LOCAL AFFAIRS.

Washington's Birthday, 22d inst., passed by without any public demonstration on the part of our citizens.

Good Templars.—A second Lodge of this order was organized in this place on Friday evening last.

The membership of the old Lodge is still increasing, and when the new one gets fairly under way, the combined forces will make king alcohol tremble.

- W. C. T.—O. McClean, V. T.—Marion Denton, S.—F. E. McJury, T.—Wm. M. Tainsbaker, C.—W. D. Jones, A. S.—Geo. R. Frynsinger, P.—S. J. W. Woods, J.—Scott Beaman, A. M.—Kate Parker, L. G.—Stollie McJury, H. G.—W. Reed, H. H.—S. Maggie Ross, L. H.—S. S. M. Milliken.

The State Tax.—The Commissioners we learn have made, or intend to make, application to the Legislature to authorize them to collect the three mills assessed for State purposes, which has been released by the legislature, and appropriate the same to county purposes.

The Democrat says a new post office, to be called "Granville," has been established on the Pennsylvania Railroad, at Brought's crossing, about four miles above this place.

Butchers at Market.—Messrs. Heister and Spaulding commenced attending market under the Town Hall on Saturday morning, and purpose continuing the business on Tuesday, Thursday, and Saturday mornings.

The Saloon under the Red Lion Hotel has been altered and refitted throughout, and now presents a more attractive appearance than any establishment of the kind in town.

The Ladies' Mite Society hereby tender their sincere thanks to a generous public for its very liberal patronage of the recent festival held for the benefit of the M. E. Church.

The Representative Conference met in this place on Thursday last and appointed Col. J. J. Patterson of Juniata and C. S. Baker of Huntingdon, Representative Delegates to the Union State Convention.

The Senatorial Conference of the opposition party met in Huntingdon on Monday, 12th, and elected R. Milton Spear, Esq., of that place and Dr. Milliken of Perry, Delegates to the State Convention to be held March 5th.

A box containing ashes, at Daniel Albright's residence, in Derry township, took fire, a few days ago, but was discovered before damage was done.
