WAR NEWS.

The following extracts from Richmond papers have been received by the department:

The latest official dispatches from Georgia indicate that Sherman has already followed up the occupation of Savannah by sending a force of cavalry, artillery and infantry upon an expedition, whose destinations can only be guessed at from the direction in which it has moved.

Sherman's programme for his grand campaign northward seems to be no secret. He will start from Port Royal, and move straight for Branchville, the point of junction between the Georgian and Carolinian railroads.

Other extracts fully confirm the capture of the Virginia State Salt works by Gen. Burbridge's forces. The place was occupied by our forces on the 20th, and held for three days. The rebel garrison was dispersed or captured, and their artillery taken.

The troops from the Wilmington expedition have returned. There was apparently a want of concert between the navy and army.

The following official account of the capture of Savannah appeared in our extra last week:

Savannah Captured—Despatch from Gen. Sherman—150 Heavy Guns, 13 Locomotives, 190 Cars and 33,000 Bales of Cotton Taken.

Savannah, Ga., Dec. 22, 1864.

To His Excellency President Lincoln:
I beg to present as a Christmas gift the city of Savannah, with 150 heavy guns and plenty of ammunition, and also about 25,000 bales of cotton.

W. T. SHERMAN, Maj. Gen.

STEAMER GOLDEN GATE, SAVANNAH RIVER, Dec. 22—7 p. m.

To Lieut. Gen. U. S. Grant and Major General H. W. Halleck:

I have the honor to report that I have just returned from General Sherman's headquarters in Savannah. I send Major General Gray, of my staff, as bearer of despatches from General Sherman to you, and also a message to the President.

The captures include 800 prisoners, 150 guns, 13 locomotives in good order, 190 cars, a large supply of ammunition and materials of war, 3 steamers, and 33,000 bales of cotton, safely stored in warehouses.

I opened communication with the city, with my steamers, to day, taking up what torpedoes we could see, and passing safely over others. Arrangements are being made to clear the channel of all obstructions.

J. G. FOSTER, Major General.

THE LADY'S FRIEND.—The January number of the Lady's Friend is already on our table, and fully bears out the high reputation of this new monthly, which is now entering upon the second year of its existence.

A festival for the benefit of the scholars of the Lutheran Infant School will be held on Saturday afternoon next, at 2 1/2 o'clock.

For the Gazette.

Messrs. Editors:—I have no desire to trespass upon your patience and time or of your readers, but my attention since my return from the army has been called to an article in the True Democrat, of October 12th, signed by "A Citizen of Armagh," under the caption of "Abolition Meeting in Milroy," in which he uses the following words: "We confess we wondered why he was not in front in these days when soldiers are being hurried to the scenes of war—we had some misgivings that the Lieutenant was not where he should be, if his fighting propensities were as strong as he tried forcibly to impress."

Now, Mr. Editor, in self defence at least, you will permit me to say to you and your readers that I think the occasion demanded that citizens at home and in the field should raise their voices in favor of our nation and its interests, and thus stem the treasonable and perfidious influence exerted by these men, who adhere to the theories of a Benedict Arnold, but unlike his followers are too cowardly to risk life in their defence.

I boast not now and never have boasted of my "fighting propensities," but from infancy was taught to love my country and respect the old flag, and I have perhaps done as much for her as most persons in my circumstances, having two sons in the service, at present before Petersburg, and four out of five brothers. The bones of one of these brothers now moulder on the bloody field of Gettysburg, another is in York hospital, crippled for life.

Saturday Morning.—Report: How can teachers most effectively impart moral instruction to their pupils? by D. H. Zoek. Discussion of report. Class drills.

Afternoon.—Miscellaneous business. Arrangements have been made for the gratuitous entertainment of lady and gentlemen teachers present at the opening of Convention; also for conveying teachers from Reedsville to Belleville on Thursday and back on Saturday.

As an inducement for teachers to attend the Convention, we hope directors will be willing to give them the time. This is but just, especially as their salaries are low. But to teachers we would say, come anyhow. It will richly repay you. No teacher ever regretted having attended a convention. If you want your weapons sharpened, your spirits cheered and refreshed, to gather strength for the arduous duties of the schoolroom, come to the Convention. Come prepared to work—have something to say on the several topics for discussion, and you will certainly go home benefited.
