

LOCAL AFFAIRS.

OUR QUOTAS.—We learn from an official source that the quotas for the several sub-districts of this county are as follows:

Table with 2 columns: District Name and Quota. Includes Lewistown (63), Decatur (31), Derry (41), Granville (29), Oliver (28), McVeytown (15), Bratton (18), Armagh (40), Brown (31), Union (35), Menno (31), Wayne (28), Newton Hamilton (10).

We do not know whether any credits for surplus on previous draft or for substitutes have been given, but presume not. In that case the number of men to be furnished would be less than the above.

OUR SOLDIERS—Lieut. Crawford Selheimer, of the Logan Guards, is lying in hospital at Indianapolis, seriously wounded. His mother started for that city yesterday morning. The others wounded in the Logan Guards are Sergt. Enos Rogers, privates John A. Barner, Nicholas Nolte, and Mich-Harris.

ITEMS.—Any one returning to this office a fine French Merino ladies' scarf, which was lost on Thursday last between Strode's Mills and McVeytown, will receive thanks and be considered as honest.—Jacob F. Hamaker's little boy was kicked in the face by a horse the other day.—The cars on the M. & C. C. R. R. run over two sheep belonging to Mr. Shimp, on Monday last, killing one and breaking the leg of the other.—Carl Neupert, a German of very good qualities, who resided here for some years, is reported to have died suddenly in Pittsburgh a few days since.—James Nichols, esq., has purchased the establishment of John Swan, where he will carry on the business as usual.—Rev. John Leithead, late pastor of the Episcopal church, is on a visit here.—Andrew Sturgis, High Constable, having entered the service, John L. Porter has been appointed in his place.—A fine shower fell last night, which, with a few previous light ones, will continue to improve the corn and potatoes.—Rather amphibious—dancing parties in the dog days.—Thirty-six recruits towards the borough's quota had been obtained up to yesterday. Recruits are mustered in by Lieut. Willis, and the committee bounty paid at once.

We commence culling our list today. Those who get no paper, will know the reason.

The Rebels at M'Connellsburg. The Fulton Republican notices the advent of the rebels at M'Connellsburg as follows:

Soon after the rebels entered town on Saturday afternoon, they commenced plundering the stores, pillaging private houses, and robbing citizens. They first demanded the key of Dr. Duffield's Drug Store, which was given, to prevent their breaking open the door. Not content with taking what they chose, they emptied the contents of drawers, jars, cases, &c., on the floor, in a heterogeneous mass. Private papers, accounts, and books shared the same fate. The stores of J. W. Groathead, Cahill & Thompson, Hohe & Nace, and the Messrs Shoemakers, were also visited and received the same treatment.

The greater portion of the dry goods had been removed from the store of Hohe & Nace—which caused no little cursing and swearing among the Chivalry—as they expected to reap a harvest from this establishment. The losses of Dr. Duffield, J. W. Groathead, Cahill & Thompson, and A. & D. Shoemaker, were very considerable.—Most of the private houses in town were pillaged of clothes—and many citizens were stripped and robbed in the streets and roads. Money was demanded from every one, the demand being accompanied in most cases with threats of burning, or a cocked revolver in close proximity with the head.

The farmers in our valley were severe losers. Squads of rebels scouted the Cove, visiting nearly every house, stealing money, clothes, women's apparel, jewelry-trinkets, &c. A demand was made on the town for 2600 rations, which was supplied as far as the citizens were able, as we were insecure of the burning of our town. Indeed, it is now confidently believed, the destruction of this place was determined on and would have been accomplished, had not Averill been so near on Sunday morning.

Married.

At the Lutheran parsonage on the 16th inst., by Rev. H. R. Flock, HENRY PRINZ to Miss AMANDA J. GOCHNAUR, both of this town.

Died.

At Locke's Mills, on the 29th July, Mrs. MATHILDA, wife of John Bell, aged 50 years, 6 months and 15 days.

Faithful and true in the relations of life, kind and cheerful in social intercourse, consistent in her walk and conversation as a member of the church, patient and resigned during her last illness, she died in faith, leaving a precious memory on earth and going doubtless to a blessed reward in heaven.

At Pittsburgh, on the 31st July, EMILY E. KING, daughter of Henry J. and Annie H. King, aged 17 years and 5 months.

Who will read the above announcement without a feeling of sadness that one so young should be called so soon away. Just in the springtime, when life wore its brightest aspect, when earth was fairest and its cares unknown, she was called to lay her young life down, to pass from light and sunshine to the silence and darkness of the tomb.

Loved for many virtues, admired for a beauty whose greatest charm was her total unconsciousness of its possession, her pleasant manners and winning ways won the hearts of all who approached her. How sad that the loveliest things of earth should be the frailest, the things we love the most should be the first to perish.

God took her lest malice should corrupt, and child though she was in years, the few last hours of her life showed her possessed of such depth of thought, as was a subject of astonishment to those around her. Patient and resigned under the most acute suffering, her greatest care was to comfort and console her mother:—"mother, darling mother, how can I part from you?" Who that stood by that bed of death, and watched his shadows wrap over that fair young face, and saw that bright young life die out, will ever forget the thrilling tenderness with which these words were uttered. And the farewell to her absent father, so touching in its tones of love—"Father, dear father, how much I love him." Tenderly bidding farewell to those absent, she expired, herself ready and willing to die, "because God thought it best." Her last moments were passed in prayer, and her last word was "mother."

Who can picture the agony of parents called upon to part from such a child. How cold and vain are human words to comfort grief like theirs. So faded away the fair young flower, leaving us the memory of her sweetness, the example of her virtues, and the hope of meeting again in that better world, where sorrow never enters.

MOSES ROTHROCK, Administrator.

U. S. 7-30 Loan.

THE Secretary of the Treasury gives notice that subscriptions will be received for Coupon Treasury Notes, payable three years from August 15th, 1864, with semi-annual interest at the rate of seven and three-tenths per cent. per annum—principal and interest both to be paid in lawful money.

These notes will be convertible at the option of the holder at maturity, into six per cent. gold bearing bonds, payable not less than five nor more than twenty years from their date, as the government may elect. They will be issued in denominations of $50, $100, $500, $1000 and $5000, and all subscriptions must be for fifty dollars or some multiple of fifty dollars.

The notes will be transmitted to the owners free of transportation charges as soon after the receipt of the original Certificates of Deposit as they can be prepared.

As the notes draw interest from August 15, persons making deposits subsequent to that date must pay the interest accrued from date of note to date of deposit.

Parties depositing twenty-five thousand dollars and upwards for these notes at any one time, will be allowed a commission of one quarter of one per cent, which will be paid by the Treasury Department upon the receipt of a bill for the amount, certified to by the officer with whom the deposit was made. No deductions for commissions must be made from the deposits.

SPECIAL ADVANTAGES OF THIS LOAN.

IT IS A NATIONAL SAVINGS BANK, offering a higher rate of interest than any other, and the best security. Any savings bank which pays its depositors in U. S. notes, considers that it is paying in the best circulating medium in the country, and it cannot pay in anything better, for its own assets are either in government securities or in notes or bonds payable in government paper.

It is equally convenient as a temporary or permanent investment. The notes can always be sold for within a fraction of their face and accumulated interest, and are the best security with banks as collateral for discounts.

Convertible into a 6 per cent. 5-20 Bond.

In addition to the very liberal interest on the notes for three years, this privilege of conversion is now worth about three per cent. per annum, for the current rate for 5-20 Bonds is not less than nine per cent. premium, and before the war the premium on six per cent. U. S. stocks was over twenty per cent. It will be seen that the actual profit on this loan, at the present market rate, is not less than ten per cent. per annum.

Its Exemption from State or Municipal Taxation.

But aside from all the advantages we have enumerated, a special Act of Congress exempts all Bonds and Treasury notes from local taxation. On the average, this exemption is worth about two per cent. per annum, according to the rate of taxation in various parts of the country.

It is believed that no securities offer so great inducements to lenders as those issued by the government. In all other forms of indebtedness, the faith or ability of private parties, or stock companies, or separate communities, only, is pledged for payment, while the whole property of the country is held to secure the discharge of all the obligations of the United States.

While the government offers the most liberal terms for its loans, it believes that the very strongest appeal will be to the loyalty and patriotism of the people.

Duplicate certificates will be issued for all deposits. The party depositing must endorse upon the original certificate the denomination of the notes required, and whether they are to be issued in blank or payable to order. When so endorsed it must be left with the officer receiving the deposit, to be forwarded to the Treasury Department.

SUBSCRIPTIONS WILL BE RECEIVED BY THE Treasurer of the United States, at Washington, the several Assistant Treasurers and designated Depositories, and by the First National Bank of Philadelphia, Pa. Second National Bank of Philadelphia, Pa. Third National Bank of Philadelphia, Pa. First National Bank of Altoona, Pa. First National Bank of Carlisle, Pa.

and by all National Banks which are depositories of public money, and ALL RESPECTABLE BANKS AND BANKERS throughout the country will give further information & AFFORD EVERY FACILITY TO SUBSCRIBERS. August 16, 1864-3m
