RECIPES.

A Simple Remedy .- A New Hampshire gentleman says: "Take 2 large tablespoonsful of cologne and 2 tea spoonsful of fine salt, mix them together in a small bottle: every time you have any acute affection of the facial nerves, or neuralgia, simply breat! fumes in your nose from the bottle. and you will be immediately relieved.

Cookies .- Four teacups of flour, rub in two teacups of sugar, one of butter, two-thirds cup of butter-milk, 1 egg, nutmeg, soda.

Puff Cake. - Six eggs, six cups of flour, four of sugar, two of sweet milk, nine ounces of butter, four teaspoons of cream of tartar, two of soda.

Wine Souce - A pint of wine, a half teacup of butter, and enough sugar to make it into a syrup, with or without flavoring essences.

Cold Sauce .- Beat up fresh butter and powdered sugar to a cream, flavor with nutmeg and any essence. This is used with hot cake.

Care of llogs in the Winter.

Store hogs especially shoats, really ought to have warm and dry apart ments during cold weather. Their thin protection of hair affords them but little warmth, hence the importance of warm pig sties, well littered with dry straw, and so tight that cold winds will not blow directly on them. It is far more economical to keep the ani mais warm in a snug, well ventilated piggery than by extra feed, and this will promote faster growth, if they are kept comfortably warm by a good building. When a piggery is spacious, with one end open to the weather so that winds make their sleeping places uncomfortably cold, a portion should, be partitioned off with boards having their edges well jointed, and a narrow entrance made at the point least exposed. Then nail a board six or eight inches high across the bottom of the entrance to keep the straw from being worked out. Let a liberal supply of straw always be provided.
