

THE MINSTREL.

ON GUARD.

BY A YOUNG SOLDIER IN THE ARMY OF THE POTOMAC

At midnight, on my lonely beat,
When shadows wrap the wood and sea,
A vision seems my view to greet,
Of one at home that prays for me.

No roses blow upon her cheek,
Her form is not a lover's dream;
But on her face, so fair and meek,
A host of holier beauties gleam.

For soft shines her silver hair,
A patient smile is on her face;
And the mild lustrous light of prayer
Around her sheds a moonlight grace.

She prays for one that's far away—
The soldier in his holy fight—
And begs that heaven in mercy may
Protect her boy and bless the right.

Till, though the leagues lie far between,
This silent incense of her heart
Steals o'er my soul with breath serene
And we no longer are apart.

So guarding thus my lonely beat,
By shadowy wood and haunted sea,
That vision seems my view to greet
Of her at home that prays for me.

THE HOUSEKEEPER.

RECIPES.

Preserved Apricots, Peaches, and Plums in Brandy.—Gather your fruit before it is quite ripe; prick them with a pin on each side, put them into a stew-pan full of fresh spring water, and stew them gently until you can pass a pin with facility to the stone of the fruit, when take them from the pan and put them to drain on a sieve. Whilst draining, prepare a syrup, which, when the fruit is nicely arranged in a tureen, should be thrown on it boiling hot, and so left for twenty-four hours, when the fruit is again left to drain, and the syrup boiled for one hour, and poured boiling hot over the fruit once more. On the third day arrange the fruit in the preserving pots and boil the syrup to a proper consistency. When cold, mix it with brandy, in the proportion of two thirds syrup to one-third brandy, and pour it over the fruit.

Wine from Purple Grapes.—Provide forty pounds of full grown but unripe grapes; pick out all unsound ones, then separate the small ones by means of a sieve. Put the fruit into a fifteen or twenty gallon tub; bruise in small portions so as to burst the berries without crushing the seed. Pour upon them four gallons of water; stir and squeeze them with the hands until the juice and pulp are separated from the seeds and skins. In twelve or twenty-four hours strain the whole through a canvas bag, and pass through the fruit a gallon of fresh water. Next, dissolve in the juice twenty pounds of refined sugar, and add water if requisite, to make up the whole liquor to eleven gallons; let it remain in the tub, cover it with a blanket, over which place a board, and let the temperature be from fifty to sixty degrees of the thermometer; in a day or two, according to the symptoms of fermentation, draw off the liquor into a ten gallon cask to ferment, keeping it filled up to near the bung-hole. When the fermentation becomes somewhat languid, drive in the bung, and bore a hole in its side, into which drive a wooden peg. In every case loosen the peg, so that the air may escape, and when there appear no longer any bubbles drive in the peg tightly. The wine being thus made, it should be set in a cool cellar, and remain there till about the end of December, when, to insure its fineness, it should be racked in a fresh cask, to clear it from its first lees. Should it then prove too sweet, instead of racking it the fermentation should be renewed by stirring up the lees, or by rolling the cask. Sometimes, if the wine be examined, on a clear, cold day in February, or March it would be found fine enough to bottle. If it be racked, it should be fined in the usual way with isinglass. If a very sweet as well as brisk wine be wished, the quantity of sugar for ten gallons should be increased to thirty pounds. To insure briskness without excessive sweetness, the proportion of the fruit should be fifty pounds to twenty-five pounds of sugar. If the sweetness should pass off from wine thus made, check the fermentation by racking and fining, and it will be speedily fit for use. Observe that the husks of the grapes be fermented in the vat with the liquid.

Good Elderberry Wine.—To every three quarts of elderberries add one gallon of water, and let them stand for three days in an earthen pan; then boil up all together. For every gallon of water take three pounds of good moist sugar, and place it into a small copper; strain the liquor off on the sugar, and for every ten gallons of wine take one ounce of ginger, half an ounce of cloves and one ounce of whole allspice; tie the spices in a separate bag of muslin, and boil up the whole for about twenty minutes or half an hour; let it stand in the pan till cold, placing in the liquor a thick piece of toast with a little yeast on it. When quite cold pour the liquor into the barrel; let it work out of the bung hole, and fill up, as you would for beer, as long as it works. About Christmas it will be fit for bottling, and a little brandy, added to each bottle, is a great improvement.

Why do flies trouble ladies more than gentlemen? They always congregate where there is something sweet.

The peculiar taint or infection which we call SCROFULA lurks in the constitutions of multitudes of men. It either produces or is produced by an enfeebled, vitiated state of the blood, wherein that fluid becomes incompetent to sustain the vital forces in their vigorous action, and leaves the system to fall into disorder and decay. The scrofulous contamination is variously named, according to the organs it attacks. In the lungs, Scrofula produces tubercles, and finally Consumption; in the glands, swellings which suppurate and become ulcerous sores; in the stomach and bowels, derangements which produce indigestion, dyspepsia, and liver complaints; on the skin, eruptive and cutaneous affections. These, all having the same origin, require the same remedy, viz., purification and invigoration of the blood. Purify the blood, and these dangerous distempers leave you. With feeble, foul, or corrupted blood, you cannot have health; with that "life of the flesh" healthy, you cannot have scrofulous disease.

Ayer's Sarsaparilla is compounded from the most effectual antidotes that medical science has discovered for this afflicting distemper, and for the cure of the disorders it entails. That it is far superior to any other remedy yet devised, is known by all who have given it a trial. That it does combine virtues truly extraordinary in their effect upon this class of complaints, is indisputably proven by the great multitude of publicly known and remarkable cures it has made of the following diseases: King's Evil, or Glandular Swellings, Tumors, Eruptions, Pimples, Blisters and Sores, Erysipelas, Rose or St. Anthony's Fire, Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Coughs from tuberculous deposits in the lungs, White Swellings, Debility, Dropsy, Neuralgia, Dyspepsia or Indigestion, Syphilis and Syphilitic Infections, Mercurial Diseases, Female Weakness, and, indeed, the whole series of complaints that arise from impurity of the blood. Minute reports of individual cases may be found in AYER'S AMERICAN ALMANAC, which is furnished to the druggists for gratuitous distribution, wherein may be learned the directions for its use, and some of the remarkable cures which it has made when all other remedies had failed to afford relief. Those cases are purposely taken from all sections of the country, in order that every reader may have access to some one who can speak to him of its benefits from personal experience. Scrofula depresses the vital energies, and thus leaves its victims far more subject to disease and its fatal results than are healthy constitutions. Hence it tends to shorten, and does greatly shorten, the average duration of human life. The vast importance of these considerations has led us to spend years in perfecting a remedy which is adequate to its cure. This we now offer to the public under the name of AYER'S SARSAPARILLA, although it is composed of ingredients, some of which exceed the best of Sarsaparilla in alterative power. By its aid you may protect yourself from the suffering and danger of these disorders. Purge out the foul corruptions that rot and fester in the blood, purge out the causes of disease, and vigorous health will follow. By its peculiar virtues this remedy stimulates the vital functions, and thus expels the distempers which lurk within the system or burst out on any part of it.

We know the public have been deceived by many compounds of Sarsaparilla, that promised much and did nothing; but they will neither be deceived nor disappointed in this. Its virtues have been proven by abundant trial, and there remains no question of its surpassing excellence for the cure of the afflicting diseases it is intended to reach. Although under the same name, it is a very different medicine from any other which has been before the people, and is far more effectual than any other which has ever been available to them.

AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL. The World's Great Remedy for Coughs, Colds, Incipient Consumption, and for the relief of Consumptive patients in advanced stages of the disease.

This has been so long used and so universally known, that we need no more than assure the public that its quality is kept up to the best it ever has been, and that it may be relied on to do all it has ever done.

An Infallible Remedy for all Chronic and Inflammatory Rheumatism, Diphtheria, Sore Throat, Quinsy, Sprains, Neuralgia, Pain in the Back and Limbs, Cramps, &c.

New Testimonials. DERRY TOWNSHIP, March, 1864.

Mr. Joseph Swyers—After my best respects to you, this is to let you know that I have been troubled with chills for the last fifteen years, some of them so hard that I thought I could not live over night. I was for days and nights not able to go out. Last fall they came on again as usual, and having about half a bottle of your liniment about the house, I thought I would try it, and took about 20 drops night and morning for some time. From the time I took it I have never had one chill, and can say that I never had used any medicine that gave so much satisfaction as your liniment. Your obt. servant, Adam Baird.

March 28th, 1864.

Mr. J. Swyers: My son had a sore neck for three months back, for which I used your liniment, and it is a perfect cure. He also had a sore leg for two years back; I got one of your bottles of liniment, which has cured it soundly. Yours, respectfully, Charles Mitchell.

FREED M. FORGE, March 28, 1864.

Mr. Swyers: I recommend your liniment to be the best that I ever had in my house. I had a pain in my side for about 15 years, and I doctored with doctors for and near, but they done me no good, when I heard of your liniment, tried it, and I am thankful to say it has cured me sound and well, and for the children I could not do without it. Hugh's hand were dreadfully cracked open with the wind, and he rubbed them with it, and it has cured them.

Mrs. Margaret E. Summers, Hugh Summers, LILLESVILLE, Decatur tp., Millin County, Pa.

Mr. Joseph Swyers: This is to certify that I cured my child of the diphtheria in three days with your liniment.

TIME MAKES CHANGES.

Our change of Base. He who by the plow would thrive, Himself must either hold or drive; Franklin thus wrote the words of truth, When Uncle Sam was in his youth.

But now Young America is all alive, And needs to be cautioned how to drive; And Uncle Sam, I think, he too, Is rather dashing his way through.

Now, he who safely would progress, Must step by step still onward press; But he who would take two, Often falls down "a few."

And to prevent that state of affairs, I've moved to where there is no stairs— Across the street, you'll please to mind, Now swings the Big Coffee Pot Sign.

So here I want my friends to call, And see my stock—I can't mention all— In short, your house-wants all you'll find Supplied at the Big Coffee Pot Sign.
