon peel in the bottom. Let it stand six months, then bottle it.

TO CONDENSE MILK FOR THE SOLDIERS. We find the following in an exchange :

Place two quarts of new milk in a vessel over a slow fire, stir it to prevent burning, until it is about the thickness of cream, add one pound of sugar, a little at a time, stirring constantly till it becomes thick and stiff, then spread on plates and dry in the oven or sun, and powder it with a knife or spoon. It can be sent in papers and serves for both milk and sugar when dissolved in coffee or tea. Let our dairy women try it, and they will get the thanks of the "sanitary" and the soldiers.
