APPOINTMENT.-Alex. M. Lloyd has been appointed by the Right Worshipful Grand Master of the Grand Lodge of Penna., District Deputy Grand Master for the counties of Cambria, Blair, Huntingdon, Mifflin, Bedford and Fulton-the position having become vacant by the death of John R. Weekes, Esq.

QUOTA. - The quota for this Congressional District, under the late call for 300,000 men, is 2319. The quota for the different Sub-districts has not yet which is navigable for all sorts of vessels, been established. As the enrollment from a canal scow or river barge to the will probably not exceed 8,000, the draft will take two out of four, and allowing for exemptions, one out of of some of its venerable log houses indithree will have to go. This makes a cate. It boasts also of some very fine narrow chance, and if bounties are to modern buildings. I observe one bearing be raised ought te induce a liberal sub-

A three-horse team, belonging to Chas. Stratford, Sen., stopped on the railroad track where it crosses Main street, on Monday evening last, and some one seeing the cars approach, started the horses, who becoming frightened ran up Market street at full speed, but were stopped at Sample's. No damage to wagon or horses.

Mathias Rush, of Oliver township, on last Saturday a week, shot the best shot we have heard of for some time.

The Juniata Sentinel records the distressing death of a young woman, about 18 years of age, named Maria Coder, of Beal township, and daughter of James Coder, a soldier in the 49th Regiment. It appears that she had a pin in her mouth and falling asleep, awoke to find it lodged somewhere in her throat. Medical aid was summoned, but in vain. She lingered for several days and expired, relieved. of carrying pins in their mouths.

OYLTERS .- The editor's family enjoyed a splendid feast on Monday, through the kindness of Mr. D. Grove, who keeps one of the best establishlishments of confectioneries, cakes, fancy articles, groceries, &c. He also receives oysters from below on Tuesdays and Fridays, and can supply them by the quart at a low rate.

For the Gazette Our Base of Supplies. GITY POINT HOSPITAL,)

JAN. 1st, 1865. Messrs. Editors :- I thought I would give you a brief description of the present base of supplies of the army of the Potomac, as it may interest your readers some. City Point is finely located upon an eleva ted plateau on the south bank of the James river, at its confluence with the Appema tox, and is ten miles distant from Petersburg by the railroad, which connects the two places, but which "Johnny Secesh' has not been permitted to use since the unexpected change of base and advent of our forces in front of the latter place last June. The Point is admirably situated for the important military purposes which it subserves, with an excellent river harbor. stately man of war and heavy sea going steamer. The town is one of the most ancient in Virginia, as the moss covered roofs

the date of 1858, formerly inhabited by a family of "F. F. V.'s" but now, by the fortunes of war, appropriated to the use of post Quarter Masters, ordnance officers and other post officials. It was here that the exchange of prisoners between Uncle Sam and tottering Jeff used to be effected, flagof-truce boats being run up from Fortress Monroe for that purpose. In the good old times of peace this was also Richmond's base of supplies, Northern products being brought here by water direct from New York, Baltimore and Philadelphia, and Ice was taken off the Juniata transported from here by rail to Richmond, via Petersburg. It was only for this reason that City Point then had the slightest commercial importance as a trading town suppose the rain has done away with of and within itself it never amounted to anything, the old City Pointers having been obliged to go to Petersburg to buy even a jack knife or a yard of calico. As the base of supplies for the army of the Potomae, it is now an important locality. and the characteristic energy and enter prize of Gen. Grant has transformed the once sleepy old town, as with a magician's wand, into a wonderfully thriving and bustling military port of entry, outrivaling any equal area along the crowded wharves of New York. Thus do the necessities of grim visaged war often outstrip the de mands of peaceful commerce. A splendid wharf of about one-tourth of a mile in ex tent has been built, on which is an extensive and commodious warehouse. The new three wild turkeys with one bullet military railroad now extends some fifteen from a flock of six. This is decidely | miles to our extreme front, and has its ter minus on this wharf. The most of this railroad was built in two weeks, just after the recent move on the left, on the Weldon railroad. A large engine house is nearly completed near the wharf, a big railroad workshop, a large and commodious military hotel for boarding officers of the post during the winter, a huge government bakery, large and ample quarters for the men, a bull pen, where deserters, bounty jumpers and other prisoners are confined, and good quarters for the distribution camp are all just completed, all built of lumber brought from the North. The scene on this wharf on a busy day surpasses any business bustle I ever saw along the wharves of the Em pire City. Military stores of every deno doubt, from the most excruciating scription are being constantly landed, from agony. What adds to the sadness of all descriptions of vessels. Bales of hay, this unexpected death, is the absence bales of straw, wagons, flour, beef, vinegar, salt, potatoes, whiskey, little boxes of hard of both her father and brother in the tack and ammunition for small arms, and army. Women and children should big boxes of military clothing and muskets, be warned against the dangerous habit | besides tents, cannon wheels and everything else, needed by a large army, constantly crowd the long wharf and are being carried to the front. Gen. Grant evidently intends that this shall remain our base of > rangements made. Of course the ubiquitous suttler locates here, and hangs his shingle out. There are plenty of these Yankee Shylocks around, who vend everything eatable or wearable, which may be needed, at prices most extortionate and abominable, the most ordinary huckster of the tribe making more money than the richest merchant in Pennsylvania. On the opposite side of the James is Bermuda Hundred, Gen. Butler's base of supplies for the army operating on the North side supplies for a long time, judging from the compactness and permanency of the arof Richmond. Everything is going on right in the 9th corps hospital. The weather has been very bad the last week, the snow flakes flying here yesterday thick and fast. W. J. WISE.

-On Friday, the 16th of December last, the scholars of Fairview school house, in Fayette township, Juniata county, found a large black snake among the snow, in a stony place near the school house. This is certainly something very unusual.

[WARRANTED FRENCH.] THESE Pills, so celebrated many years ago in Paris for the relief of female ir regularities, and afterward so notorious for their criminal employment in the practice of abortion, are now offered for sale for the first time in America. They have been kept in comparative obscurity, from the fact that the originator, Dr. Velpau, is a physician in Paris of great wealth and strict conscientious principles, and has withheld them from general use, lest they should be employed for unlawfulpurposes. In overcoming Female Obstructions, Falling of the Womb, Whites, Green Sickness. Suppression, Retention or Immoderate Flow of the Monthly Discharges, they seem to be truly omnipotent, bursting open the flood gates from whatever cause may have stopped them; but they are offered to the publie only for legitimate uses, and all agents are forbidden to sell them when it is understood that the object is unlawful. Married ladies should never take them when there is any reason to believe themselves pregnant, for they will be sure to produce a miscarriage. These pills are entirely safe under all circumstances, being composed entirely of substances from the vegetable kingdom. Each box has the coat of arms for the city of Paris stamped on the box, with the words Trade Mark" in French, to counterfeit which is a misdemeanor, and all persons will be dealt with according to law.
