Sanitary Meeting.

In pursuance of a call issued by the Chief Burgess, a number of citizens assembled at the Town Hall on Friday evening, April 27, for the purpose of seconding the efforts of the Town Council in putting our borough into as cleanly a condition as possible. Wm. P. Elliott, Esq., was appointed chairman; Ephraim Banks and Joseph Milliken, Esqrs., Vice Presidents; and George Frysinger Secretary.

The object of the meeting having been stated, the following resolution was offered by Wm. H. Weber, which elicited some debate, Messrs. Weber, Hamilton, Sigler, Zerbe, Uttley, Brisbin, and others participating:

Resolved, That the Burgess and Town Council be and are hereby requested effectually to cleanse the streets, lanes and alleys of this borough, and remove all filth therefrom without delay.

The following was offered by George Frysinger as an additional resolution to Mr. Weber's and by him accepted:

Resolved, That the Borough be divided into Health Wards, each two squares, as near as may be, to constitute a ward, and that a committee of three for each be appointed—the Burgess and Town Council to be chairmen of said committees as far as they may reach—for the purpose of visiting every house and premises in such wards, and if found in an unhealthy condition to report the same to the Chief Burgess; and the President and Vice Presidents of this meeting appoint said committees and announce the same in the newspapers.

The first resolution, after some explanations, was adopted with a few dissenting votes, and the second with a single negative.

A resolution was then adopted requesting the Council to rescind the ordinance relative to swine running at large, on the ground that they are good scavenger committees. [We know that they are good at rooting up gutters, and making mud holes, and if no filth is allowed on public grounds this pretext won't hold good.—Ed Gazette.]

COMMITTEES.

From centre of Main to centre of Grand, and all between north side of W. Market to Borough limits—John A. Boyer, E. Banks, Andrew Reed.

From centre of W. Market street to creek and from centre of Main street to river bank—Aaron Elliott, Dr. T. A. Worrall, R. H. M'Clintic.

All that part of the Borough across the creek—S. J. Brisbin, Wm. P. Elliott, D. W. Woods.

All west of centre of W. Market street—George Miller, Judge Turner, G. W. Elder.

South side of Valley street, down Dorcas to creek—H. Zerbe, W. H. Weber, J. F. Hamaker.

North side of Valley street to Dorcas and up to Ridge—J. C. Sigler, A. Felix, Daniel Tice.

From Dorcas to Main and down to Market, two squares north—John Dipple, John Davis, N. J. Rudisill.

From Dorcas to Main streets, south to the creek—T. M. Uttley, F. G. Franciscus, R. W. Patton.

These committees are requested to commence their duties on the 10th of May, or as soon thereafter as may be convenient.

The river bridge had a narrow escape from destruction by fire on Wednesday afternoon last. A locomotive with a heavy train came across, which of course required more than ordinary power to overcome the grade, and in addition to a dense smoke, scattered fire too large for sparks through the bridge. One of these lodged on the timbers below where the weather-boarding commences, but had not acquired headway when Mr. Dafur passed the second span, so that he could have seen it through the smoke. Fortunately Mrs. D. was standing near the bridge, and seeing a flickering of flame, ran to the spot and did her best with her skaker in getting water from a tub to extinguish it. A powerful draught however sent the flames up several feet, and had Mr. D., who heard her alarm when at the farther end of the bridge arrived a few minutes later it would have been in flame to the roof. The least the railroad company can do in this case is to furnish Mrs. D. with a new bonnet, for she undoubtedly earned it.

The fires which have already taken place show that an imperative necessity exists for using good spark catchers and using a great deal of care in running through the borough limits, for if a fire were to break out in Water street with a high southern or southwest wind, there is no telling where the destruction of property would end.

Charley Dalby has opened a spendid Ice Cream Saloon in the old Odd Fellow's building, where ice cream and cakes can be had to perfection. Of course there will be a rush for his ice cream, &c.

The convention of School Directors yesterday elected Martin Mohler, the present incumbent, County Superintendent, and increased his salary to $800.

We are pleased to learn that Samuel Haffly, of Belleville, who served as Lieut. in the 131st and afterwards in the same position in the 205th Pa. regiment, has been appointed messenger to Gen. Hartranft, Auditor General.

A meeting of about a dozen patent democrats was held in the Town Hall on Saturday evening to form a Johnson policy club. It was no doubt held pursuant to orders from Cowan, and a few days will probably let us know who is after office. We would suggest that the club procure a barrel of old rye, and send it on, as it might vastly increase its influence.

The Oil City, Venango, Petroleum, Bk. of Crawford county, and Tioga, are not received on deposit at Russell's Banking House. The Tioga is good, but the public seem averse to take it. Petroleum and Venango will be redeemed by the Auditor General from the sale of bonds.

The officers of the National Banks at Jersey Shore, Williamsport, Milton, Muncy, Northumberland, Danville, Bloomsburg, Selinsgrove, Plymouth, Sunbury, and Lewisburg, have agreed not to pay out anything but legal tender or National bank notes after the 1st June.

Another serious row occurred on Saturday night, which resulted in shamefully beating and abusing Mr. Cox, superintendent of the gas works, by a number of young men, who no doubt were drunk as usual. The general version of the affair is that they were at Smith's lager beer house, next door to Cox, and on coming out behaved very badly, whereupon Mr. C. told them to leave, as no one in the house could sleep. He finally came down, and on coming out of the house was assailed by the party, dreadfully beaten, and left half dead on the canal bank. A few have been arrested and bound over. It is full time to do something towards punishing such offenders, and also to break up sundry holes about town which seem to be the main source of these outrages.

The election in Snyder county on the question of removing the county seat from Middleburg to Selinsgrove, resulted in favor of the former place by a large majority, to wit:

A writer in the Selinsgrove Times says the Tariff, not Slavery, was the original cause of Secession. Truth will sometimes leak out.

Senator Trumbull has shown up the two Johnsons, Andy and Reverdy, as inconsistent as diametrical opposition can be.

The Democrat quotes from Kansas Lane to show that the Republican party is crumbling to pieces. The recent elections don't look like it, but if Lane thinks so, let him resign his Senatorship and try his hand. We suspect he would wake up with a flea in his ear.

Question for the Schools.—If a hater of negro equality had been in the army, become separated from his friends during a battle, and suddenly found himself in a field skirted with woods—on one end a thick-lipped, curly-headed, greasy negro, dark as ebony, with dirty and ragged pants and dirtier and more ragged shirt, and at the other end a smoothfaced, white-skinned rebel gentleman, dressed in broadcloth and ruffled shirt, whose company would the hater of negro equality have sought? Cypher it out boys. When you hear any of these negro-dammers blarneying about the nigger, just ax em the same question, just for fun, you know.

☞ A two-year-old child in Cincinnati fell into a privy vault forty-five feet deep, and when discovered was floating in filth, with its head resting on a narrow strip of scantling. The grandmother of the child, a woman sixty-five years of age, tied a rope about her body, jumped into the vault and rescued the child. When they were pulled up, the child was nearly dead, and the grandmother seriously injured by her daring leap.
