

'THE GAZETTE.

LEWISTOWN, PA.
Wednesday, November 16, 1864.
G. & G. R. FRYNSINGER, PUBLISHERS.

The Gazette is the only paper in this part of the State printed on a power press, and has facilities for doing work of all kinds equalled by few. We have three presses in operation—An Adams Power Press for the Paper, a double medium hand press for Jobs, and a Newbury Jobber for Blanks, Cards, &c.

TERMS OF SUBSCRIPTION.
The GAZETTE is published every Wednesday by GEORGE FRYNSINGER & SON, at $1.50 in advance, or $2 at the end of the year.

OFFICIAL RETURNS.—The following are the official returns of the election held in this county on the 8th November:

	Lincoln	McClellan
Lewistown, E. W.	144	111
W. W.	120	107

Derry, 129
Granville, 94
Oliver, 69
McVeystown, 55
Bratton, 65
Wayne, 109
N. Hamilton, 48
Decatur, 85
Brown, 79
Armagh, (old), 124
Armagh, (new), 69
Union, 140
Menno, 100

Peace majority, 87
The soldier vote will be added to the above by the return judges on Friday a week, which will probably give the county to Lincoln and Johnson. When we take into consideration the fact that every species of falsehood was resorted to by the opposition to make votes for the peace at any price party—that money was lavished about on the day of election as if it was a drug—that the entire force of the Janus-faced party was electioneering day and night—this petty majority at home, with the hundreds of Union men absent, shows where they will be when the honest portion of the democracy and others find out, as they surely will, how basely and how treasonably they were belied, for no party has ever yet made more than temporary capital by taking sides AGAINST ITS COUNTRY.

FROM OUR ARMIES.
The rebel attack on Atlanta, made on Monday, the 7th inst., was directed principally upon the 28th and 147th Pennsylvania regiments. The attack was a bold one, and was evidently made on account of the newspaper rumors of the evacuation of Atlanta. Sherman still holds that stronghold securely. Very few citizens are remaining there, and Chattanooga is filled with thousands of refugees.
Information has been received that Major General Canby, whilst ascending White river, Arkansas, on the 7th inst., on the gunboat Cricket, was shot by a guerrilla from the shore, and that the general was severely if not fatally wounded in the groin, the bullet passing through his body.
Gen. Sheridan's cavalry had fights on Friday and Saturday, capturing 2 guns and 150 prisoners.
Gen. Sherman's movements are puzzling the rebels. A great part of his forces are about striking a heavy blow in that region, but whether aimed at the liberation of Union prisoners at Andersonville, Georgia, at Mobile, or an eastward march to the seaboard, a few days will determine.
Fifty-two pieces of cannon and many munitions of war were captured at Plymouth, N. C. by our naval vessels.

—Belmont, the Jew chairman of the Democratic National Committee, lost his vote by proof that he had gambling bets at stake.
—A bear was captured on Black Log Mountain, on Saturday a week, in a pen belonging to Samuel R. Notestine, of Patterson, and Mr. Myers, residing at Black Log Station. He was killed in the pen and dressed 157 pounds.
—We are requested to return thanks to Col. Irwin and T. M. Uttley, Esq., for their able speeches at McVeystown the evening before the election, as the result next day was a Union gain of 12 in McVeystown and 12 in Oliver.

—The great coffee speculator at Rio Janeiro failed some months ago, carrying with him several speculators in our cities. We should be glad to hear that all such hadn't means enough to buy a loaf of bread.
—There is said to be sugar enough stored in the cities to supply the trade for more than a year. May the sheriff sell out every mother's son of 'em.
—Pickles wants to know whether the recent election didn't decide that a nigger was the equal of the copperhead speaker at the meeting in this place who had so much to say on that subject.

WHAT HAVE YOU GAINED?

A Talk with Honest Democrats.
The overwhelming majority by which President Lincoln has been re-elected to the highest office in the gift of this nation, under circumstances without parallel in the history of any country, ought to induce every honest democrat to reflect upon it, and ask himself the question whether there must not have been something wrong among the leaders and teachers of the self-styled democratic party to produce such an extraordinary result? So far as the political aspect was concerned, everything was in their favor, and they did not scruple to use whatever presented itself. There was the "nigger" in all his phases for the knave to harp upon; there were taxes with which to appeal to the cupidity of one class; there were enhanced prices of household use to incite the poor as well as others; there were drafts, arbitrary arrests, suspension of the writ of habeas corpus and other acts incident to a rebellion, all new to the people of this country, with a hundred other matters with which unscrupulous mountebanks and unpatrician office-hunters could appeal to the ignorant, the selfish, the cowardly, and the timorous—yet with all these weapons, freely used too to the very verge of treason, George B. McClellan, a man who under other circumstances might have stood high with the people, is beaten for President as no candidate of any great party was ever beaten before. We ask you in all earnestness why is this so? There must have been a cause, there must have been some powerful motive at work, to produce such a result. Fools may tell you that the election was unfair, but you know they lie. What, then, was the cause? We can tell you and we challenge any honorable man to deny it. Your leaders not only arrayed themselves against the government at a time when its very existence was threatened, but they, with your editors, orators and stump speakers, from the top to the bottom of the ladder, covertly taught and advocated a cowardly peace which they knew would result in the disunion of this nation. Under specious and lying pretenses that the President was violating the Constitution in conducting a war for the Union, they led you on until you appeared to hate the government of your country more than you did the rebellion—they led you on until you no longer took pride that your son was fighting under those glorious stars and stripes which, with all the difficulties of the last four years, at this day are more dreaded by the despots of Europe than any banner on earth—they led you until you no longer looked upon moral treason as a crime, and some of you at least would have sooner heard of a Union defeat than a Union victory—in short, until some began to hate the very sight of that uniform which once was your pride and admiration. Are not these things true, and can you not see in the verdict of the People that these are the causes which have consigned to merited defeat and oblivion the men who got up and fostered this gigantic fraud on the democratic party? What these men would have been willing to do it is difficult to tell, but from their bold advocacy of Calhoun's infamous doctrine of state rights and the sang froid with which they talked of the right of revolution, there is little doubt they belonged to traitorous organizations, and had opportunity presented itself would have made Pennsylvania what Missouri, Kentucky and Tennessee are—scenes of strife, desolation, pillage and murder, and all in the name of "democracy." The Great People, that People whose heart is always right even when their acts are sometimes wrong, have saved you from an impending evil and stamped these Tories with a mark which will grow more vivid with every revolution of the earth. Reflect then on your course, divest yourself of partizan feeling, and stand by your country, for there is too much patriotism, too much intelligence, and too much love of country left to suffer such a set of men as we have spoken of to control its destinies, and until forsaken by that Power which has evidently hitherto made ours a favored land, it never will be given over to them. Your duty then is plain. Give the government your support, for in a time of war you are either for or against it; cheer on your soldiers; by neither word nor deed give aid and comfort to the rebellion; shun the political lepers who have belied and misled you as you would the most venomous serpents—and ere long you will not only have peace but a country of Liberty without Slavery, an institution which made Thomas Jefferson utter the memorable words: "I tremble for my country when I remember that God is just, and that His justice will not sleep forever."

THE ELECTION.

THE MAJORITIES, ACCORDING TO THE LATEST CALCULATIONS.

	Lincoln	McClellan
California,	25,000
Connecticut,	2,481
Delaware,		450
Illinois,	34,000
Indiana,	25,000

—X's reply to the worthy young man and the young mechanic article of the Democrat was received too late for this week's paper.

—The Richmond papers are quite rampant on the election of Lincoln and Johnson. The verdict evidently pinches.

—The recent decline in cotton has smashed up three-fourths of the leading British merchants who had been dabbling with rebel loans. May they rot in poor houses.

NOTICE.

THE Board of Relief, in order to correct the mistaken ideas abroad that ALL families of soldiers are entitled to relief without regard to their means or ability to live, deem it proper to say that the Relief Fund BY LAW was intended to aid those really dependent on the soldier first, until such support was paid off and thus enabled to send home a fair portion of his pay, and secondly, to provide assistance in case families actually stood in need of it. This regulation was extended to all coming under the law, without regard to the heavy bounties lately paid, but as the 12 weeks pay granted has in some cases expired and a continuance is asked, the following regulations are published for public information:

Application.
The undersigned of [name] who enlisted on or about the of 186 [month] deposes that the following are true answers to the questions propounded:
1. What bounty was received by you?
2. What disposition was made of it?
3. What property have you or your [name] ?
4. What was your [name] occupation?
Sworn and subscribed before me, [name] of [name] applicant
A. D. 186 [year] J. P.

Oath of Taxpayers.
The undersigned, residents of [name] in which the above applicant resides, attest that to the best of their knowledge and belief said applicant has no ways or means of making a living without assistance from the Board of Relief.
Sworn and subscribed before me, [name] of [name] signature
A. D. 186 [year] J. P. tax pay.

[The Justice of the Peace before whom the above affidavits are made, is requested to elicit and write down any further information which will enable the Board to act understandingly on the application.]
The Board of Relief is willing and desirous to aid all entitled to relief, but as the surplus fund of last year is nearly exhausted, they deem it their duty to render aid to those only clearly entitled to it.
Applications for renewal of relief will hereafter be made as directed above, blank forms for which can be procured from the undersigned.
By order of the Associate Judges and Commissioners,
GEORGE FRYNSINGER, Sec'y,
Lewistown, Nov. 16, 1864-3t.
