

THE GAZETTE.

LOCAL AFFAIRS.

On Sunday evening next, the Sabbath preceding June 25th, the anniversary of the solemn presentation by the reformers of their faith to the German Emperor, Princes and Papal Legates at Augsburg, on the 25th of June, 1530, Rev. J. B. Reimensnyder will preach with special reference to that venerable symbol of Protestantism, the Augsburg Confession.

We are indebted to Willie Sheriff, who has opened an establishment above his father's store, for a dish of superior ice cream. Give him a call.

DELICIOUS.—Have you tasted those fine, large, ripe Strawberries, of his own raising, kept by Charley Dabby? If not, you had better repair to his rooms, corner of Dorcas and Mill streets, and try their flavor. He has also on hand at all hours Ice Cream, Cakes, Refreshments, &c. His rooms are pleasant, capacious, and Charley very accommodating to customers. Families supplied by the quantity. Call on him.

MARKETS.—The alterations in the market house are to a great measure completed, and ample opportunity is afforded by the accommodations there for testing the question whether anything like a regular market can be established. Council we think would do well by establishing two regular market days, say Wednesday and Saturday morning and evening, and passing a prohibitory ordinance against the sale or purchase of all articles usually kept at markets at any other place during market hours. This power they possess without question. Our citizens can also materially aid the establishment of such an institution by every means of a family determining not to purchase meats, vegetables, or other articles, except at the market house.

THE CIRCUS IS COMING here on Friday and will be at Belleville on Saturday, and of course all who want to laugh and grow fat, who expect to see ground and lofty tumbling, legs and arms in all kinds of shapes from hoops to crotchets, horses on their heads and riders on their backs, clowns making fools of themselves by netting the parts of wise men, learned horses, educated dogs and monkeys, trick mules which can cheat you out of your eyes, Josh Hart, the great Dutch Clown (who we presume will enlighten the audience how to drink zwai lager, and for might we know waltz on his head,) as well as other animals—will of course have a half dollar on hand with ten cents over for ginger cakes and beer. Like snooks, we don't approve particularly of such gatherings as are too often found at these exhibitions, but as people will follow Old Nick on some road, they may as well take the circus road as any other.

TO GUNNERS.—Some persons, not having the fear of the law before their eyes, have been, for some time back, indulging in the sport of shooting squirrels. For the benefit of all parties, we publish the following extract from the law as passed by the late Legislature of this State:

SECTION 2. That from after the passage of this act, no person shall shoot, kill or otherwise destroy any pheasant between the first day of January and the first day of September, or any squirrel between the first day of January and the fifteenth day of August, or any woodcock between the first day of January and the fourth day of July, or any partridge or rabbit between the first day of January and the first day of November, in the present year, and in each and every year thereafter, under the penalty of five dollars for each and every offence.

Obey the law, gentlemen, and let the squirrels alone!

A. W. Gray, Esq., Secretary, requests us to state that at a meeting of the committee appointed to make arrangements for the reception of the State colors on the Fourth of July next, it was resolved that Commanding Officers of regiments late in the service of the United States be requested to furnish their color-bearers and guards who design participating in the ceremonies on the Fourth of July, with such credentials as will satisfy the Committee, to whom they report, that they are authorized to receive the colors and entitled to quarters and subsistence.

NOTICE TO REGIMENTAL COMMANDERS.—Late commanders of Regiments of the 11th military district, composed of the following counties to wit: Juniata, Mifflin, Huntingdon, Centre and Clearfield, will please forward to me at once, the name and post office address of all the Color-bearers and guards, in their respective counties, to enable me to forward to them passes on the Railroads to Philadelphia and return, that they may be present to bear once more their old flags, at the Flag Presentation, on the 4th of July, in Philadelphia.

B. N. BLAIR, Capt., Chairman of the Com. of Transportation for the 14th Military District.

A wedding in Ferguson Valley, on Thursday evening, 14th inst. SUMMER DRINKS, ice cold, and fresh cakes, at Johnny Swan's.

A cat fish measuring about 20 inches and weighing 4 pounds, cleaned, was taken by Joseph Comfort and Ard Snyder on Friday night last. The same party caught about 85 eels, 40 cat fish and a number of fall and other fish beside.

CANCER CAN BE CURED. Dr. Hebern, of Quincy, Illinois, cures cancer without knife, pain, or loss of blood; in from four to twenty-four hours; also treats consumption successfully.

Hon. Charles R. Coburn has been re-appointed Superintendent of Common Schools. He will continue in office until some time before the expiration of the term of Gov. Curtin, when Prof. Wickersham will take his place.

A DEMOCRATIC BUBBLE.—After some weeks notice in the Democrat and by bills in which everybody was invited to attend the "Big Democratic Meeting" on Saturday evening, a gathering not even filling the Town Hall was raked together to hear Ezra D. Parker of Millintown speak—but Ezra, probably bearing in mind his Vallandigham denunciations of President Lincoln and everybody else who wasn't for peace on any terms, delivered in the public square in the fall of 1864, wasn't on hand! In this emergency The Chambers were called on, Gen. Irwin leading off with his usual "glittering generalities," meaning just anything at all from green cheese in the moon to iron ore in Granville township. The "nigger" part fell to Thomas M. Uttley, Esq., Prosecuting Attorney, who, our informant tells us, was chief of the ring for the evening.—He depicted in horrid colors what a sight it would be for a colored man and a white woman, or vice versa, to march to Squire Rudisill's office to be made man and wife, and it is hoped if any one was at the meeting who had hankering after the daughters of Ham, his powerful logic was sufficient to convince him it would be decidedly unpopular, as although such doings are democratic enough at the south, the northern democracy has not yet come to recognize its propriety, but may do so in time to come, just as they did slavery. He was also very fearful of General Palmer, Hollings or some other colored man should become his equal, or the equal of somebody else—an event in history not at all improbable, judging from the wishy-washy stuff he delivered as a speech, Gen. J. Ard Matthews next set up his imitation roar, but flew off the track into attacking Judges, which did not please the other general. This "frustrated" the speaker somewhat, and after a short peroration on copperheads and democratic spoils, he rested from his labors. "Colonel" Banks was then called out, but as he thought Gen. Irwin had exhausted or dried up the democracy, nothing more need be said, and then the meeting adjourned—to take a drink. Such is our informant's account of this demonstration, which he thinks has made at least half a dozen Geary votes.

But the great feature of this meeting remains to be told. The audience had inflated so much of the nigger, that when one of the speakers related that $21,000,000 had been appropriated for the freedmen and not one cent for the benefit of soldiers' widows and orphans—the house came down with tremendous applause! and so absorbed were these eloquent orators in the sweet-smelling quintessence of democracy that the name of the man whom they profess to worship, was not once mentioned!

Sundry resolutions were then proposed, of which the following may or may not be thought to be a copy:

Resolved, That niggers ought not to have a vote.

Resolved, That if they should ever get a vote, they ought to be Democrats, because Democrats were always in favor of equal laws, equal rights, and equal privileges.

Resolved, That soldiers ought not to be elected to office.

Resolved, That the true interests of soldiers are to nominate present any price Democrats or copperheads to office, and therefore the Pittsburgh convention did an insulting wrong in endorsing General Geary.

Resolved, That all soldiers in favor of nominating peace Democrats or copperheads to office be invited to attend a State Convention at Reading or Harrisburg.

Resolved, That a committee of three veterans be appointed to ascertain from Mr. Clymer whether he drafts soldiers, county jumpers, draft skidders and bammers soldiers in full standing or sneaks, and report at next meeting.

For the Gazette.

Messrs. Editors:—A meeting of the "Soldiers' Johnson-Clymer Club" was called on Saturday night, to which all soldiers were invited. Able speakers were to be present to address the meeting. Now, it has long been a question with me, what could induce any soldier to vote for Clymer, and thinking I should hear if I attended this meeting, I was among the number who filled the Town Hall on that night. Major McEwen being called to the chair and an organization perfected, Gen. W. H. Irwin was called upon to speak. Now, thought I, for the reasons, but the Gen. only told us that all our money had been spent, all our blood shed, to place us on an equality with the negro. He thought also, that as we had had a family quarrel with the South, and had whipped them, we should now say, "Come back, oh! our wayward, misguided brethren, and be good, or if you don't we will be compelled to whip you again." This was the substance of the Gen's speech, and in it we had no reason given why soldiers should vote for Clymer.—Tom Uttley then gave us the information that the Democratic party had always been in favor of the Union, and that if the Republicans succeeded, black men everywhere would marry white women, no reason in his speech, I began to despair. But Gen. J. A. Matthews arose. Now, for certain, I thought, we will get the reasons. But, although I paid the strictest attention, I could not make out what this speaker was at. He seemed to have a peculiar spite at somebody whom he called "Sam." Not a single reason was given why a soldier should vote for Clymer. In fact, Clymer's name was not even mentioned in the course of the three speeches, and I came to the conclusion that they knew there were no reasons, and therefore the less said on that subject the better, and that is what I think.

We use the best material, and profess to understand our business. I append the following card from H. S. Fisher, Patentee of my patented Spring Top Can: Caution to Merchants & Tinners. Since the great success of my cemented paper rings for sealing Fruit Cans, some have thought to imitate the same without success. By infringing upon my patent, some cans longer patented than mine, on which gum had been used under their patent arrangement, are now making their appearance with cemented paper rings, instead of the gum formerly used. In most cases such infringements take place through persons not responsible, who take orders in country stores. While the manufacturers in the cities have for the most part concealed their work, this is to notify the public that the use of cemented paper, pressed upon the top of a fruit can, during the heated state of the fruit, is not only possible, but is a certain and infallible means of preventing the fruit from becoming an infraction upon my rights, unless the person using a can having a cap with my name stamped upon it. Any kind of cement upon this paper, involving a process of pressing during the coming of the fruit, in contact with my patents, dated Nov. 12, 1864, Aug. 19, 1865, March 22, 1864, All who manufacture, sell, or use cans with my name stamped upon them, are liable for infringement.
