BRATTON. 1. Joseph Botcher 2. Joseph Kauffman It will be well to remember that no extension of time will be granted hereafter beyond appearance day for furnishing substitutes.

The official vote of this county at the late Presidential election is as follows:

Table with columns for candidates (Lincoln, McClellan) and locations (Lewistown, Derry, Granville, etc.) with corresponding vote counts.

Peace majority, 73 The above is the vote for McMichael and Johnson, who headed the respective tickets. The others, with a few exceptions, had 75 majority.

ROBBERIES.—The evil counsels given by copperhead politicians of resisting the due execution of the laws merely because these laws did not meet their views, are producing a natural result in an increase of horse and other thieves to an alarming extent throughout the interior. We hardly open a mail which does not contain an account of some deed of violence, theft, or incendiarism.

In Sinking Valley, Blair county, an individual came in the morning to the residence of Mr. John Crawford, and desired to purchase some stock; but being told by the housekeeper that Mr. C. was away, and that she could not comply with his request, the man took his departure, satisfied, no doubt, that he had gleaned so much information. In the afternoon about three o'clock, the same person renewed his visit, and demanded of the housekeeper a purse belonging to Mr. Crawford. She endeavored to evade the matter, but the wary rogue, suspecting treachery, immediately chased and caught her; tied her hands, and then cast her into a closet, the door of which he closed and fastened upon her. He then went in search of the purse and other valuables in the rooms of the dwelling, having free scope and liberty to effect his nefarious intentions. He obtained the purse, which, fortunately, contained but an insignificant sum, and then struck for other quarters, leaving the housekeeper still confined in the closet. From this confinement she was released by Mr. Crawford's daughter, who had returned from school. So lightly had the villain bound her wrists, that the marks were visible several days after the event.

During the same week and in the same Valley, the house of Mr. Smith Wilson was entered after night, and a trunk taken therefrom. The depredator conveyed the same to an adjoining field, where he opened it and extracted the sum of $300 in specie, as also other valuables, to the amount of $2500. On the night of the 28th of October, the dwelling house of Messrs. William and Collins Hamer, in Porter township, Huntingdon, was entered and robbed of some three hundred dollars in money, clothing, &c.

On Thursday night, 17th inst., the office of the Treasurer of Huntingdon county, was entered and the safe blown open and partially destroyed—the knob and other portions of it striking the ceiling above, and bringing the plastering down in a shower. Otherwise the safe and its contents—with the exception of some fifteen or twenty dollars, all the scamp got for their trouble—were uninjured. None of the papers were disturbed. The millinery establishment of Miss Steinman, in Alexandria, Huntingdon county, was forcibly entered on Sunday evening, 13th inst., while that lady was attending church and some eight hundred dollars in money and a quantity of goods stolen.

It is evident from this list, which could have been largely increased by similar occurrences in other neighboring counties, that persons in the country, as well as in towns, having money or other valuables, cannot be too careful in placing them in safety, as in addition to the ordinary thieves, deserters from the army, draft runaways, rebel spies, and that class who have been taught that there is no wrong in breaking "one law" not to their liking, are abroad, ready for any act of villainy.

ITEMS.—Hunters continue to bring in an occasional deer from different parts of the county. Dr. Belford, Loop, Hughes, &c., returned from Sandy Ridge, on the Allegheny, last week with four.—The Milfin and Centre county R. R. has been doing a fair business thus far, most of our valley visitors coming to Reedsville and then taking a ride on a rail. The Pennsylvania Railroad we hear will assume this branch on the 1st December. J. M. Byers has resigned his post of Civil Engineer on this road, and has taken a position on the Southern Pennsylvania. He is succeeded by F. J. Kimball, Esq.—The Democrat says Dr. Witman, of Granville township, had several ribs broken and sustained other injuries by being thrown out of a buggy.—The Monitor Manufacturing Company has but a small amount of stock unsubscribed, which it is hoped will be taken by our citizens without delay. A meeting of the company is called for on Monday, 12th December.—The Union meeting in the Lutheran church on Thanksgiving day contributed about $70 to the Christian Commission.—Rev. Mr. McMurray delivered a stirring address on temperance in the Town Hall last evening, to a full house.

Married. In this place, on Thursday, Nov. 24th, by Rev. S. Barnes, JOHN M. CRAWFORD to Miss MARY JANE WINN, both of Granville township.

One-third of the purchase money to be paid upon confirmation of sale and the balance in two equal annual payments thereafter, with interest, to be secured with judgment bonds. D. M. CONTNER, Trustee and Commissioner.

NOTICE.

THE Board of Relief, in order to correct the mistaken idea abroad that ALL families of soldiers are entitled to relief without regard to their means or ability to live, deem it proper to say that the Relief Fund by law was intended to aid those really dependent on the soldier, first, until such support was paid off and then, secondly, to provide assistance in case families actually stood in need of it. This regulation was extended to all coming under the law, without regard to the heavy bounties lately paid, but as the 12 weeks pay granted has in some cases expired and a continuance is asked, the follow regulations are published for public information:

Application. The undersigned of who enlisted on or about the of 1864 deposes that the following are true answers to the questions propounded:

- 1. What bounty was received by you?
2. What disposition was made of it?
3. What property have you or your?
4. What was your occupation?
Sworn and subscribed before me, this day of A. D. 1864 name of applicant J. P.

Oath of Taxpayers.

The undersigned, residents of in which the above applicant resides, attest that to the best of their knowledge and belief said applicant has no ways or means of making a living without assistance from the Board of Relief.

Sworn and subscribed before me, this day of A. D. 1864 signature tax payers J. P.

[The Justice of the Peace before whom the above affidavits are made, is requested to elicit and write down any further information which will enable the Board to act understandingly on the application.]

The Board of Relief is willing and desirous to aid all entitled to relief, but as the surplus fund of last year is nearly exhausted, they deem it their duty to render aid to those only clearly entitled to it.

Applications for renewal of relief will hereafter be made as directed above, blank forms for which can be procured from the undersigned.

By order of the Associate Judges and Commissioners. GEORGE FRYNSINGER, Sec'y. Lewistown, Nov 16, 1864-3t.

L. LYONS' PURE OHIO Catawba Brandy,

Sparkling Catawba Wines, Equal in Quality and Cheaper in Price than the Brandy and Wines of the Old World. FOR SUMMER COMPLAINT, CHOLERA INFANTUM, DIARRHOEA, BOWEL COMPLAINT, CRAMP & COLIC. A sure Cure is guaranteed, or the money will be refunded.

IN support of the above statements, are presented the Certificates of Dr. Jas. R. Chilton, Chemist, New York; Dr. Hiram Cox, Chemical Inspector, Ohio; Dr. James R. Nichols, Chemist, Boston; Dr. N. E. Jones, Chemical Inspector, Circleville, Ohio; Prof. C. T. Jackson, Chemist, Boston; Dr. Chas. Upham Shepard, Charleston, S. C.; and J. V. Z. Blaney and G. A. Mariner, Consulting Chemists, Chicago, all of whom have analyzed the Catawba Brandy, and commend it in the highest terms, for medicinal use. Analysis of the Massachusetts State Assayer, January 25, 1858.

When evaporated through clean linen it left no oil or offensive matter. In every respect it is a PURE SPIRITOUS LIQUOR. The oil which gives to this Brandy its flavor and aroma, is wholly unlike fusil, or grain oil. Its odor partakes of both the fruit and oil of grapes. With acids, it produces ethers of a high fragrance. The substitution of this Brandy for Cognac Brandy will do away with the manufacture of fictitious spirits, sold under this name both at home and abroad. Respectfully, A. A. HAYES, M. D., Assayer to State Mass., 16, Boylston St. By the same, in 1864.

I have analyzed "L. Lyons' Pure Catawba Brandy," with reference to its composition and character, being the same as that produced in past years. A sample taken from ten casks afforded the same results with regard to purity; a slightly increased amount of the principle on which its flavor depends was determined by comparison with former samples.

The indications of analysis show that this Brandy is produced by the same process as most of the imported Brandy. Respectfully, A. A. HAYES, M. D. State Assayer, Boston, July 20, '64. 16 Boylston St. Manufactured by H. H. Jacob & Co. (To whom all orders should be addressed.) Depot, 91 Liberty St., New York. nov9 3mos.
