own, but gives Mr. Barker a larger majority than any candidate has received for years.

The Chicago Platform majorities for Congress are reported as follows: Mc-Veytown 25, Bratton 1, (caused by a railroad colony,) Oliver 42, Decatur 6, Brown 30, New Armagh 8, Menno 30. Union majorities-Wayne and Newton 5, Old Armagh 41, Union 31. These figures leave Johnson, for Congress, who is lowest on the Chicago ticket, a majority on the home vote of about 34.

A report from Blair gives the Union majority at only 450, which would render Congress and Senator extremely doubtful. At the time we go to press we have nothing from Huntingdon or Juniata.

Philadelphia is reported at 5000 Union majority, Allegheny 7000, votes which indicate a close contest in the

Ohio and Indiana are reported Union by a large majority. THE PEACE MEETING.—After a great deal of exertion on the part of the submision and peace on any terms party, the patent democracy of Mifflin, Juniata, Centre and Huntingdon counties assembled in Lewistown on Saturday last. The day was appropriately bleak and stormy, with an occasional cold shower, which dampened the ardor of the majority considerably. Capt. Whisky was of course in attendance, and played a conspicuous part in the programme. The procession as it was termed comprised as motely a group as could be scared up anywhere, its main feature being women, babies, girls and boys, for it was clear to any one with half an eye that not one-third were voters. Among them were thirty-four ladies dressed in McClellan mourning. Among the incidents which created no little merriment among Union-lookers on was the fact that a calf followed the procession through Third street, occasionally calling for its ma! The circus performance having been gone through, the faithful, with a large number of Union men proceeded to the stand, but the latter with some of the former, soon retired in disgust at hearing vile tirades against our government, language calculated to prepare the public mind for Disunion, and the most infamous slanders which copperhead vemon could suggest. Joseph W. Parker, a young man with brilliant talents and a good mind, but whom the demagogues of the party will not suffer to remain in pursuit of a business in which he might acquire both honor and fame, again forgetful that on the breaking out of the war he had demonstrated the rebels had no cause whatever for their rebellion, indulged in a coarse and vindictive attack on the government. He was followed by another Parker, from Mifflintown, who proved conclusively that a full-blooded northern copperhead, but for the lack of courage, would be as bad as ten townburning and murdering rebels. Both these speeches as well as one delivered by Oily Gammon, Esq., alias Beal, or been more applauded at Richmond from here to Pulaski in one week. than they were here. One of these fellows was badly taken down by a with crocodile tears was deploring the the same blue-coat, "Why don't you come down to the army and get the best for nothing!" Copperhead dropped coffee like a hot poker. In the evening another meeting was held in the Town Hall, where the Parkers finished their abuse of the government of the United States! Thus ended not at present proper for publication. the "great" demonstration of Mifflin, an officer of Gen. She idan's staff just archildren to draw their relief orders, to see "Micclellan and Pelican," was small potatoes, for it is a mooted question whether there were not as many Union men in town that day as patent democrats, including all shades of peace at any price copperheads, disunionists, submissionists, tories, and some honest democrats who have not yet discovered that the patent democracy of the present day is to the letter the nullification doctrine of Gen. Jackson's time.

Andrew Reed, Esq., addressed a little audience at the Town Hall on Thursday evening last, in which he undertook to demonstrate that the north could not subjugate the south. Now we should like to know what Mr. Reed and other speakers mean by such language? Are they in favor of recognizing the south? If so, where is to be the division line? Will they yield Maryland, and with it Washington the enemy's loss will not fall much short City, Kentucky, Tennessee, &c.? Come, of a thousand hors du combat. gentlemen, if you are ready for disunion, speak out and let the people know it. This is not a mere political campaign, but the life of a nation, our future welfare and those after us, are at showing the favorable condition of milita-

WAR NEWS.

Official Despatches.

WASAINGTON, Oct. 7-11.40 a. m. In a recent dispatch it was mentioned that Gen Sherman was taking measures to protect his communications from the rebel forces operating against them. Dispatches received last night show the fulfillment of the expectation.

Maj. Gen. George H. Thomas was sent to Nashville to organize the troops in his district, and drive Forrest from our lines, while the attention of Gen. Sherman was directed to the movements of the main rebel army in the vicinity of Atlanta.

On the 4th of October the rebels had captured Big Shanty, but were followed up closely by Sherman. On the 6th a severe engagement was fought by our forces under Gen. Jno. E. Smith and the rebel forces under General Forrest, in which the rebels were driven from the field with heavy loss, leaving their dead and wounded in our hands The details are given in the following dispatch from Gen. Thomas: NASHVILLE, Oct. 6-11.30 p. m.

Hon. E. M. Stanton, Sec'y. of War: The following telegram is just received from Chattanooga: Gen. Smith, who left that place yesterday, fifth October, telegraphs that the enemy retreated last evening from Alatoona, moving in the direction of Dallas, leaving from four to six hundred wounded in our hands. Our loss is about 100 killed and 200 wounded. The railroad bridge near Ringgold was washed away S. B. MOORE, Asst. Adjt. Gen. The Resaca bridge will be repaired by to-morrow and the trains will be able to run as far as Alatoona, going via Cleveland and Dalton.

Nothing further has been heard from Sherman since my dispatch of yesterday, but the retreat of the enemy towards Dal las incicates he was close upon the rear at yesterday morning. Alatoona.

I have not heard from Gen. Rousseau or Washburne to day, but presume they are pushing Forrest as rapidly as the condition of the roads will admit.

We have had heavy and continuous rains for the last five days, rendering the roads and streams impassable.

I have just received the following dispatch from Gen. Granger, dated HUNTSVILLE, Oct. 6-10 p. m.—The courier reported wounded in crossing Elk river is in. He lost the dispatches while crossing the river. He reports that two rebels were captured yesterday, who say that they left Forrest at Lawrenceburg the night before crossing south.

Gen. Morgan's advance was skirmishing with the enemy this a. m. on Span's creek, he being unable to cross the creek on account of high water. He hopes to be able to cross by to morrow morning, when he will push them still further on.

Dean, of Philadelphia, would have The Alabama railroad will be repaired Ferry up to Harrisonsburg, every train, GEORGE H. THOMAS.

Major General. Another and unofficial dispatch reports soldier, who in answer to the question as follows: Telegraph repaired to Alatoowho could show a gold dollar, said "I na to-day. The action yesterday was se can!" And again, when the speaker vere, French attacking with his division, 7,000 strong, and suffering heavily, leaving his killed and wounded in our hands to high price of coffee, he was told by the number of 1000, while we lost only 3000. The fight lasted six hours altogether. From Florence we hear that Morgan has Forrest cornered, has captured his transportation, and that the gunboats prevent I had stationed at the bridge ever the all retreat across the Tennessee.

Satisfactory reports of the operations in progress before Richmond and Petersburg 170 men while they were asleep, and the have been received, but their details are whole party dispersed or captured. 1

A dispatch from Gen Stevenson reports Juniata, Centre and Huntingdon coun- rived. Gen. Sheridan was still at Harristies, which, with the hundred women sonsburg. His supply trains were going who came to town that day with their on all right, occasionally interrupted by guerilla parties, the only force on the road. This officer brought in the remains of Lt. would have made a respectable county John R. Meigs, of the Engineer Corps, meeting, but as a representation of and only son of brevet Maj Gen. Meigs, four counties, numbers of whom came | Quartermaster General, who was killed by bushwhackers on Monday last, while making a military survey.

In the death of that gallant officer the department has occasion to deplore no ordinany loss. Last year he graduated at the military academy at West Point with the highest honors at the head of his class, was commissioned as a Lieut. of engineers, and was immediately sent into the field. He performed meritorious and dangerous services during the last year on the fortifications at Baltimore, at Harper's Ferry and at Cumberland, and was make chief engineer in the army of the Shenandoah. In the campaigns he accompanied the army under Sigel, Hunter and Sheridan in every

He gave proof of great professional skill, personal courage and developed patriotism. One of the youngest and brightest orna ments of the military profession, he has fallen an early victim to murderous rebel

Gen. Rosecrans reports that Gen. Ewing made good his retreat to Rolla, losing only a few stragglers, and the killed and wounded by the way were very few.

Sec'y of War.

Reports have been received by the War Department from Generals Butler, Sherman, Thomas, Sheridan and Burbridge, ry affairs in their respective fields of oper-

General Rousseau reports that Forrest has escaped him by crossing the Tennessee in flat boats, above and below Florence, on the 6th inst., while he (Rousseau) was detained by high water in Shoal creek and Elk river.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 8-12 o'clock m. This Department has received the following reports of the enemy's assault yesterday upon Gen. Butler's line, their subsequent repulse, and Gen. Birney's brilliant action, driving the enemy to their inner line of intrenchments around Rich-

At 6.40 p. m., the enemy, having moved Fields' and Hoke's divisions from the left, at Chapin's Farm, around to our right, at Darbytown road, attacked with spirit Gen. Kautz's cavalry in the intrenchi drove him back, with small loss of men, but with the loss of his artillery.

The enemy suffered very considerable loss in this attack.

The enemy then swept down the intrenchments towards Birney, who, having thrown back his right, waited their assault and repulsed it with a heavy loss on the part of the enemy.

The enemy, in the meantime, advanced toward Newmarket, but they were met by a force at the signal tower at 3 p. m.

I took the offensive, sending Birney with two divisions up the Darbytown road. The enemy has retreated as he advanced. and Birney has reached and occupied the entrenchments which the enemy took from Kautz, and were fortifying for themselves.

A later dispatch says, Gen. Berry has regained Gen. Kautz's old position, and holds the enemy in the inner line of intrenchments around Richmond, extending from Darbytown road to connect with Weitzel on the left near Fort Hamilton.

There has been no movement at Peters burg to day. We have secured the best of this day's work A thousand at least of the enemy killed and wounded, a hundred prisoners, and a bloody repulse.

WOODSTOCK, Va., Oct. 9, 9 p. m. To Lieut. Gen. U. S. Grant:

I have the honor to report my command at this point. To-night I commened moving back from Port Republic, and met Crawford at Bridgewater and Harrisonburg

The grain in front of this point has pre viously been destroyed in moving back to this point. The whole country, from the Blue Ridge to the North Mountain, has been made untenable for a rebel army

I have destroyed over two thousand barns filled with wheat, bay and farming implements, over seventy mills filled with flour and wheat, have driven in front of the army over 400 head of stock, and have killed and issued to the troops not less than 300 sheep.

This destruction embraces the Luray Valley and Little Foot Valley, as well as the main valley.

A large number of horses have been obtained, a proper estimate of which I cannot make

Lieut. John R. Meigs, my engineer officer, was murdered beyond Harrisonburg, near Dayton. For this atrocity all the houses within an area of 5 miles were burned. Since I came into the valley, from Harper's every small party has been bushwhacked by the people, many of whom have protection papers from commanders who have been hitherto in that valley.

The people here are getting sick of the war. Heretofore they have been living in great abundance.

I have not been followed by the enemy up to this point, with the exception of a small force of rebel cavalry, that showed themselves some distance behind my rear guard to day.

A party of the 8th Ohio cavalry which mouth of the Shenandeah, near Mt. Jackson, was attacked by Gen. McNeil with think that they will soon turn up.

I learn that fifty of them reached Winchester. McNeil was mortally wounded and fell into our hands This was fortunate, as he was the most daring and dangerous of all the buskwhackers in this section of the country

P. H. SHERIDAN, Major General.

STRASBURG, Va., Oct. 9. In coming back to this point, I was not followed up until yesterday, when a large force of cavalry appeared in my rear. I then halted my command to offer battle, by attacking the enemy. I became satisfied that it was only all the rebel cavalry of the Valley, commanded by Roper, and directed Torbert to attack at daylight this morning, and finish this saviour of the

The attack was handsomely made. Gen. Custer, commanding the 3d eavalry division, charged on the back road, and Merritt, commanding the 1st cavalry division, on the Strasburg pike. Merritt captured five guns, and Custer captured six guns, with their caissons, battery forge, &c. The two divisions captured 47 wagons, ambu lances, &c. Among the wagons captured are the headquarters wagons of Roper, Lomax, Wickham, and Colonel Holland.

The number of prisoners will be about 330. The enemy, after being charged by our gallant cavalry, were broken and ran. They were followed by our men, on the jump, twenty-six miles, through Mount Jackson and across the north fork of the Shenandoah. I deemed it best to make this delays of one day here and settle this new cavalry general. The eleven pieces of artillery captured to-day make thirty-six pieces captured in the Shenandoah Valley since the 19th of September. Some of the artillery was new, and never had been fired. The pieces were marked "Tredegar Works." P. H. SHERIDAN,

Major General.
