

RECIPES.

Victoria Buns.—Two ounces of pound loaf-sugar, one egg, one and a half ounce of ground rice, two ounces of butter, one and a half ounce of currants, a few thin slices of candied peel; flour. Whisk the egg, stir in the sugar, and beat these ingredients well together; beat the butter to a cream, stir in the ground rice, currants, and candied peel, and as much flour as will make it of such consistency that it may be rolled into seven or eight balls. Put these on to a buttered tin, and bake them from half to three quarters of an hour. They should be put into the oven immediately, or they will become heavy; and the oven should be tolerably brisk.

Coconut Biscuit or Cakes.—Ten ounces of sifted sugar, three eggs, six ounces of grated coconut. Whisk the eggs until they are very light; and the sugar gradually; then stir in the coconut. Roll a tablespoonful of the paste at a time in your hands in the form of a pyramid; place the pyramids on paper, put the paper on tins, and bake the biscuits in rather a cool oven until they are just colored a light brown.

Seed Biscuits.—One pound of flour, quarter of a pound of sifted sugar, quarter of a pound of butter, half an ounce of caraway seeds, three eggs. Beat the butter to a cream; stir in the flour, sugar, and caraway seeds; and when these ingredients are well mixed, add the eggs, which should be well whisked. Roll out the paste, with a round cutter shape cut the biscuits, and bake them in a moderate oven from ten to fifteen minutes. The tops of the biscuits may be brushed over with a little milk or the white of an egg, and a little sugar strewn over.

Savory Cakes.—Four eggs, six ounces of pounded sugar, the rind of one lemon, six ounces of flour. Break the eggs into a basin, separating the whites from the yolks; beat the yolks well, mix with them the pounded sugar and grated lemon-rind, and beat these ingredients together for a quarter of an hour. Then dredge in the flour gradually, and when the whites of the eggs have been whisked to a solid froth, stir them into the flour, etc.; beat the mixture well for another five minutes, then draw it along in strips upon thick cartridge paper to the proper size of the biscuit, and bake them in rather a hot oven; but let them be carefully watched, as they are soon done, and a few seconds over the proper time will scorch and spoil them. These biscuits, or ladies-fingers, as they are called, are used for making Charlotte russes, and for a variety of fancy sweet dishes.

Crullers.—Half a pound of butter, three-quarters of a pound of sugar, two pounds of flour, two tablespoonsfuls of milk, a small lump of saleratus the size of a nutmeg; flavor with nutmeg, mace, and a little salt.

Mountain Cake.—One pound of sugar, half a pound of butter, five eggs, one cup of milk, a little nutmeg and cinnamon, one pound of raisins, one glass of wine nearly full, one pound of flour, one teaspoonful of soda, and two teaspoonsfuls of cream of tartar.

Molasses Cake.—Three cups of molasses, one of butter, one of sour milk, two eggs, one spoonful of saleratus, salt, and spice, one quart of flour.—Godey's Lady's Book.
