

EDUCATIONAL.

J. K. HARTZLER, Belleville, Michigan County, Editor.

To the friends of Public Schools.

By the action of the Mifflin County Teacher's Association at McVeytown, the undersigned has been elected to conduct the Educational Column...

We are a firm believer in the doctrine that every child born into the world has as much right to knowledge and culture as to sunshine and air...

By a unanimous vote the teachers of the county signified their willingness to extend their aid in maintaining the Educational Column...

J. K. HARTZLER, BELLEVILLE, February 3, 1866.

Our New Text Books.

As the directors of Mifflin county have decided to introduce a uniform series of text books throughout the entire county...

A well selected series of books in a single school is indispensable in order to classify the pupils and to make teaching effective...

Uniformity of text books throughout the county is as easy to be had as in a single district...

As regards the manner of introducing those books adopted, we are of the opinion that the cheapest and fairest way would be to purchase the books at once...

This would also protect the teacher from the difficulties he must encounter if the introduction is made gradual...

WE have just returned from the city with a full and splendid stock of Fall and Winter Goods...

THE QUAKER CITY BUSINESS COLLEGE

N. E. cor. Tenth and Chestnut Streets, PHILADELPHIA.

THE most complete and thoroughly appointed Business or Commercial College in the country. The only one in the city possessing a Legislative Charter, and the only one in the United States authorized to confer Degrees of Merit. Diplomas awarded to graduates in the Commercial Course under its corporate seal by authority of law. Conducted by gentlemen of liberal education and extensive experience in business, and affording unequalled advantages for the thorough theoretical and practical education of young men in the various duties and employments of business life. THEORY AND PRACTICE COMBINED by a system of ORIGINAL AND PRESENTLY PRACTICAL, giving the student in the shortest time a complete insight into the routine, details, custom and forms of business as generally conducted in the best-regulated commercial and business establishments.

Theoretical Bookkeeping

Upon a new plan, with an original exposition of the science of accounts, arranged and published by the proprietor of this Institution, exclusively for its own use, saving one-half the ordinary labor of the student, and giving him a complete knowledge of the practice of the best modern establishments.

The Commercial Course

Bookkeeping, Commercial Arithmetic, Penmanship, Business Correspondence, Commercial Law, Letters on Business Affairs, Commercial Customs, Foreign and Domestic Business Practice, Special Branches.

Algebra and the Higher Mathematics, Phonography, Commercial Penmanship, the Art of Intelligible Conversation, Money, English, French, German, Spanish, Italian and Telegraphy.

Telegraphing

The arrangements for telegraphing are far in advance of anything of the kind ever offered to the public. A regular Telegraph Line is connected with the Institution, and students are enabled to receive instruction in the use of the telegraph in various parts of the city, where public business is transacted, and in which the students of this Institution are permitted to practice. No regular office practice can be had in any other school of instruction in the country, and in which no one can obtain a position as a practical operator. Young men are cautioned against the deceptive representations of those who, without any such facilities, pretend to teach Telegraphing.

Patronage

This Institution is now enjoying the largest patronage ever bestowed upon any commercial school in the State. Over five hundred students were in attendance the first year, and over seven hundred during the past year. The best class of students may invariably be found here, and all its associations are first-class.

Location and Accommodations

The Institution is located in the most central part of the city, and its accommodations for accommodation and convenience are unsurpassed. All the rooms have been fitted up in the very best style with the latest improvements in furniture, and are furnished with every requisite for the comfort and convenience of the student. TELEGRAPH OFFICES, STATIOnARY STORE AND A DEPOSIT AND ISSUE, supplied with finely engraved lithographic notes used as a circulating medium in the Department of Actual Business.

To Young Men

who desire the very best facilities for a Practical Education for Business, we guarantee a course of instruction no where else equalled, while the reputation and standing of the Institution among business men make its endorsement the best passport to success and advancement. All contemplating entering any Commercial College, are invited to send for an
