

LOCAL AFFAIRS

The name of one of our candidates was wrongly printed last week. It ought to have been LOUIS instead of Lewis. Papers through the district are requested to make a note of this, so that the tickets are uniformly printed. By the by, Mr. Hall, as we before stated, has had some legislative experience, having represented his then district in the Senate in a faithful and satisfactory manner. His ability is also unquestioned, for although one of the youngest members of that body, if not the youngest, he was elected Speaker, the duties of which he discharged with unusual tact. Haines has also served a term in the Assembly, so that we shall have two Senators familiar with legislative business, and sound Union men.

OUR SOLDIERS.—Among the officers placed under fire by the cowardly rebels at Charleston, S. C., is Lieut. James P. Smith, of the 49th, a son of William H. Smith, of Granville township.

Tilghman Kulp, of the 21st Cavalry, is at home on furlough.

A number of veterans of the 1st Pa. Cavalry, who had honorably served their country three years and were lately discharged, are now at home.

Jas. S. Galbraith will hold a sale on Saturday next, 24th September, of valuable Horses, Carriages, Buggies, Harness, &c., which all in want of such matters ought to attend.

The 30th of September will be the last day on which the Assessors can receive names for Assessment. In town persons will call on L. J. Elbert, at Lind's shop.

THANKS.—To John Ruble for a demi John of good cider—to F. J. Hoffman for a piece of prime cheese—to Rev. Fleck for a lot of grapes—and to Joseph Swyers of Freedom Forges for a watermelon treat. Orders thankfully received and promptly attended to.

Farmers and gardeners, take care of your orchards and fruit trees. All the fruit that falls and you do not pick up and carry away from under your trees are filled with insects, which are destined to destroy the next year's crop. Go to your trees in the morning and take all the good and sound fruit, then let your pigs in during the day, and thousands, yea, tens of thousands of insects are destroyed every day. Try the experiment, and don't almost dog the pig to death that is doing you good when by accident it gets into your orchard.

E. Swain, in addition to a large stock of Vegetables, Sweet and other Potatoes, Melons, Peaches, &c., supplies of which he receives weekly, has a very fine assortment of Letter and Note Paper, Cards, Envelopes, &c., which the ladies will find to be just the thing they want. His stock of Fruits, Candies, Fancy Articles, and in fact hundreds of other articles useful, ornamental and otherwise, make up a true variety store, whose equal is not with in the realms of Mifflin county.

THE DRAFT.—Through the exertions of a number of our citizens, among whom were D. W. Woods, John A. McKee, Geo. W. Elder, and others, attention was drawn to the heavy quota assigned to this district, and finally D. W. Woods and Mr. Barker, our candidate for Congress, got the matter through at Washington by having an order issued to apportion this district on the basis of 1 out of every 661. The final adjustment of quotas will be made as soon as the returns of enlistments are ascertained, and then the draft go on. Lewistown and several other districts are believed to be full, though there is nothing certain yet as to the number required.

A mule team from the Forge took flight yesterday and ran into the canal, at Marks' wharf; but for the exertions of Henry Walters, who jumped in and cut the harness, one of them must have drowned.

There was a great little Mac meeting at the Town Hall on Saturday evening. The lights were lit, half a dozen walked in and then walked out, and the meeting adjourned. A looker on informs us that it was to have been addressed by J. Stewart McKenney, one of Mac's ten thousand through whom he expected to blow down the walls of Richmond, but Stewart's blow horn was out of order, or not ready, so the thing fell through.

A dark brown mare, with the right fore foot scurred and that foot crooked, was stolen from R. W. Shaw's pasture field last week. The thief is supposed to have made his way towards Cumberland Valley. He also stole a saddle and harness bridle from Lehr's mill.

The weather continues pleasant.

The Presbyterian church and steeple are being repainted by Mr. Himmelwright, and present a clean and handsome appearance.

U. S. 7-30 Loan. THE Secretary of the Treasury gives notice that subscriptions will be received for Coupon Treasury Notes, payable three years from August 15th, 1864, with semi-annual interest at the rate of seven and three-tenths per cent. per annum—principal and interest both to be paid in lawful money. These notes will be convertible at the option of the holder at maturity, into six per cent. gold bearing bonds, payable not less than five nor more than twenty years from their date, as the government may elect. They will be issued in denominations of $50, $100, $500, $1000 and $5000, and all subscriptions must be for fifty dollars or some multiple of fifty dollars. The notes will be transmitted to the owners free of transportation charges as soon after the receipt of the original Certificates of Deposit as they can be prepared. As the notes draw interest from August 15, persons making deposits subsequent to that date must pay the interest accrued from date of note to date of deposit. Parties depositing twenty-five thousand dollars and upwards for these notes at any one time, will be allowed a commission of one quarter of one per cent, which will be paid by the Treasury Department upon the receipt of a bill for the amount, certified to by the officer with whom the deposit was made. No deductions for commissions must be made from the deposits. It is equally convenient as a temporary or permanent investment. The notes can always be sold for within a fraction of their face and accumulated interest, and are the best security with banks as collaterals for discounts. Convertible into a 6 per cent. 5-20 Bond. In addition to the very liberal interest on the notes for three years, this privilege of conversion is now worth about three per cent. per annum, for the current rate for 5-20 Bonds is not less than nine per cent. premium, and before the war the premium on six per cent. U. S. stocks was over twenty per cent. It will be seen that the actual profit on this loan, at the present market rate, is not less than ten per cent. per annum. Its Exemption from State or Municipal Taxation. But aside from all the advantages we have enumerated, a special Act of Congress exempts all bonds and Treasury notes from local taxation. On the average, this exemption is worth about two per cent. per annum, according to the rate of taxation in various parts of the country. It is believed that no securities offer so great inducements to lenders as those issued by the government. In all other forms of indebtedness, the faith or ability of private parties, or stock companies, or separate communities, only, is pledged for payment, while the whole property of the country is held to secure the discharge of all the obligations of the United States. While the government offers the most liberal terms for its loans, it believes that the very strongest appeal will be to the loyalty and patriotism of the people. Duplicate certificates will be issued for all deposits. The party depositing must endorse upon the original certificate the denomination of the notes required, and whether they are to be issued in blank or payable to order. When so endorsed it must be left with the officer receiving the deposit, to be forwarded to the Treasury Department. SUBSCRIPTIONS WILL BE RECEIVED BY THE Treasurer of the United States, at Washington, the several Assistant Treasurers and designated Depositories, and by the First National Bank of Philadelphia, Pa. Second National Bank of Philadelphia, Pa. Third National Bank of Philadelphia, Pa. First National Bank of Altoona, Pa. First National Bank of Carlisle, Pa. and by all National Banks which are depositaries of public money, and ALL RESPECTABLE BANKS AND BANKERS throughout the country will give further information & AFFORD EVERY FACILITY TO SUBSCRIBERS.
