PAYMENT OF SOLDIERS.

We do not much wonder that there is daily manifested a stronger repugnance to enter the army than ever, especially among the poorer classes who have families to leave, for it cannot be disguised that there is something radically wrong in the total want of system to pay off the troops. There are occasions of course when, from the nature of the service or the situation they are in, some reasonable excuse can be made for a delay, but there is and can be none for keeping men out of their just dues when access can be daily had. Thousands in the service have families at home who were dependent on their daily labor for support, and but for the belief that they would be promptly paid would never have entered it voluntarily. As the case stands, these families have been thrown on the relief fund, and the taxpayers are thus compelled to pay thousands annually through the neglect of those having this matter in charge.

All this is wrong, shamefully wrong. No officer of the government from the President down—no officer of the army—no member of Congress—no Judge of any court—nor any employee in a civil capacity—ought to be paid a single dollar until every soldier in the field, in fort, in hospital, or wherever stationed, HAS BEEN PAID OFF IN FULL, and these payments ought to be made at least once in three months. When such a system is inaugurated, much of the difficulty now encountered in volunteering would be avoided, and even a draft shorn of its greatest dread to the poor man, for he would at least feel that in a few months he could gladden the hearts of those left at home by sending them two-thirds or more of his pay.

DRAFT ORDERS.

Another subject of great complaint and a source of much discontent, is the manner in which business is conducted in the Provost Marshal General's office. Dealing directly with the people by holding the power of calling them in to service when a draft is ordered, great care ought undoubtedly to be exercised in all that is done. Yet who can read the announcement made in the Governor's Message that the quota of this State under the call for 300,000 men was 66,999, or the recent order that surplus men would not be credited, and not feel conscious that there is a great want of common sense in those who made these announcements. It is true that officer has already backed down from his numbers, and we also hear it said the obnoxious order is not properly understood; but if so, it only proves what we assert, for any school-boy could have told in five minutes that 67,000 could not be the just quota of this State, and that the order for not crediting surplus men on former calls is wrong. We know nothing about the head of that office beyond his official transactions, but taking these for a data the conclusion is irresistible that he is not the right man in that place, or that he trusts matters of vital interest to the people to some incompetent or self-important subordinate.

These things, comprising but a few of many, are public wrongs; and we believe it is time our Legislature should, by joint resolution, instruct our Senators and members of Congress to call in a body on the President, lay these grievances before him, and solicit him as Commander-in-Chief to see that the soldiers are paid off, and that the Provost Marshal's orders on subjects affecting so many interests be first sent to him or some other sensible man for approval before they are made public.

A pictorial double number of the Phenological Journal and Life Illustrated, for January, appears with 32 quarto pages, and a beautiful illustrated cover. It contains portraits of Tennyson, Silliman, Sheridan, Cobb, Phillips, Susanna Wesley—mother of John—an Indian Chief, Franz Muller, Miss Muggins, Miss Fury, the Princess of Wales, Florence Nightingale, A Group of Warriors—Hannibal, Julius Caesar, Pizarro, Cromwell, Charles XII, Frederick the Great, Scott, Wellington, and Napoleon—with Ethnology, Phenology, Physiognomy, Physiology, and Psychology. No. 1, Vol. 41. Published at 20 cents a number, or $2.00 a year, by Messrs. Fowler & Wells, 389 Broadway, New York.

F. P. Blair was at Richmond last week, but whether on a private or public mission is unknown.

Among the exempt in Lake City, Minn., we notice the name of M. Johns, formerly of this place.

Edward Everett, the distinguished statesman and orator, died last week quite suddenly.

The New York Herald speaks quite favorably of Capt. Dick Parker of this city, who is a mustering officer in that city.

Missouri has become a free State. Tennessee has also in convention abolished slavery, and Brownlow has been nominated for Governor.

A democratic exchange thinks it would be as well if no democrats were in Congress or the Legislature, as the majority does as it pleases. From this it would seem it is no longer democratic for the majority to rule.

Maj. Gen. Butler has been relieved from his command and ordered to report at Lowell, Mass. We have no knowledge as to the cause, and for one we read the news with regret, for we have always regarded him as a scourge to the rebels, and withal an ardently loyal man.

In the Senate Mr. Hall is on the Committee on Federal relations, Judiciary, Estates and Escheats; Mr. Haines on Election districts, Public printing, New counties, and County seats. In the House Mr. Balsbach is on the Committee on Railroads, to Compare Bills, chairman on Public buildings; Mr. Swoope on Military affairs, Claims, Accounts, and New counties, and County seats.

Boyer from Clearfield, the same we presume who had such a good memory when he wanted to make it appear that Gen. Cameron had attempted to bribe him, showed by his attack last week on the Harrisburg clergy that his "memory bump" is rather small. Verbum sat.

The Senatorial Election in Dorchester County, Md.—We are informed that at the election for State Senator, in place of Holland, resigned, the candidates being Dr. Carroll, Union, and Dr. Green, opposition, Carroll was elected by 225 majority. This gives a Union majority in the Senate, a result which smoothes the way for much needed sound legislation in the State.

During the past year a company has been engaged in putting a well down in Chicago in search of oil. The result was that on Wednesday last they struck a subterranean lake of water at the depth of seven hundred and two feet, which has since been running over the top at the rate of four hundred gallons per minute. It has produced great excitement in Chicago.

The Selingsgrove Times has a mournful article, copied from a New York rebel sheet, on the cruel treatment the rebel prisoners are receiving from our government. Starving Union prisoners no doubt is all right with the Times, but not to feed rebels with turkey, chicken, oysters stewed, fried or roasted, pound cake, &c., is horrible!

The newly elected copperheads in the Senate of this State, headed by Heister Clymer of Berks, attempted the old game of not recognizing the Speaker elected at the close of the last session, and wanted a protest entered before they were sworn. The majority of the Senate however very properly decided that they were not members until sworn in, and therefore had no right to speak or offer business. This summary way of disposing of a copperhead idea rather took the snakes aback, and they took the oath.

Sad Family Afflictions.—Several sudden deaths lately occurred in the family of Peter Levan, of Locust township, Columbia county. On Thursday a week two of his daughters—one nearly grown up, the other smaller, took suddenly sick and in a short time were dead. On Saturday his wife and another child were taken with similar symptoms, which likewise proved fatal in a few hours. The family of Wm. and Rebecca Earhart, of North Codorus township, York county, has been painfully afflicted with diphtheria. In the short space of nineteen days, four of Mr. E.'s children have been swept into eternity.

THIRD ANNUAL REPORT

OF THE

Mifflin and Centre County R. R.

January 9, 1865.

In accordance with the 17th section of the General Railroad Law of this Commonwealth, the President and Directors of the Mifflin and Centre County Railroad Company submit to the stockholders the following report:

When the report of last year was made to the Stockholders, we expected that before the time for another annual meeting we would be able to announce the completion of our road to Milroy, but a number of unforeseen events have united in preventing the fulfillment of our expectations. The difficulty of obtaining labor, and the large advance in wages and in the cost of materials, have retarded the completion of the work, and increased its cost. We are however pleased to be able to inform the stockholders that the grading of the road has been completed to Milroy, and the rails have been laid as far as Reedsville, seven miles from the point of connection with the Pennsylvania Railroad at the Lewistown station. And although the road has not yet been regularly opened for general business, yet the engineer having placed on the road a construction train, for transporting materials, and in connection therewith a car or cars for passengers, and transported freight cars to and from the Pennsylvania Railroad, the amount of business so done, with very imperfect facilities, is sufficient to show that the road is likely to surpass the highest expectations of its friends in the extent of the business to be transacted upon it.

In a few days we expect to have completed a lease to the Pennsylvania Railroad Company, when the road will be formally opened for the transportation of freight and passengers, and we doubt not that under the management of that company the business of the road will be largely increased.

In regard to the early completion of the road to Milroy, we are sorry to say that our expectations are not very sanguine. By our agreement with the Pennsylvania Railroad Company we were to pay to that company the sum of twenty-five thousand dollars, ($25,000), and to secure the right of way and pay all damages to property; and the Pennsylvania Company agreed to cash our bonds to the amount of one hundred thousand dollars ($100,000). At the time this agreement was made (1862) this amount ($125,000) was considered amply sufficient to finish the road, with all the necessary buildings, &c., to Milroy. Owing however to the great increase in prices, we have already expended more than that amount, leaving still about five and a half miles of road to be finished. The Pennsylvania Company have advanced nearly twenty thousand dollars ($20,000) beyond the one hundred thousand ($100,000) they agreed to pay, and are not disposed to proceed any further in the work, unless the people who are most interested in the road are willing, by additional subscription of stock, to aid in its completion. This we think they are called upon to do, and with the data furnished by the operations of last few weeks, we feel no hesitation in urging them to subscribe to the stock, not only in order to secure the completion of the road to Milroy, but as a safe and profitable investment of their money.

The whole cost of the road to Milroy with all the necessary buildings, depots, water stations, &c., will be about two hundred thousand dollars ($200,000). The interest on this sum at 6 per cent. would be $12,000 00. Allow 50 per cent. of receipts for expenses, this would require an annual receipt of say 24,000 00. Or a weekly receipt of 461 54. Now the receipts for the week ending Dec. 31, 1864, were:

For passengers	$228 25
For freight	162 00
And for the week end'g Jan. 7, '65
For passengers	197 80
For freight	192 50
A weekly average of	$390 30
being very nearly sufficient to pay all expenses and six per cent. on the whole cost of the road to Milroy, and this with very inadequate facilities for business, without computing the large increase of business which would follow the opening of the road to Milroy, and also without counting anything for mails, Express Co. freight or bridge toll, which latter items may very reasonably be estimated to yield at least $2,600 per annum, or $50 per week. Adding this amount to the average weekly receipts of the last two weeks, we have already very nearly the amount required to pay all expenses and six per cent. on the whole cost of the road.

The total cost of the work as far as it has progressed is as follows:
Chargeable to gradation and masonry	$34,283 18
" bridge superstructure	40,775 31
" roadway	74,283 37
" depots and stations	405 99
" engineering and expense	7,884 89
" land damages and incidentals	4,539 40
	$162,261 43

To complete the road as contemplated to Milroy, will require an additional outlay of from twenty to thirty thousand dollars. In view of the importance of finishing the road to that point, we would urge all the friends of our enterprise to unite in subscribing to the stock of the company, feeling satisfied that in that event the benefit of the road will be secured and that the investment will be both safe and profitable.

Respectfully submitted,
SAMUEL MACLAY,
President.

WAR NEWS.

Capture of Fort Fisher, 2500 Prisoners and 72 Guns.

We have official intelligence this morning of the capture of Fort Fisher by assault on last Sunday afternoon. After three hours of a heavy navy fire, the assault was made at 3 p. m., on the 15th. Gen. Curtis's brigade led, and as soon as it got on the west end of the land front, was followed by Pennington's and later Bell's. After desperate fighting, gaining foot by foot, and with severe loss, at 5 p. m., we had possession of about half the land front. Abbott's brigade was then taken from our line facing Wilmington, and put into Fort Fisher, and on pushing it forward, at 10 p. m. it took the rest of the work with little resistance.

Postmasters are obliged to receive all Treasury notes for stamps and postages, if clearly genuine, no matter how torn or defaced they may be, provided one twentieth part thereof be not missing—and fractional currency, if not one tenth part be missing. Such notes and currency as are unfit for re-issue should be kept separately and distinct, and returned, as occasion requires, to the Treasury of the United States, Washington, in sums of not less than three dollars, to be exchanged for new.

Hon. Thaddeus Stevens was urged, by his Republican colleagues of Pennsylvania in Congress, to allow his name to be used as a candidate for appointment in the Cabinet. To this kindly offer the veteran legislator interposed a firm objection, on the ground of having no aspiration for such a position.

The Lungs.—The cold and changeable weather tells terribly on those who have weak and diseased lungs. Many are suffering at this time with affections of the throat and lungs. Bronchitis is becoming a very common affliction. Those who are predisposed to Colds, Coughs, Bronchitis, &c., should avoid the night air. There are many preparations recommended for these diseases, but there is not a doubt that Dr. Strickland's Mellowing Cough Balsam is the best remedy. We have known it to effect cures in the worst cases of Coughs, Colds, Bronchitis, Asthma, and primary cases of Consumption. 1
