occured at Altoona, about half-past 12 o'clock on Thursday night, by which our former townsman, G. W. Stewart, Esq., was a considerable loser. From a long account in the Tribune, we compile the following particulars: It broke out in the ware-room attached to Myers & Ehrhart's grocery store, in Odenwalder's Brown Row, on Virginia street, and had gained considerable headway, before it was discovered. All efforts to check the progress of the flames appeared useless, and the buildings connected on either side with the one in which the fire originated, were given over to them, and those who attempted to do any work, turned their attention to saving personal property, and applying water to the roof and sides of the buildings adjacent but disconnected from the burning block. The store in which the fire originated was situated in the centre of a block of frame houses. Immediately adjoining it on the north were the buildings of Dr. A. P. Calderwood, A. L. McCartney, and the McClellan House, owned by Nicholas Ehringer. Adjoining ing examinations of the College satisfacit on the south was a row of one-story torily, and , who will no doubt hereafter H. POLITICAL .- A few weeks ago Anti and on Monday evening a Soldiers' Clymer Club was formed to return thanks to Clymer for the support he did not give them. Gen. Irwin and Lieut. J. Stewart McEwen were the speakers. We hear that much complaint was made of being slandered at home by the Republicans while they were in the field. If this is so, there's a mistake somewhere, as we happen to know that the warmest opposisition to Col. Irwin came from his democratic friends, and the worst we ever heard of Lieut, McEwen was uttered by soldiers who were with him in Nashville. The Southern Idol aid Northern Basis of Patent Democracy, the Darkey, also came in for a share of blessings, they not having read Mr. Nasby's latest discovery that the darkey might be of some use to prop up the Circumlocution office hunters.

A press of work has again prevented us from noticing sundry publications and examining several communications on file. McKees new tannery, on Water street, one of the finest buildings crected here for some time, is now in operation. XOne of our citizens informs us that he has found a considerable quantity of lard mixed with the butter he purchased, and wonders whether those who made it milked their pigs as well as cows.

B. J. Sills' horse ran away on Thursday of last week, while removing G. W. Elberty's furniture from the railroad, somewhat injuring Mr. Sills, the furniture and the wagon.

The knob this side of Bixler's Gap has been burning since Monday last, and yes- in it, no doubt. terday had assumed dangerous proportions. The various fires in that quarter must certainly be the result of carelessness on the part of freight engineers.

We are requested to state that the party who committed the assault on Mr. Cox, had not been in Smith's lager beer house that night. They applied for admission, asking for vinegar, but were refused by Mrs. Smith.

The remaining buildings destroyed were  $W^{\text{ANTED}}_{\text{itv. who}}$  have lost either an a A. L.
