

LOCAL AFFAIRS.

Judge Woods requests us to say that Jurors and Witnesses at November court need not attend until Wednesday morning of court week, so that all can exercise their privilege of voting at the Presidential election before coming here.

The Postmaster of this place has now the necessary blanks for money orders, and all persons desiring to send sums from $1 to $30 with safety to authorized offices, can call. The percentage charged on sums not exceeding $10 is ten cents; from $10 to $20 fifteen cents; and from $20 to $30 twenty cents.

About $17,000 we learn has been subscribed to the Monitor Manufacturing Company, leaving $13,000 to be yet obtained. This is a praiseworthy object, and we trust the public will give it such a support as will put it into life and being. The Mower and Reaper alone would justify such an outlay.

INCENDIARISM.—A small dwelling erected on the clearing across the river made by Joel Devault, deceased, was destroyed by fire on Wednesday last. It had been untenanted for some time, and was probably set on fire through the carelessness of boys who were out gathering chestnuts, or perhaps by design. The executor of the estate is willing to pay a reward for information which will bring the miscreants to justice.

McEwens' FERROTYPES or GEM PICTURES, as taken at their Car in the Diamond, are among the finest we have seen, and cannot fail to recommend themselves to the public as both beautiful and cheap. Per dozen, $2.50, or 4 for $1.00. Finished immediately after sitting. 2t

We are still without definite returns of the late election. Mr. Barker however is certainly elected to Congress, Balsbach and Swoope to the Assembly, and it is believed Hall and Haines to the Senate.

The following letter, addressed to Joseph Alexander, Esq., gives a detailed account of the death of Captain A. G. Dickey, whose loss we noticed last week. It will be seen that there as here he was esteemed for those noble qualities which constitute the man and the gentleman. We may add that few could have fallen for whom a more heartfelt sympathy would have been called forth in this community.

JONES' LANDING, VA., } October 15th, 1864. } Dear Sir:—Last winter, when we went to Florida, Capt. Dickey and I gave to each other addresses, with the promise that if either of us should fall, the other should inform his friends. In fulfillment of that promise, it becomes my sorrowful duty to inform you that Capt. A. G. Dickey has met the soldier's fate, fallen in battle. He was in command of the skirmish reserve of the regiment, in the engagement on the Darby Road on Thursday, the 13th inst., and was shot through the head about 3 o'clock, p. m. He lived till 4 o'clock this morning, but was unconscious all the time. I have just sent his body to Bermuda Hundred, where it will be embalmed and sent to his mother in Madison county, N. Y. The officers of the regiment claim the privilege of bearing the expense.

Words fail me to express my sorrow, the sorrow of the regiment, at his loss. To know him was to love him. He was Captain of my company, and was at once father and brother to me. As an officer he was one of our best, and though junior Captain, would undoubtedly have been Major in a few months. He was wounded in the arm two weeks ago, but persisted in remaining with his company, as he had done before at after Olustee.

His effects are in my charge. He had some $40 in money. As the officers are almost destitute at present, it will be used to defray the expenses of embalming, and as soon as the regiment is paid, which will be soon, it will be sent to his friends. His valise I will retain till I hear from some of them. I suppose it should go to his mother, but I will do as you advise about it. As you are the only male relative whose address I have, I have written to you, and request that you will break the news to his mother and sister. It will be a terrible shock to them, and I shrink from it. I will write to both, but I would rather they should know it first.

Please write to me at your earliest convenience and advise me what to do with his effects. His sword (presented by his company) is saved, and no doubt will be highly prized by his family.

My deepest sympathy is with all his friends. My own grief is only less than his mother's or sister's, but I have little faculty of expressing it. They have the consolation of knowing that he died in a good cause, and as the proudest soldier would wish to die, if he must. I am, dear sir, Very Respectfully Yours, O. W. MORTON, Lieut. 8th U. S. C. T.

ITEMS.—Thomas Shell, clerk at the railroad station, had his second finger of the right hand badly smashed on Saturday last while coupling two cars. —John Ruble, who is always studying out some gratification for the printers, brought us a number of apples last week, averaging about a foot in circumference. If anybody in the county can beat them, bring 'em along. —We regret to learn that James Clark, Esq., Deputy Collector of U. S. Revenue in this district, died suddenly at his residence in Birmingham on Saturday last. He was a gentleman much esteemed by all who knew him. —Shade mountain has been burning for a week or two, destroying much valuable timber.

PRESBYTERIAN SYNOD.—This body of ministers closed their session yesterday morning, when most of them took a ride on the new railroad to Freedom Iron Works, a place well worth a visit. They were well pleased with their reception here, and grateful for the hospitality extended by our citizens.

For the Gazette. SACRIFICES OF LOYALTY. Mother, let not the loyal son, The soldier, see thy tears; Another's sorrows in thy sad heart, Let him should feel thy fears. Look brave, and calm, and smile on him, As thou hast ever smiled Upon him, through his happy life, Thine own, thy darling child. Sister, with tender heart and true, Happy in bygone year, Beside thy brother thou hast watched, With song and words of cheer. Yes, bid him go with loyal lips, And God will guide and aid, To win on the lonely way, Trusting and undismayed. Thus went he from our homestead, When a rebel war began; Out in the gathering conflict, The mother's darling son; Over the ranks he led the loyal, Proudly our banner swept, Over the ranks of the loyal Freedom her watch-care kept. Hark, from the blood-stained gorges, Hear the voices that plead! Fill up the ranks of the fallen, Help in the nation's need; Come from the homes of splendor, Come from the halls of pride, Come from the lowly cottage, As freemen, side by side. Low down in the grave of treason, In a dishonored tomb, With treacher's banner o'er her, Shall Arnold sound her doom With dirge of clanking fetters? It must, it may not be, Act for your homes and country, O people of the free! Cling to our starry banner; The night is dark and drear, But the far off clouds are breaking, The blessed morning near. And united in the struggle, United in the fight, Our glorious cause shall conquer, And victory crown the right. M.

U. S. 7-30 Loan. THE Secretary of the Treasury gives notice that subscriptions will be received for Coupon Treasury Notes, payable three years from August 15th, 1864, with semi-annual interest at the rate of seven and three-tenths per cent. per annum—principal and interest both to be paid in lawful money.

These notes will be convertible at the option of the holder at maturity, into six per cent gold bearing bonds, payable not less than five nor more than twenty years from their date, as the government may elect. They will be issued in denominations of $50, $100, $500 $1000 and $5000, and all subscriptions must be for fifty dollars or some multiple of fifty dollars. The notes will be transmitted to the owners free of transportation charges as soon after the receipt of the original Certificates of Deposit as they can be prepared. As the notes draw interest from August 15, persons making deposits subsequent to that date must pay the interest accrued from date of note to date of deposit. Parties depositing twenty-five thousand dollars and upwards for these notes at any one time, will be allowed a commission of one quarter of one per cent, which will be paid by the Treasury Department upon the receipt of a bill for the amount, certified to by the officer with whom the deposit was made. No deductions for commissions must be made from the deposits. SPECIAL ADVANTAGES OF THIS LOAN. It is a NATIONAL SAVINGS BANK, offering a higher rate of interest than any other, and the best security. Any savings bank which pays its depositors in U. S. notes, considers that it is paying in the best circulating medium in the country, and it cannot pay in anything better, for its own assets are either in government securities or in notes or bonds payable in government paper. It is equally convenient as a temporary or permanent investment. The notes can always be sold for within a fraction of their face and accumulated interest, and are the best security with banks as collaterals for discounts. Convertible into a 6 per cent. 5-20 Bond. In addition to the very liberal interest on the notes for three years, this privilege of conversion is now worth about three per cent. per annum, for the current rate for 5-20 Bonds is not less than nine per cent. premium, and before the war the premium on six per cent. U. S. stocks was over twenty per cent. It will be seen that the actual profit on this loan, at the present market rate, is not less than ten per cent. per annum. Its Exemption from State or Municipal Taxation. But aside from all the advantages we have enumerated, a special Act of Congress exempts all bonds and Treasury notes from local taxation. On the average, this exemption is worth about two per cent. per annum, according to the rate of taxation in various parts of the country. It is believed that no securities offer so great inducements to lenders as those issued by the government. In all other forms of indebtedness, the faith or ability of private parties, or stock companies, or separate communities, only, is pledged for payment, while the whole property of the country is held to secure the discharge of all the obligations of the United States. While the government offers the most liberal terms for its loans, it believes that the very strongest appeal will be to the loyalty and patriotism of the people. Duplicate certificates will be issued for all deposits. The party depositing must endorse upon the original certificate the denomination of the notes required, and whether they are to be issued in blank or payable to order. When so endorsed it must be left with the officer receiving the deposit, to be forwarded to the Treasury Department. SUBSCRIPTIONS WILL BE RECEIVED BY THE Treasurer of the United States, at Washington, the several Assistant Treasurers and designated Depositories, and by the First National Bank of Philadelphia, Pa. Second National Bank of Philadelphia, Pa. Third National Bank of Philadelphia, Pa. First National Bank of Altoona, Pa. First National Bank of Carlisle, Pa. and by all National Banks which are depositories of public money, and ALL RESPECTABLE BANKS AND BANKERS throughout the country will give further information & AFFORD EVERY FACILITY TO SUBSCRIBERS. August 10, 1864-3m
