

THE HOUSEKEEPER.

RECIPES.

Preserves and Pickles.

Mrs. Wilcox's Wine Jelly.—Three pints boiling water, one pint wine, one quarter pound sugar, juice, and grated rind of one lemon, one box of gelatine. Soak the gelatine in cold water half an hour; add the sugar; pour the boiling water over it, stirring well; then let it cool a little, add your flavoring, and pour into your moulds.

Tomato Preserve.—Pour boiling water on to the tomatoes, and take the skins off; add one-half the weight of them in sugar, and some sliced lemons; take a cup of ginger and tie it in a bag loosely, and boil it in half a pint of water. Put this into the preserve and boil three hours, skimming off the thick froth as it rises.

Mangoes of Melons.—Take green melons, and make a brine strong enough to bear up an egg; then pour it, boiling hot, on the melons, keeping them under the brine; then let them stand five or six days; then slit them down on one side; take out all the seeds, scrape them well in the inside, and wash them clean; then take cloves, garlic, ginger, nutmeg, and pepper, put all these proportionally into the melons, filling them up with mustard seed; then lay them into an earthen pot, and take one part of mustard seed and two parts of vinegar, enough to cover them, pouring it on scalding hot. Keep them closely covered.

Tomato Preserves, No. 2.—Take the round yellow variety as soon as ripe; scald and peel; to seven pounds tomatoes add seven pounds white sugar, and let them stand over night. Take the tomatoes out of the sugar and boil the syrup, removing the seeds; put in the tomatoes and boil gently fifteen or twenty minutes; remove the fruit again, and boil until the syrup thickens. On cooling, put the fruit in jars; put a few slices of lemon in each jar, and pour the syrup over them. They are very nice.

To Pickle Ripe Tomatoes.—Take them when thoroughly ripe. Do not prick them, as many receipts tell you. Let them lie in strong brine three or four days; put them down in layers, in jars, mixing with them small onions and pieces of horseradish, pour on them cold, spiced vinegar; let be a small spice bag to put into every jar; cover them carefully and let them set a whole month before using.

New Testimonials.
DERRY TOWNSHIP, March, 1864.
Mr. Joseph Swyers:—After my best respects to you, this is to let you know that I have been troubled with chills for the last fifteen years, some of them so hard that I thought I could not live over night. I was for days and nights not able to go out. Last fall they came on again as usual, and having about half a bottle of your Liniment about the house, I thought I would try it, and took about 20 drops night and morning for some time. From the time I took it I have never had one chill, and can say that I never had used any medicine that gave me so much satisfaction as your liniment. Your obedient servant,
Adam Baird.
March 28th, 1864.

Mr. J. Swyers: My son had a sore neck for three months back, for which I used your liniment, and it is a perfect cure. He also had a sore leg for two years back; I got one of your bottles of liniment, which has cured it soundly.
Yours, respectfully,
Charles Mitchell.
FREDERICK FORCE, March 28, 1864.
Mr. Swyers: I recommend your liniment to be the best that I ever had in my house. I had a pain in my side for about 15 years, and I doctored with doctors far and near, but they done me no good, when I heard of your liniment, tried it, and I am thankful to say it has cured me sound and well; and for the children I could not do without it. Hugh's hand were dreadfully cracked open with the wind, and he rubbed them with it, and it has cured them.
Mrs. Margaret E. Swamers.

TIME MAKES CHANGES.
Our Change of Base.
He who by the plow would thrive, Himself must either hold or drive; Franklin thus wrote the words of truth, When Uncle Sam was in his youth.
But now Young America is all a-fire, And needs to be cautioned how to drive; And Uncle Sam, I think, he too Is rather dashing his way through.
Now, he who safely would progress, Must step by step still onward press; But he who would take two, Often falls down—a zero?
And to prevent that state of affairs, I've moved to where there is no stairs— Across the street, you'll please to mind, Now swings the Big Coffee Pot Sign.
This here I want my friends to call, And see my stock—I can't mention all— In short, your house-wants all you'll find Supplied at the Big Coffee Pot Sign.
N. B. Manufacturing and Jobbing carried on as usual, and our motto is "Small profits and quick sales." Don't mistake the place. J. IRVIN WALLIS. my4 Sign of the Big Coffee Pot.
