The tax duplicates are not yet out. The commissioners we think committed a great error in not at once recalling the duplicates and striking off the three mills State tax. Had this been done, it would have saved the expense of borrowing several thousand dollars-in itself a questionable legal act; would have enabled them to pay several thousand dollars of indebtedness, and left a sum in the treasury sufficient to meet all ordinary expendi- tion such measures as may be deemed tures. Capital has now sought interest, necessary to keep houses, yards, outfarmers are getting busy, and we doubt whether even the 5 per cent. deduction will bring in one-half the sum that would
