.... The Deserters' Candidate for Governor.

There are many strange things transpiring nowadays, giving room for special wonder, and among these may be classed the deliberate act of Hiester Clymer and eleven of his copperhead friends in the Senate of Pennsylvania, in entering a protest against an act to deprive deserters of the right of voting. A few years ago these same men and their friends decided that soldiers could not vote in the army; the republican Union men immediately passed an act amending the constitution allowing soldiers to vote, which was bitterly opposed by the Brown township democracy here and elsewhere. Next Congress passed an act disfranchising deserters, and then these copperhead gentlemen declared that Congress had no such power, as States only could regulate the elective franchise. Taking them at their word, the Judiciary Committee of the Pennsylvania Senate reported a bill carrying out the act of Congress so fairly, that it is difficult to imagine with what reason any one could object to it. In proof of this we annex two of its sections: Sec. 6. That a certified copy or extract see, 6. That a certified copy or extract of any such record, [official list of desert-ers,] from the clerk of a court of quarter sessions of this Commonwealth, shall be prima facia evidence, before any election board, of the fact of desertion and consequent disability and disqualification and conse-elector: Provided, That if any person shall wilfully use or present any false, fraudulent or forged paper, purporting to be a certified copy or extract as aforesaid he shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and, on conviction thereof shall be punished as misdemeanors are now by law punishable: And provided, however, That if, by the production of a certificate of his honorable discharge, it shall appear that such person, so offering to vote that such person, so offering to vote. in the military service of the United States before and at the time of his being drafted into such service, and thereupon tailing to report, or in case of the fact of describin appearing, by certified copy of his company roll, if it shall appear that he was atterwards acquitted thereof and honorably discharged, such proof shall be received as evidence to disprove his said disgualification; And provided further, That if any person liable to be objected to as disqualified as aforesaid shall produce before my heard of election officer. before any board of election officers, any false or fraudulent paper purporting or pretending to be his honorable discharge from the United States service, he shall be deamed critiku of a force view. be deemed guilty of a forgery, and on con-viction thereof, shall be punished as persons are now by law punishable for forge-TV. See. 7. That it shall be the duty of the judges and inspectors of elections hereaf-ier to be held in this Commonwealth, whenever the name of any person offer-ing to them a ballot or ballots, shall be found upon a certified copy, or extract, furnished from said rolls, or records, by a clerk of a court of quarter sessions, marked as a deserter, or whenever any person shall be objected to as disqualified, as aforesaid, at any election, by any qualified voter, at the request or suggestion of such person, so offering a ballot, to examine such person, on oath or affirmation, as to the fact appearing from such certificate or alleged against him by the elector so objecting, and if he deny it, as to his reasons thereof: Provided, however, That if any of his answers under such examina-tion are false, such person shall be deem-ed guilty of the crime of perjury, and, upon conviction thereof, he shall be pun-ished, as persons are now punishable by law for perjury. law, for perjury.

boards are authorized to examine the case and receive testimony, and that even the A Robber Kills one Child with a Bible, person charged with desertion can be sworn in his own case, yet Hiester Clymer and his associates not only voted against this bill, but put upon record their protest against such laws, and thus place them-selves in the unenviable light of being the aiders, defenders, abettors and apologists of skulking deserters! Soldiers, what think you of the deserters' candidate for Governor?

The bill passed the Senate on the 16th instant by the following vote :

and Beads two more until he Supposed them Dead, with a Smoothing Iron, is Arrested and makes a Confession.

A terrible tragedy occurred on the 7th Todd, being absent for a short time from house, on their return, were horrorstricken to find all three of their children stretched upon the floor, as if in a dying condition, and weltering in blood. The alarm was given to the neighbors, who all turned out in arms, on foot and horseback, scouring the country in search of the author of the horrible deed. The youngest child has died from the injuries received, but the other two may possibly recover. Late on the evening of the murder, the oldest child recovered suffi-ciently to tell the name of the author of the terrible act. His name is Wash. Sage. It was but a short time after this was known that the scoundrel was secured. It appears that when the children came into the house they found Sage ransacking it. He immediately seized a Bible lying near, with which he knocked the smallest child in the head. He then grasped a smoothing iron and with it and a pistol which he held in his hand, he beat all three of them until he suppos they were dead, and then left with his booty for his home only three-quarters of a mile distant, where he was found. Upon being taken into custody, he made a full confession. He has always been a bad man, and his father before him was a terror to the neighborhood, and he is be-lieved to be the one who attempted to kill Wiley White some time ago. He had been arrested for barn burning and des-troying hay stacks. The murderer is now confined in the Vernon jail.

..... BOOK NOTICES.

BOOK NOTICES. IN THE ATLANTIC MONTHLY for April will be found several articles of particular interest. The first article is an account of the last days of the ven-erable poet, Walter Savage Landor, by one who knew him intumately, and is the first of a series of articles giving glimpses of the old man of Florence during the years 1859.'60 and '61. Passages from Hawthorne's Note-Book are continued. John Foster Kirk, author of "Charles the Bold," contributes an essay on Sainte Beave, editor of die Reue des Deux Mondes, and one of the prominent hierary men of France at the pres-ent time. Under the tutle of "A Struggle for Shelter," Miss C. P. Hawes discusses the tribulations which be-set all who are so unfortunate as to live in these times of high press.

set all who are so unfortunate as to live in these times of high prices. Nev. G. Roxmolis, in a paper of remarkable power, sets for h the causes which impelled the recent out-break in Jamaica, and vividly describes the horrible massacres which followed. Mrs. Stowe, from her Chimney, discourses on the proprieties of dress. On the political situation. The Atlantic has a word to say, and a paper of no little pungency, discurses the issue between Congress and the President. For light read-ing, it offers the continuation of Dector Johns and Griffith Gaunt and Madame Waldoborough's Carriage, by J. T. Trowbridge. For the Gazette. Dr. Rothrock, over the signature of "Justice," publishes a certificate in your paper of the 14th signed by Thomas Fritz, representing that I de ceived him as to the character of the paper I presented him for signature, and the same published in your paper of the 28th of February, the object being to elicit the name of the author of the article assailing the character and conduct of the Directors of Mattawana Bridge Company. This assumption of any attempt on my part to deceive Mr. Fritz is wholly untrue, and I doubt if he (Fritz) knew what kind of a paper he was signing when he put his name to that certificate .-Mr. Fritz, in conversation with other persons, has spoken freely of the contents of the paper of the 28th of February, proving certainly that he did know its purport and object. Mr. W. M Knepp was present when the paper was signed, and I ask you in justice to me to publish his affidavit, which ac-is hard to account for the certificate of Mr. Fritz on any other ground than that either Justise, alias Dr. Rothrock, has misrepresented its character to Mr. Fritz, or his (Fritz's) association with that hero of the parchment has not tended to elevate the standard of his veracity. C. P. DULL.

BELLEVILLE, MARCH 22, 1866. MR. EDITOR :- In the "Untrue Democrat" dated Lewistown, Wednesday evening, March 21st, 1866, I find a short article, which being without signature, I suppose to have been written by the editors of said paper, in which, after quoting a couple of extracts from the remarks of Messrs. Wade and Wilson in the U.S. Senate on the 14th inst., the writer makes the following comment: "There, 'soldiers of the Union,' is the kind of recognition you get from the leaders of the 'loyal' party. You are only about as good as niggers generally, but many of you become traitors; which niggers never do, and that enables them 'to bear off the palm' upon all occasions. Now who are the abusers, the calumniators of the soldier, Messrs. Wade and Wilson, or the editors of the Democrat, for even if the latter did not write the article refered to, they published it, and that is just as bad; and what is still worse, at the head of the very column in which this piece occurs, appears the name of Hiester Clymer as a candidate for the gubernatorial chair of Pennsylvania. Of course these men must have a large amount of sympathy and love for the "soldiers of the Union" who advocate the cause of Hiester Clymer, the man who would not vote "a man or a dollar" for the further prosecution of the war, who opposed all the measures of the general government, who voted against any relief for the families of soldiers, who reviled and abused us, and persecuted our families while we were far away and unable to defend ourselves or them, yet who would now wheedle and caress us, and if such a thing were possible, would make us believe that he, the bitter opposer of all that was just, right, honest and patriotic, is just the man for Governor. Very consistent indeed are Hiester Clymer and his editorial friends, and true is the old adage which says, "Drowning men will grasp
